COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Activities / Assessments

Knowledge of the substantive material covered in the course is of central importance. Grades in BGS 402 are based upon a student’s work in content areas that reflect the course objectives and the core communication skills that students are expected to learn. Each of these content areas represents a fixed percentage of the course’s content.

Grading will include consideration of content as well as grammar, spelling, style, and organization. In addition late submission to any of the requirements in this course will not be accepted; therefore, students are responsible for adhering to the scheduled due dates for all requirements in this course.

Academic Honesty Policy: Students are REQUIRED to submit the completed Academic Honesty Policy form (download form found under the Doc Sharing tab in the eCollege course) to the Dropbox within the eCollege course. The purpose of this acknowledged form is to confirm that you have read and understand the Academic Honesty Policy. Grades for future assignments will receive a zero until this requirement is met.

Online Class Discussion: 4 at 5% each – 20% total: Each student will participate in online discussion forums. The discussion will only be available for a limited time period. Merely making a brief post or reply to each discussion thread will not ensure full credit. Discussions will be graded on quality of content. Discussion postings and replies should be reviewed for correct spelling, proper grammar, punctuation, and capitalization.

- The Discussion Boards are worth up to 20% of your grade. Each student is required to make thoughtful posts as well as replies to other students' posts for the assigned topic and follow explicit instructions for posting requirements.
- It is the responsibility of each student to keep up with the scheduled discussions for each module. In order to achieve the highest possible score for discussion participation, students should post more than the minimum replies to show active engagement in the discussion. Once the discussion topic has closed, it will not be reopened.
- To help you understand the method of grading for discussion posts, please review the following:

Discussion Board Grading Rubric
Max Score		Description
70	Proficient: Engaged in a professional conversation with colleagues (51-70 points)	Needs improvement: Conversation lacks substance (35-50 points)	Unacceptable: Did not engage in a professional conversation with colleagues (0-34 points)
30	No spelling, grammar, or APA formatting errors (30 points)	Minor errors in spelling, grammar, or APA formatting (20-29 points)	Major errors in spelling, grammar, or APA formatting (0-19 points)
Total: 100

Each Discussion Board will contain a discussion thread topic pertaining to a specific chapter in the textbook. Students will need to do an Initial Post to each Discussion Board topic along with the appropriate number of Replies:

1 Post + 1 Reply = "C"

1 Post + 2 Replies = "B"

1 Post + 3 or more Replies = "A"

- Initial Post: Student provides thoughtful and thorough responses to each topic for discussion. Student gives particular attention to increasing their knowledge as they relate to concepts from the text. Student is timely with providing appropriate responses so the class and/or group members have an opportunity to participate.
- Replies to other students are also thoughtful and thorough and uses an appropriate critical thinking level. More than required replies to other students reflect actively engaging in class discussion.
- Posting an initial response and one reply to another student for a Discussion Board topic is a minimal requirement and this can put you in the 'C' range for a grade. Additional points will be reduced for not relating discussion to appropriate concepts in the textbook, not relating discussion to relevant topic, and not posting according to time schedule. Students who do not apply added value by being thoughtful and thorough to the discussion may earn a grade of zero for the discussion.
- Students should complete a spelling and grammar check on all of their posts and replies.

Follow the Assignment Calendar due dates for Posts and Replies for each Discussion Board. It is critical that students read ALL the postings for each topic. This will ensure that you not only respond to the topic questions but to your colleagues' comments as well. Also, it will help in ensuring against anyone plagiarizing your work.

Course Objective/Learning Outcomes #1/2/3/4/5: The learner will confirm learning objectives by discussing how to conduct a literature review using scholarly sources, how to create a reference list of scholarly resources, and how to develop a business related research question/problem.

Course Objective/Learning Outcomes #2/4: The learner will confirm learning objective demonstrating the ability to conduct a literature review using scholarly sources.

