Course Description

This course is designed to help students examine the developments, events and issues involved in the creation of the United States of America through the Reconstruction Era. During the course, all students will be required to identify themes and ideas fundamental to U.S. History and evaluate critically explanations of historical events through brief writing assignments and class discussions. Critical thinking is essential for any understanding of American history; therefore, students will be asked to critically evaluate not just memorize the course materials. In this class, we will work together to develop the skills necessary for all students to be successful, but your participation and preparation is required. Last, enjoy the class!

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems and explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

The course requires a combination of class participation, quizzes, writing assignments, and examinations. ALL ASSIGNMENTS MUST BE HANDED IN BY THE END OF THE CLASS PERIOD ON THE DAY THEY ARE DUE (NO LATE ASSIGNMENT WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR FULL CREDIT). The late assignment will be assessed a five point penalty for each day that it is late. Students are expected to read the required readings before class in order to participate fully in the discussion. I will use a variety of different methods to engage the material in the course. Lecture, group discussion, class discussion and written assignments will be used as the methods of assessment.

Exams

The exams of the course will be a combination of multiple choices, short answer, and essay questions based on the lectures, secondary and primary source readings.

Participation

The student's participation grade will be earned through taking part in classroom discussion sessions. Each student is encouraged to participate and prepare questions for class. Class disruptions will not be tolerated. These include but are not limited to the following: ringing cell phones, phones, tardiness, laptop computers, and PDAs. Tape recorders and laptops will not be allowed except in case of a student with a disability. All cell phones, laptops, tablets and any other hand held device must be stored away during class. (Students arriving more than five minutes late will be asked to leave).

All class periods will include some form of class participation activity. These will be part of your participation grade.

Attendance

Class attendance will be a part of your participation grade. All students will begin with thirty participation points. Starting with the third unexcused absence your attendance score will drop by ten points and after the third missed class, there will be a five point penalty for each additional missed class.

Discussion Board

During the course of the semester, there will be weekly discussion board questions based on the assigned readings and Voices of Freedom. All students must post an answer to the question and respond to the responses of two different classmates. Each discussion board response will be worth ten points. If you do not post a response and respond to the answers of two different classmates, you will not receive full credit.

Writing Assignments

Each student will be required to complete two writing assignments. The essays will be no more than three pages and based primarily on the readings in Voices of Freedom: A Documentary History. In the paper, the student will respond to specific questions posed in the syllabus and follow the writing assignment outline posted on eCollege under the docsharing tab. The paper must be in the form of an essay, not bullet points, addressing the questions listed in the writing assignment outline and use Chicago Style notations. The outline should be used as a guide to help you organize your paper. Do not summarize the readings! The due dates are listed in the course outline.

GRADING

Exam 1	100 pts.
Exam 2	100 pts.
Exam 3	100 pts.
Discussion Board	30 pts.
Writing Assignments	40 pts.
Participation	30 pts.

Grades

A 400- 359; B 358-319; C 318-278, D 276-238, F 237 – below

The grading criteria of all written work will be based on the following descriptions:

A = Superior mastery of content and reading material; clear organization and factual accuracy; innovative interpretation or argument that responds to the specific directions of the assignment, test, or essay; clearly written.

B = Excellent command of the content and reading material; factual accuracy; a generally solid thesis driven historical argument backed with specific relevant evidence.

C = Average command of content material; reasonable factual accuracy; ability to produce a specific thesis driven argument that may not be original and is not supported by the evidence.

D = Poor command of content and failure to follow directions; historical errors of fact; no real thesis or argument driving the essay.

Turnitin

All students must submit an electronic copy to Turnitin.com and a hard copy to the instructor. Submissions to Turnitin are made through drop box on eCollege. All written work will be submitted through the drop box. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Make-up Exams: In the rare case that a student misses an exam, make-up exams will be allowed if the student provides a documented reason to the instructor. The student must contact the instructor within one week of the exam via email to provide the documented reason and schedule the make-up exam. If the student fails to follow the state guidelines, the student will receive a point deduction to be determined by the instructor. The design and questions of the make-up may differ than the scheduled exam, so students are encouraged to take the scheduled exam. You cannot reschedule the final exam without prior authorization of the instructor.
