Financial Statement Analysis
Summer 2016
June 6, 2016 – August 11, 2016

Professor: Dr. Caroline Hayek

Office: This is an online course. I have no set office hours and there are no set class times. You may schedule an appointment to see me in my office (BA 122) on the main campus.

Email: Caroline.Hayek@tamuc.edu

Office Hours: Online chats will be scheduled weekly. You are not required to attend, but you should listen to the archived copy when you have time. I will log on and be available for live chat. If no one joins after 10 minutes, I will log off. Questions can be emailed to me or posted to the online forum. Posting is the preferred method so that other students may join in answering questions. The chapter lectures will be pre-recorded and posted to eCollege.

Course Description

This course takes a user-oriented approach to the study of financial statements with an emphasis on for-profit public companies. Students will study the role of the income statement, balance sheet, statement of cash flows, footnotes, and the annual report in the financial reporting and analysis process. Topics include:

- Examination of firms' past performance via analysis of efficiency, financial condition, profitability, liquidity, solvency, and risk using various analyses including vertical and horizontal common-size analysis, trend analysis, ratios, and industry comparisons;
- Effects of differing accounting methods on financial statement analysis;
- Application of general purpose financial statements and related data to derive estimates, and develop inferences useful in business decisions;
- Information needs of different users (e.g., lenders', investors'); and
- Analyses for specialized industries.

Course Embedded Assessment Objectives

Your achievement level for each objective will be measured by your ability to perform the following tasks:

- Explain the basic principles of accounting and the assumptions of the financial accounting model.
- Read and analyze basic financial statements including the income statement, balance sheet, statement of cash flows, shareholder's equity, and footnotes.
- Use vertical and horizontal common-size analysis, trend analysis, and ratio analysis, industry comparisons to analyze and interpret a company's financial health in areas such as efficiency, profitability, liquidity, solvency, and investor attractiveness.
- Analyze and interpret the effects of differing accounting methods and management disclosures on financial statement analysis.

Access to Internet, eCollege and the TAMUC Library's database: Connectivity, hardware and software are your responsibility. Completing the Student Tutorial in eCollege is highly recommended.

Student Responsibilities

Learning is every student's responsibility. My role as your professor is to facilitate your learning process. Each student is required to:

- Read assigned material on schedule.
- Listen to published lectures, attend or listen to the archived ClassLive sessions, and review other published material each week.
- Complete assignments within the posted time frames.
- Participate in the class online forum (Virtual Office) by posting questions and answering questions posted by classmates and/or myself.
- Prepare diligently for weekly assignments.
- Respect the e-learning environment by being prepared and observing net-etiquette.

Graduate level expectations

- Writing – Graduate students should be able to demonstrate critical thinking skills. Graduate-level writing must demonstrate an ability to evaluate arguments from various perspectives, be able to formulate well-articulated conclusions based on facts and deductive reasoning, and be able to provide a well-reasoned discussion that reflects comprehension beyond an undergraduate level.
- Responsibility – Graduate students should demonstrate self-motivation, organization, time management skills, and discipline. It is your responsibility to know when assignments, exams, quizzes, etc. are due. Due dates are communicated on the syllabus. If changes are made, the changes are provided via email. I will NOT provide daily or weekly reminders for you. You are responsible for submitting the appropriate files on time and in the required format.
- Learning – Graduate studies are designed for more discipline-specific focused learning. I assume you want to learn. My goal is not to solely teach you information that is covered on my exam, but to teach you accounting concepts and the application of accounting concepts. If you only want to know what is on the exam, you are robbing yourself of the value of learning.
- Late work – Due dates are posted on our syllabus and in our eCollege course. Assignments, exams, quizzes, etc. must be submitted no later than the date outlined in our course. Absent extenuating circumstances, late work is not accepted. Extenuating circumstances do NOT include forgetting, technical difficulties or running out of time. The evaluation of an extenuating circumstance is judged on a case-by-case basis. Documentation MUST be provided in a timely manner. A 30% late penalty may apply even if an extenuating circumstance exists.

- Exams/ quizzes – The content and format of the exam/quiz will vary, but may include any of the following: multiple choice questions, problems, matching, or essays. The exam/quiz will be administered on the date outlined in our course. You must plan to take the exam/quiz on or before its due date. Make-up exams/quizzes are given ONLY under extenuating conditions. The following are considered extenuating conditions: hospitalization, medical emergency, physical injury, or death of an immediate family member. You MUST bring proof of the extenuating circumstance in order to facilitate an exam/quiz make-up. Proof of the extenuating circumstance must be received in a timely manner. For extenuating conditions make-up exams/quizzes must be taken within three days of release or recovery. A 30% late penalty may apply even if an extenuating circumstance exists. Students attending university sponsored events must provide necessary documentation in order to accommodate any make-up exam/quiz.
- Cheating, plagiarism, academic dishonesty – Academic integrity is a serious issue. If any portion of your work (exam, quiz, research assignment, homework, etc.) is copied, plagiarized, purchased, stolen or lacks authenticity, the ENTIRE body of work will receive a zero. The Dean will be notified of any breach in academic integrity. Additional academic sanctions may include failure of the course, dismissal from the program and/or dismissal from the university.
- Graded work – There are several issues regarding grading/scoring: 1) I do NOT re-grade work. Once an assignment is returned with a grade/score it cannot be resubmitted. 2) If you disagree with the posted grade/score on an assignment, you must email me with the specific discrepancy no more than three (3) days after the grade/score is posted. 3) You are NOT permitted to submit an assignment used in a previous course.