Writing Assignments: 4 at 10% each - 40% total: Each writing assignment will require APA formatting (6th edition). Specific directions will be available for each of the four writing assignments within the course. The writing assignment will be submitted as a .doc or .docx file to the appropriate Dropbox on or before the due date.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcome #1/2/3/4

Quizzes: 4 at 5% each - 20% total: Each quiz will cover content from the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th edition). Each quiz may contain multiple-choice, true/false, and/or essay questions. Students can access each quiz only ONCE and must adhere to the schedule for each quiz. Failure to complete a quiz by the due date will result in the student earning a grade of zero for the missed quiz. Quizzes will not be reset. Please be sure you have a secure Internet connection before beginning a quiz.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcome #1

Final Research Paper: 20% total: The Final Research Paper is worth up to 20% of your final grade. This is an INDIVIDUAL assignment. The student will prepare a research paper. Students MUST use American Psychological Association (APA, 6th edition) style formatting and citation. The Final Research Paper will involve a business topic that has been researched using peer reviewed journal articles. Note: A list of topics will be available under the Doc Sharing tab within the course.

Submitting papers: All written assignments must be submitted as a Microsoft Word file (.doc or .docx file extension) to the appropriate Dropbox within eCollege and be produced in 12-point Arial or Times New Roman Font, and double-spaced. Always use block left format with jagged right margins. Always use tabs at the beginning of paragraphs. Proofread carefully. Grammar, punctuation, and style count heavily in this course. You will be amazed what Spell Check and Grammar Check will either miss or absurdly advise you to do. All Final Research Papers submitted to the Dropbox will automatically be submitted to Turnitin.com, which will produce an originality report for review. The percentage results that you receive from Turnitin must be less than 25%.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcome #5: The learner will prepare a research paper that will demonstrate and utilize the scientific research method through an analysis process using descriptive, historical, correlational, and experimental research methods involving a researched business question/problem.

Student Conduct

All students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. You are adults and will be treated as such. Discriminatory, rude, and inappropriate language will not be tolerated in this class and students will be asked to leave or drop the class (these same rules apply for online discussions). If a student continues to act in the same manner during future classes, the instructor reserves the right to drop the student from the course.

Academic Integrity

If you are to excel in this course, the need for collaboration is undeniable, even in cases of individual work. There is a fine line in this process. You are encouraged to seek the help and advice of others. However, you must do your own work. Please ask me if you have questions about what is proper and what is not.

Intellectual Ownership:

When reviewing the literature, one frequently peruses written thoughts, findings, conclusions, and perspectives of individuals and organizations that may be used to create credibility and/or rationale from investigative studies. A problem, however, is how to capitalize on such information, yet not violate the principles of intellectual ownership. One solution involves answering two questions: (1) what is plagiarism? (2) How is plagiarism avoided? Simply stated, plagiarism is claiming another person's or organization's works as one's own. Such violations may be avoided by knowing how to use and acknowledge the works of others. The 6th Edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association states: "Authors do not present the work of another as if it were their own work" (p. 16). "Whether paraphrasing, quoting an author directly, or describing an idea that influenced your work, you must credit the source" (p. 170). Quotation marks should be used to indicate the exact words of another. Each time you paraphrase another author (i.e., summarize a passage or rearrange the order of a sentence and change some of the words), you will need to cite it in the text.

Some people seem to believe that anything found on the Internet is free to use as they please. The "cut and paste" option also makes it easy to plagiarize. However, information on the web must be properly cited just as you would any "hard copy" periodicals. In this course, APA style citation is expected. Any written assignments must include in text citations as well as a separate reference page. The following web site provides valuable insight relating to what constitutes plagiarism and how it may be avoided: <http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml>.

To avoid plagiarism an individual must give credit wherever he or she uses:

- another individual's idea, opinion, or theory
- facts, statistics, graphs, and drawings that are not common knowledge
- quotations of another individual's spoken or written words
- paraphrase another individual's spoken or written words

Any deviation from the guidelines concerning quotes and citations constitutes plagiarism, as it suggests that you are trying to submit someone else's work and creativity as your own. In accordance with the Texas A&M University-Commerce Code of Student Conduct Section 5.b [1, 2, 3], the penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Acts of plagiarism will result in writing assignments and research projects assigned a grade of '0' for the first offense. Upon the second offense, student will be referred to the Dean of Student Services and will receive a grade of 'F' for the course with possible removal from the program and university. TAMU-C has purchased a license for TurnItIn.com which checks for plagiarism. All submitted course requirements may be submitted to this service. If the report generated notes that your work is plagiarized, you will receive an 'F' for that course requirement and course.
