COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES
--

Course Specific Procedures:

Academic Honesty Policy

Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material.

We suggest these web resources to students for reference regarding what constitutes plagiarism and how to avoid it: <http://www.plagiarism.org/> or <http://www.unc.edu/depts/wcweb/handouts/plagiarism.html> or <http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml>

Attendance Policy:

This is required and is essential to your success in this class. Participants are expected to be on time and to actively and constructively participate. Your absences will affect your professionalism grade. If you miss 3 or more classes you may/will be referred to the Curriculum & Instruction Department for possible dismissal. Remember: Class activities and group discussions cannot be made up. As a future teacher, it is in your best interests to begin the professional habits of effective teachers now. In consideration of this when you find you must be absent in class please adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Notify the professor by email or text as soon as you realize you will need to be absent, or you miss class.
2. Notify your classroom partner to get notes and pick up materials for you.

Assignment Policy:

All assignments are due on the date assigned unless otherwise approved by the instructor. All assignments that are late will have 10% per day deducted. Late means they are not turned in when class meets on the day they are due. You are a professional and must present yourself in a way to show responsibility. Assignments will be either handed in during class meeting or emailed to the professor. All completed/graded assignments must be picked up by the end of the semester or they will be discarded.

University Specific Procedures:

ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