Evaluation

Grades are based upon total points received.	100
Exam 1
Exam 2	100
Research Paper	100
Total	300

The levels of mastery are:

- 90 – 100% A
- 80 – 89% B
- 70 – 79% C
- 60 – 69% D
- <60% F

Email

Emails are typically the best way to contact me. I will try to respond to all emails within 24 hours during the week. Emails received Friday evening or during the weekend may not receive a response until Monday. If you do not receive a response in that timeframe, please re-send the email.

Attendance/Participation

One advantage of an online course is that you do not have to be in a certain place at a certain time. You can study when convenient and log into the course and review course content when convenient. I will have an online class each week (to be designed at the beginning of the class) at which time you may log in and join in the class questions and discussions. You are not required to attend the weekly chat, but you should listen to the archived copy if you are unable to attend. These sessions will be recorded and you can log on anytime to review the chat session. Be sure to post your answers to questions posed by me or your peers. Also, use of the forum to ask questions will benefit all of the class. We have a lot of smart students who can often answer questions quicker than I may be able to. I will review discussions on the forum and offer corrections and additional explanations when needed.

Assignments

Exams: There are two examinations in this course. These exams will test your understanding of the material covered. The final exam is cumulative. Details of the exam coverage are provided during class.

Paper: You will perform a comprehensive financial statement analysis on two publicly traded companies in the same industry of your choice. Further details will be provided in class and posted to eCollege.

Technology Requirements

The following information has been provided to assist you in preparing to use technology successfully in this course.

- Internet access/connection – high speed recommended (not dial-up)
- Headset/microphone
- Computer Camera
- Word Processor (e.g. MS Word or Word Perfect)

Additionally, the following hardware and software are necessary to use eCollege:

Our campus is optimized to work in a Microsoft Windows environment. This means our courses work best if you are using a Windows operating system (XP or newer) and a recent version of Microsoft Internet Explorer (8.0 or higher).

Your courses will also work with Macintosh OS X along with a recent version of Safari 2.0 or better. Along with Internet Explorer and Safari, eCollege also supports the Firefox browser (3.0) on both Windows and Mac operating systems.

It is strongly recommended that you perform a “Browser Test” prior to the start of your course. To launch a browser test, login to eCollege, click on the “myCourses” tab and then select the “Browser Test” link under Support Services.

Communication and Support

Texas A&M University – Commerce provides students technical support in the use of eCollege. The student help desk may be reached by the following means 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

- Chat Support: Click on “Live Support” on the tool bar within your course to chat with an eCollege Representative.
- Phone: 1-866-656-5511 to speak with an eCollege Technical Support Representative

- Email: helpdesk@online.tamuc.org to initiate a support request with an eCollege Technical Support Representative.
- Help: Click on the “Help” button on the toolbar for information regarding working with eCollege.

Ethics

Integrity is the hallmark of the accounting profession and will be stressed throughout the course. Any type of student breach of ethics, including, but not limited to: illegal activity, dishonest conduct, cheating, plagiarism, or collusion will result in failure on the assignment and/or further academic sanctions (i.e. failure of the course, dismissal from class and/or referral to the Dean of the College of Business). You will be required to sign the Academic Honesty Policy and submit it within the first week of class. Failure to submit a signed Academic Honesty Policy will cause a 50 point deduction from your overall score for the class.

Academic Honesty Policy

The College of Business at Texas A & M University-Commerce will strive to be recognized as a community with legal, ethical, and moral principles and to practice professionalism in all that we do. Failure to abide by these principles will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal. Five different types of activities that will bring sanctions are as follows:

- Illegal activity – Violation of any local, state, or federal laws that prohibit the offender from performance of his or her duty.
- Dishonest Conduct: Seeking or obtaining unfair advantage by stealing or receiving copies of tests or intentionally preventing others from completing their work. In addition, falsifying of records to enter or complete a program will also be considered dishonest conduct.
- Cheating: The unauthorized use of another’s work and reporting it as your own.
- Plagiarism: Using someone else’s ideas and not giving proper credit.
- Collusion: Acting with others to perpetrate any of the above actions regardless of personal gain.

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook).

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Students with Disabilities

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Other

University policy will be followed in regards to withdrawals during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to conform with the university rules relating to dropping or withdrawing from the course. NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change as needed to meet the objectives or administration of the course at the discretion of the professor. It is not anticipated that there will be any substantive changes.

Policy on Concealed Handgun Carry

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to (<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>) and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.
