COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

This course looks at the different roles that the HR department plays in organizations and the skills needed to accomplish day-to-day activities of HR personnel. In the first part of the course, students examine how HR is an integral part of the strategic process in organizations and the role of the HR manager in carrying out the strategic goals set forth by organizational leaders. The next section goes into the process used by HR to analyze personnel needs and recruitment of talent, and select the right people to work for the organization. The next part of the course covers the areas of employee training and development, compensation and benefits, performance appraisals, and pay for performance. Finally, the course wraps up with topics exploring workplace discrimination and labor laws, as well as ethical conflicts in organization and the trend towards globalization in the HR function.

Course Competency

Describe human resource skills used by organizational leaders in day-to-day operations.

Pretest

The Pretest for this Talent Leadership course assesses your knowledge of role of the HR manager, personnel planning & recruiting, criteria for employee selection, employee training & development programs, performance appraisal criteria, pay plan & benefits, employment discrimination & labor laws, ethical conflicts in an organization, and need for global HR expansion.

Learning Outcomes

1. Analyze the role of the HR manager as a strategic partner to manage human resources in the organization.
2. Develop a personnel planning and recruiting plan for an organization.
3. Develop and implement criteria for employee selection.
4. Identify key deficits in employee training and development programs.
5. Develop performance appraisal criteria for multiple positions in an organization.
6. Determine which type of pay plan and benefits mix would be suitable to an organization's strategic initiatives and employee base.
7. Apply employment discrimination and labor laws to deal effectively with employment issues on the job.

8. Manage ethical conflicts in an organization through discipline, grievance, and career management processes.
9. Identify the need for global HR expansion and develop a hiring strategy that best suits the new business environment.

Posttest

The Posttest for this Talent Leadership course assesses your knowledge of role of the HR manager, personnel planning & recruiting, criteria for employee selection, employee training & development programs, performance appraisal criteria, pay plan & benefits, employment discrimination & labor laws, ethical conflicts in an organization, and need for global HR expansion.

The Posttest is an assessment of your knowledge of the material required for the competency. A score of 80 points or higher is required to demonstrate competency. If you score less than 80 points on any competency you will have an opportunity to review the material and re-take the competency Posttest. You may take the Posttest assessment up to three times. If you have not passed the competency in three attempts, you will work with an Academic Coach to determine another method of fulfilling the program requirements in this subject. In order to demonstrate competency, a score of 80 points or higher is required.

If the term ends prior to you being able to demonstrate competency you will receive a grade of "X" and be required to complete the remaining competencies in the next term.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See 'Code of Student Conduct' from Student Guide Handbook)

Academic Honesty Policy

Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material. Violation of these academic standards may result in removal or failure. Please see the TAMUC Catalog.

Cheating is defined as:

- Copying another's test or assignment
- Communication with another during an exam or assignment (i.e. written, oral or otherwise)
- Giving or seeking aid from another when not permitted by the instructor
- Possessing or using unauthorized materials during the test
- Buying, using, stealing, transporting, or soliciting a test, draft of a test, or answer key

Plagiarism is defined as:

- Using someone else's work in your assignment without appropriate acknowledgement
- Making slight variations in the language and then failing to give credit to the source

Collusion is defined as:

- Collaborating with another, without authorization, when preparing an assignment

If you have any questions regarding academic dishonesty, ask. Otherwise, I will assume that you have full knowledge of the academic dishonesty policy and agree to the conditions as set forth in this syllabus.

Dropping the Class

If you need to adjust your schedule by dropping this course, please contact your Academic Coach. Please be aware that dropping your course may impact your financial aid, veterans and military benefits, three year, 45-hour, and 30-hour rules. It is the student's responsibility to drop the course. If you fail to officially drop the class, a failing grade shall be assigned.

Incompletes

If you receive a grade of "X" or Incomplete you have one full term to complete the items that remain incomplete. If you have not submitted the necessary assignments by the end of the next full term your grade automatically converts to an "F."

Student Withdrawal

A student wishing to withdraw from all courses before the end of a term for which he/she is registered must clear his or her record by filing an application for voluntary withdrawal. Please contact your Academic Coach.

This action must be taken by the date stated in the Academic Calendar as the last day to drop a class or withdraw. Any student who withdraws from the university is subject to the conditions outlined in the section regarding Scholastic Probation or Suspension in the university catalog. It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from classes if he or she does not plan to attend during the semester in he/she has enrolled. A student has one year from the first day of a semester to appeal a withdrawal refund. Courses withdrawn are counted as attempted hours and count towards the three-peat, 45-hour and 30-hour rules and financial aid and veterans and military benefits.

Instructor Withdrawal

Your instructor of record reserves the right to withdraw a student from his or her course based on inadequate access to and progress in the online course materials.

Students with Disabilities

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
