

ON THE FIRST DAY OF CLASS (JANUARY 19) – LOG INTO eCOLLEGE AND CLICK ON THE “START HERE” LINK ON THE LEFT HAND SIDE OF YOUR SCREEN. HERE YOU WILL FIND A VIDEO WITH INSTRUCTIONS FOR NAVIGATING THE COURSE!

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

This course will focus on the relationship of psychology to sport. Topics include history of sport psychology, application of learning principles, social psychology, personality variables, psychological assessment, youth sport, women in sport, the psychology of coaching, and performance enhancements.

INSTRUCTOR:

Dr. Stacey Gaines, Ph.D.
Adjunct Faculty, Health & Human Performance

E-Mail: stacey.gaines@tamuc.edu

OFFICE HOURS:

Online by appointment.

IMPORTANT NOTE**

Dr. Gaines is not on campus. When students have questions regarding the course, they should email her to receive a response.

I will generally respond to emails within 24 hours, except over the weekend. If you send an email after 5pm on Friday, you may not receive a reply until after 9am on Monday.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

B.A. (University of Northern Colorado), Kinesiology and Psychology

M.S. (University of Northern Colorado) Sport & Exercise Science – Social Psychology of Sport and Exercise

Ph.D. (Purdue University), Health & Kinesiology – Sport and Exercise Psychology

Research Interests: Character development in sport, Social relationships in sport, Motivation

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK / MATERIALS:

1. Williams, J.M. & Krane, V. (2014). Applied Sport Psychology: From Personal Growth to Peak Performance (7th ed.). McGraw-Hill.

YOU WILL NEED ACCESS TO THE COURSE TEXTBOOK BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF CLASS!

2. Additional readings will be made available throughout the semester.
3. Students will need to have access to and knowledge of use of TAMUK’s Blackboard.

COURSE FORMAT:

This course will be offered fully online. Methods of instruction will include class discussion, facilitative inquiry, practical application, case studies, and assignments. Online courses are designed to be more convenient, not easier. As such, self-motivation is required on behalf of students to successfully navigate course responsibilities.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Over the course of the semester, the students will:

1. Discuss the focus and scope of sport and exercise psychology within the context of kinesiology.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the principles of sport psychology through application of course concepts to students' careers.
3. Identify principles of sport psychology in sporting events, athletes, and various personalities.
4. Demonstrate competency in relating course concepts to peer-reviewed, empirical literature.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of the use of psychological methods in enhancing personal development and human performance in sport and physical activity.
6. Discuss the development and implementation of a psychological skills training program within a variety of sport and physical activity settings.

*Students may vary in their competency levels on these abilities. Students can expect to acquire these abilities only if they honor all course policies, attend class regularly, complete all assigned work on time and in good faith, and meet all other course requirements and expectations. In other words, you are in control of your education!*

This course is an online course that will be 100% online and is located within eCollege. To log onto eCollege, visit the University's main website, then click on "My Leo." Log on using your CWID and your password, then click on eCollege. Select this course and use the heading on the left of the screen to navigate the course, beginning with START HERE.

The following support options are available from an eCollege representative 24 hours a day/7 days a week:

- Chat Support: Click on Live Support on the tool bar within your course to chat with an eCollege Representative.
- Phone: Dial 1-866-656-5511 (Toll Free) to speak with an eCollege Representative.
- Email: helpdesk@online.tamuc.org to send a message to an eCollege Representative

If you have questions pertaining to the content of the course (i.e., questions about an exam, course due dates, grades, etc.), please email Dr. Gaines directly. You are encouraged to utilize the FAQ Board for the course (click on the link located in the Course Menu) to ask and answer questions.

METHODS OF EVALUATION AND GRADING PROCEDURES:

Performance Evaluation

Student performance (i.e., the degree to which the student achieves the aforementioned SLOs) will be evaluated via the following:

NOTE: FOR ALL DUE DATES LISTED BELOW, THE CUT OFF TIME FOR SUBMISSION IS 11:59PM CST ON THE DATE LISTED. There will be NO exceptions to this policy, so plan accordingly. Technical problems on your end are not an excuse for a late submission. You should plan to complete assignments early to avoid any problems!

