

Curriculum Vita
January 2020

Instructor: Lloyd E. Whelchel, Adjunct
Academic Department:

University Address: Texas A&M University-Commerce
PO Box 3011
Commerce, TX 75429-3011

Office Phone:

University Email Address: Lloyd.Whelchel@tamuc.edu

Faculty Web Page Address:

EDUCATION

Board Certified in Criminal Law 2015

South Texas College of Law May 1997, Juris Doctor

Louisiana Tech University Nov 1992, Business Management

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

I have also lectured on numerous areas over the last twenty years, including search and seizure, report writing, testimony, cross examination, Field Sobriety Testing from a prosecutor's standpoint.

As the Chief of the misdemeanor section I am responsible for weekly trainings for the section. We have put approximately 130 trainings.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Tarrant County District Attorney's Office - Assistant District Attorney

December 2019 to the present – Chief of the White-Collar Crime

January 2016 to December 2019– Chief of the Misdemeanor Section

- Supervise 24 lawyers assigned to 10 County Criminal Courts
- Responsible for ongoing training
- Handle a case load that includes capital murder, murder, to a variety of misdemeanors

September 2009 to December 2015 – Chief of a Criminal District Court

- Supervisor four prosecutors on a daily basis
- Jury trial experience including but not limited to: Capital Murder (Death Penalty and wavier cases), Aggravated Robbery, Aggravated Sexual Assault of a Child, Sexual Assault, Aggravated Assault, Intoxicated Manslaughter, and Violation of a Civil Commitment of a Sexual Predator;
- Participation in weekly court dockets, pleas, bond hearings, motions to suppress and probation revocations before the court

July 1997 to October 2004; January 2007 to December 2015

Assigned to a number of felony courts; Responsible for:

- All aspects of jury trials and evaluation of cases for plea negotiations;
- Filing, investigation, and presentation of cases to Grand Jury;
- Participation in weekly court dockets, pleas, bond hearings and motions to suppress before the court;
- Mentoring and teaching of prosecutors;

Lamar County and District Attorney's Office – First Assistant District Attorney

10/2004 to 12/2006

- Came in with a new District Attorney and helped build the office from the ground up. Implemented new procedures for intake, Grand Jury, open file policy, and how cases were tried
- Supervised the misdemeanor lawyers and secretary staff. Responsible for felony trial docket and my own felony trial cases