COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods: Class consists of various styles of presentations, activities and interactions. In RSP 200, students will be active participants regardless of the mode of instruction. Students should come to class ready to participate, both in terms of preparation as assigned and attitude toward class and colleagues.

Attendance- Class attendance is EXPECTED. If a student has excessive, unexcused absences, the instructor possess the right to deduct 3 points from the final grade. If a student is excessively tardy, the instructor reserves the right to consider the student absent for class. Excused absences are defined by university policy and must be documented appropriately within ONE WEEK of absence. Participation and in-class activities: Students are expected to attend all class meetings. Though ninety percent of life is showing up, we want RSP students to demonstrate strength in the other ten percent: going the extra mile through active involvement and contribution to the class. You will be asked to stretch your comfort zones. Participation in class activities and discussion is worth 30% of the grade.

Leadership Journal: Because of the nature of the course, students will be required to keep a journal throughout RSP 200-201. This journal will be to not only record class notes but serve as a place to answer questions posed in class and keep track of your goals. You will also use this journal as your guide when you build your own theory of leadership throughout the year. The journal will be worth 30% of your course grade.

Quizzes: Throughout the semester, there will be 5 announced quizzes regarding materials covered in lecture, readings and class discussions. Each quiz is worth 4% of your course grade, totaling 20%.

Individual Presentation: Each student will be responsible for presenting a "This I Believe" statement at the conclusion of the semester. Details will be provided throughout the semester but the points are earned when the statement is read aloud in class and incorporates each student's theory of leadership, life and purpose. 10%.

Personal Proposal: Of the topics available, describe your top 2 choices of task. Explain why your leadership theory/style and strengths is complimentary to your chosen task. Also, document ideas you have for the task and any complimentary partnerships you see with your fellow classmates either in their expressed leadership style, personal strengths or actions you have observed. (Ex. I am a relational leader but I may need someone who is more task or goal-oriented). Groups will be assigned based on these statements before the end of the semester. (10%)

Examples: RSP Service Project, Campus Event (Multicultural Festival), Spring Banquet, Newsletter/Blog Maintenance, Spring Outing, Student Choice-be creative!