- Exams (300 points, 150 points each)
One midterm and one final exam will be given. These exams will be short and long essay in nature. The midterm exam will cover material covered up to that point in the course. The final exam will focus primarily (at least 80%) on topics covered since the midterm. Exams will be located in
- Discussion Question Responses (250 points, 50 points each)
The discussion portion of this course is critical to learning and is meant to model the face-to-face discussion that takes place in an on campus classroom. To best facilitate learning, students will be divided into smaller groups for this discussion. For each week a question is due (see schedule later in this syllabus), students will be given 2-3 discussion questions related to the assigned readings, current events, and/or relevant issues in sport. Each student must post at least one answer to each question. Then, each student may return to the discussion thread and respond to classmates' discussion posts. In other words, each student will reply to EACH question at least ONE TIME throughout the week, however a second post may be considered as extra credit. In all cases, posts must be completed by the due date indicated. It is recommended that students' post their first response no later than Wednesday of the week to allow for sufficient discussion. Students who abide by this recommendation will be eligible for extra credit points at the end of the semester, should the need arise. Additional information on the Discussion Board is provided in the Discussion Board Guidelines (located under the "Doc Sharing" link in the Course Menu).
- Mental Skills Training Program (150 points)
Throughout the course of the semester, students will work to develop a mental skills training program. This program will be designed for a team/group of the student's choice, and students are encouraged to use a team familiar to them when possible. Additional information on this program is provided in the Mental Skills Training Program Guidelines (located under the "Doc Sharing" link in the Course Menu).
- Journal Posts (100 points, 25 points each)
To facilitate the completion of the Mental Skills Training Program assignment, students will complete four scheduled journal posts. These posts are meant to assist students in designing the Mental Skills Training Program by encouraging feedback from both classmates and Dr. Gaines. Additional information on these journal posts is provided in the Mental Skills Training Program Guidelines (located under the "Doc Sharing" link in the Course Menu).
- Article Summaries (200 points, 40 points each)
Five article summaries will be completed throughout the semester. These article summaries are short (1-2 pages, single-spaced) designed to familiarize students with finding research articles online, summarizing research, and critically evaluating the research. You will be assigned one article per week based on course topics. Article assignments will be posted under the "Article Summary" link (located in DocSharing, no later than the second week of class. Each summary should briefly, and in your own words, state the purpose of the study, methods the researcher(s) used, study findings, study conclusions, and your perceptions of the research. Additional information on these article summaries is provided in the Article Summaries Guidelines (located under the "Doc Sharing" link in the Course Menu).

Grading Procedures

The final course grade will be based on the following examination weights and criteria:

Exams (2 x 150 points each)	300 points
Discussion Question Responses (5 x 50 points each)	250 points
Mental Skills Training Program	150 points
MST Program Blog Posts (4 x 25 points each)	100 points
Article Summaries (5 x 50 points each)	250 points
Total	1000 points

A = 900 to 1000 points
B = 800 to 899 points
C = 700 to 799 points
D = 600 to 699 points
F = 599 points and below

In general terms, these are what I am considering when thinking of letter grades:

- A = not only a complete grasp, but a fluency with the course concepts including independent thought beyond the bounds of the coursework
- B = a good grasp of the concepts and an ability to apply them
- C = a middling grasp of the course material demonstrated by an ability to repeat the material, as by rote
- D = an incomplete or tenuous understanding of the course material

Grades will be posted weekly in eCollege. While the entire grade will not be calculated, the points earned for assignments up to that point will be posted. Students should periodically check the Gradebook and report any grades they feel to be in error to Dr. Gaines prior to Wednesday, May 11th.

Examination/Assignment Grade Appeal

Once exams/assignments have been graded and returned to the students, any appeal of any exam/assignment item must be made within one week for it to be considered by the instructor.

COURSE POLICIES

- This course is offered fully online. As such, attendance will be marked by the submission of assignments.
- eCollege and email will be our primary method of communication. Please refer to it regularly.

Submission of Assignments

- Assignments will be turned in NO later than the assigned date and time! Technical problems will not be an acceptable excuse for late assignments. Students should work well in advance of due dates/times to be sure assignments are submitted on time!
- Students should ONLY use eCollege to turn in assignments. Assignments that are emailed to Dr. Gaines directly will not be accepted for credit. Students must use the appropriate assignment DropBox to submit assignments correctly.
- Students should be aware that every assignment submitted in eCollege is also processed through a plagiarism detection service.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

- To fully participate in online courses you will need to use a current Flash enabled browser. For PC users, the suggested browser is Google Chrome or Mozilla Firefox. For Mac users, the most current update of Firefox is suggested.

STATEMENT OF STUDENT BEHAVIOR (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct)

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. Inappropriate behavior will result in disciplinary action including, but not limited to, a deduction in points or failure of the course.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

At no time should you submit work in place of your own or utilize the words, thoughts, or phrases of other authors without proper citation. You are required to abide by the APA guidelines which state, "researchers do not claim the words or ideas of another as their own; they give credit where credit is due (APA Ethics Code, Standard 8.11, Plagiarism). Plagiarism, self-plagiarism, and academic cheating is a violation of the university's student code of conduct and will be reported to the Dean of Students on all occasions. Please err on the side of caution and become very familiar with the APA guidelines. A link in the Course Menu introduces you to APA citations and the avoidance of plagiarism. Even when you are citing a source, you may not utilize another author's words unless their words are in direct quotations and the source is cited properly, including page numbers. You may not utilize your previous work in this course. If you wish to use the thoughts, ideas, concepts, or conclusions from your previous works, however you may not simply copy and paste those works. You must rephrase these concepts at all times. When graded, the authenticity of your work is evaluated. When issues of authenticity arise, they will be reported to the Dean of Students and you will, at a minimum, receive a zero for the assignment. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the rules and procedures for plagiarism and authenticity, not the professor. An excuse of "I didn't know I was plagiarizing" will never be warranted.

ADA STATEMENT

Texas A&M University-Commerce is committed to providing access and reasonable accommodation in its services, programs, activities, education, and employment for individuals with disabilities. Accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accommodations will be made. To request ADA accommodations, please communicate your needs one week before the activity or program you plan to attend by contacting the Director of Disability Resources and Services (903-886-5835).
