COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook and Materials:

- Q: Skills for Success 2
Listening and Speaking

Do not purchase used textbooks. The textbooks that the ELI requires are unused workbooks. Used books will not be helpful to your learning of English if your books already have the answers written in them!**

Additional Required Course Materials:

You will be required to keep a course journal in this class. You will need a standard composition notebook to use for this course requirement.

Course Description:

The course focuses on developing academic listening and speaking skills as well as critical thinking skills and vocabulary. Students will have opportunities to use language in a variety of contexts. Practice exercises include group interaction, role-play, debate, public speaking, and listening comprehension. This is a beginning level course with placement into the ELI by exam.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Demonstrates improved listening speaking skills at an increasingly more complex level
- Engages in the use of language in a variety of social contexts.
- Demonstrates the ability to monitor the effectiveness of communication.
- Attends to oral information.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using email and basic communication programs that utilize text features.

Using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint

Familiarity with presentation program such as Prezi (Alternatively, you may use video editing programs such as Camtasia if you are more familiar with such programs)

Note: We will work with these programs in class and you are welcome to use the presentation program with which you are most comfortable.

Instructional Methods

This course will be taught face-to-face in the classroom. We will supplement in-class instruction with reading and homework assignments delivered via email and course-specific webpage.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students are responsible for checking their individual emails daily. It is also your responsibility to keep up-to-date on assigned homework and reading/video assignments. A course schedule will be provided and changes to the schedule will be discussed in the classroom.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

This course uses the standard scale for grades: A= 90-100, B=80-89, C=70-79, D=60-69. Please remember you must have a “B” or better in your course to progress. A grade of “C” or below is failing.

Assignments and Tests:

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

This is a face-to-face course, in which you will attend class and submit all class work on time. There will be daily reading and writing activities along with group and individual projects. The syllabus is subject to change.

Preparation for the next class is strongly encouraged because the class will be conducted based on the assumption that students have prepared for the class. Moreover, students need to become accustomed to the habit of preparation because all university classes require reading books or papers before the class; professors anticipate that students bring up questions about topics.

Students are expected to be prepared for class by doing all assigned reading as well as weekly homework assignments to be completed outside of class. Homework must be turned in on-time. No late work will be accepted.

Assessments

Listening & Speaking

Assignments and Tests	PERCENTAGE OF GRADE
Weekly Quizzes	20%
Mid-term exam	15%
Participation	15%
Additional Homework	10%
Presentation	20%
Final Exam	20%

Weekly Quizzes: Quizzes will include vocabulary, dictation, and identify speaking skills for specific situations.

Mid-term exam: Mid-term exam will be comprehensive.

Participation: Participation is critical to success in this course. Students are expected to participate in class discussions as well as ask and answer questions.

Additional Homework: Additional homework will be assigned at the discretion of the teacher.

Presentation: This project will coordinate with the research assignment in the Academic Reading and Writing course. Students will prepare and give a PowerPoint/Prezi presentation based on their research paper for that class.

Final Exam: The final exam will be comprehensive.

Additional Details about all assignments will be given in class

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement

As your instructor, I prefer communication via email.

My email address is lc.eli.tamuc@gmail.com.

Please allow a 24 hour response time for all emails during the week. If you email during the weekend, please expect a response the following business day.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures

Please remember that you are required to attend every class.

Program Progress

Earn a grade of “B” or better to progress to the next level.

Attendance Policy

A student must attend a minimum of 85% of all scheduled ELI classes in order to receive a Certificate of Participation from the English Language Institute. A student’s failure to attend class may result in lower grades, may cause failure of the course, may lower exit test scores, may inhibit transfer to another school, and may cause dismissal from the Institute which, in turn, may cause loss of the student’s F-1 visa status.

Absences are reported to the Director; the campus immigration officer is also informed of excessive absences. A student with excessive unexcused absences will be a candidate for dismissal from the program.

Excused absences are defined as:

1. Personal illness. Return to class with a physician’s note.
2. Participation in an institute-wide or university sponsored trip. Notification is to be given to the instructor before the day of absence.
3. Attendance at the funeral of an immediate family member.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

If you have an “excused absence,” you will be able to make up the course assignments you missed within one week of your return to class. It is your responsibility to meet with your instructor to determine the assignments missed. Failure to meet with the instructor regarding an excused absence may result in an “F” for that assignment.

Excused absences still count toward the 15% of classes you can miss.

If you have an unexcused absence, you may not be permitted to make up assigned course work. An unexcused absence means missing class for any reason other than those mentioned above.

Attendance will impact your overall participation grade which is 15% of your grade for this class.

- Three absences will drop the participation grade by one letter grade.
- Six absences will drop the grade by two letter grades.

Tardy Policy

In American universities, it is customary for students to be seated in the classroom before the instructor enters. To be late, or tardy, to a class is not acceptable because a student entering class late interrupts the instructor and interferes with the learning of fellow students. Like all university students, ELI students are requested to be seated in the classroom at the beginning of the class hour.

Class begins at 9:00 pm, and arrival after 9:00 pm is considered a tardy. 20 minutes late to class is considered an absence. You will receive a 1 point deduction for being 5 minutes late and a 2 point deduction for being 10 or more minutes late on your daily participation grade. More than 20 minutes late counts as an absence, and all participation points are deducted for that day.

You may go to the restroom without informing the teacher, but if you do not return within 10 minutes, one tardy will be marked on your attendance; if you do not return within 20 minutes, you will receive an absence for the day.

Phones in the Classroom

No cell phone/smart phone use during class. Check messages before or after class. Taking a call or texting (which includes reading incoming texts) during class is a distraction, inappropriate and disrespectful. Use of cell phones in class will receive a 1 point deduction on your daily participation grade.

Technology in the Classroom

Only technology used for instructional purposes is allowed in the classroom. Using a dictionary or translator on a computer or a smart phone is NOT allowed during class. Electronic dictionaries are acceptable as long as they are not on a smart device.

Homework/Assignment Submission

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Only submissions made by the due date/time are accepted. Assignments will be collected in class on the due date typed and printed. No late work will be accepted.

When you miss class for any reason, you are still responsible for information presented and assignments given in class. Due dates remain the same whether you are in class or not. Contact a fellow student and the teacher for missed assignments.

Make-ups

Do not miss class on test days. You will only be allowed to make up one test. Make up tests will be given on a designated day later in the semester. Full credit will be given.

Use of English

English is the language of instruction for the English Language Institute. Students are expected to use English only in the classrooms, hallways, and at all ELI functions. Please do not speak your native language during class because not everyone speaks your language. We have many languages represented in the ELI, and we do not want to exclude anyone. We need to speak the language we all have in common which is English. Speaking a language other than English during class will result in a 1 point deduction on your daily participation grade.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

Nondiscrimination Notice

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

For a list of locations, please refer to the Carrying Concealed Handguns On Campus document and/or consult your event organizer.
