Course Description:

U.S. History from 1865 is a broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America from 1865.

Pre/co-requisite Eng. 1301 or 1302.

As a result of the quantity of information that must be examined, this course, essentially, is not a comprehensive assessment of that history. Still, the developments discussed in History 1302 ought to serve as a prologue to many tribulations that Americans continue to encounter today, and as such, has relevance for students regardless of their personal interests in the past.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose, and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. EXTRA CREDIT 25 POINTS GIVEN IF ON TIME - Students will be able to understand their role in their own education – Student Responsibility Sheet will be turned in online in Dropbox labeled SRS by Saturday January 21, 2017. (Find the document in eCollege under the Document Sharing Tab).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

***Our Week will be from Sunday to Saturday*** Also of Note: This course will not do a full comprehensive approach to American history from the Beginning to Reconstruction. Instead, we will focus on Puritans, Religious changes, Slavery and its role in America, American Revolution, and the Creation of America.

A. Discussion & Discussion Questions: 450 Points

**Discussions 10 @ 20 pts., Discussion Questions 10 @ 25 pts****

You are expected to participate in the discussion section for each week in two ways. 1) You will directly address the topics I have established by writing a paragraph of at least 100 words 2) You will complete a discussion question at the end of your discussion to ask the class.

- 1. Discussion: You will post a written discussion of 100 words to the discussion posts online. There will be 10 discussions all together. Make sure your discussions relate to the topics given on your syllabus and that you consider what it means then and now. Do not just repeat the book information; think about the subject from various angles. Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – All Discussions and Discussion Questions are due by Wednesday at 11:59 pm.

- 2. Discussion Questions: Each student is required to attach a Good Discussion Question to their Discussion Post (read above). A good discussion question will lead to higher order thinking (analysis, synthesis, comparison, evaluation) about the text and the issues it raises. Good discussion questions will do more than recall facts they are open-ended, leading to a variety of topics. Discussion questions rely on a careful reading of the text and often cite particular scenes, passages, happenings, connections, etc. Good discussion questions make connections between the text and the world at large, other works, and the themes and issues of the course.

**This question is not a what-if question, do not ask them. For example, if the Stock Market had not crashed in 1929 would we still have gone through a Great Depression? This is irrelevant because it did.****

Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – All Discussion and Discussion Questions are due by Wednesday at 11:59pm.

B. Responses: 200 Points (10 @ 20 pts).

**Responses 10 @ 20 pts.****

You will respond substantially to the Discussion Question of a fellow student, directly replying to them and answering the question by writing a paragraph of at least 100 words. Make sure your discussions relate to the topics given in the question and you consider what is being asked. You should make the effort to respond to your classmates' comments in a substantive way. Unfortunately, this is the only way I can objectively measure the level of your engagement in an online class. Therefore, err on the side of caution and try to respond to several Discussion Questions per topic thread. Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – All Responses are due by Saturday at 11:59pm.

To receive full participation credit students must log in consistently throughout the semester, participate on topics several times during each week's discussions by providing substantive comments, and stay current with all readings and assignments. Keep in mind these discussions are between the students in the class; I will not be commenting on discussions. Further, I expect all students to remain professional in their treatment of other students and their opinions.

C. Analyzation of Information Sources: 100 Points (1 @ 100 pts.)

Each student will locate three sources – a) an article published in a popular magazine, b) an article in an academic scholarly journal, and c) a website. The student will then analyze the sources in terms of language used, evidence presented for claims, qualifications of the author, and purpose. The findings will be typed in 12' font, double-spaced, word document 3-5 pages in length to be uploaded to eCollege Dropbox labeled Analyzation Paper by the due date. The topic will be of the student's choosing of the material discussed in the course. In other words, it can be over any subject we are discussing in our Units for this course. Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – End of Week 5 @ 11:59 pm.

An Analyzation Paper is not a research paper. This paper should not include more than a few sentences on summary of the source. It should, however, tell me about the source, what it offers in terms of research, and does it pass the CRAAP Test. See DocSharing for the CRAAP Test worksheet.

D. Introduction to Annotated Bibliography: 100 Points (1 @ 100 pts.)

Each student will prepare an annotated bibliography of books, journal, articles, and other sources on a specific topic of their choice relating to the UNITS that are assigned. This is the introduction. A solid introduction is required and should contain certain elements before getting into the sources that you pick. Look in DocSharing to find sources on how to write an Annotated Bibliography and its Introduction. Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – End of Week 10 @ 11:59 pm.

E. Reaction Paper to Film: 100 Points (1 @ 100 pts.)

Each student will watch a film and write a thorough reaction and analysis paper regarding the film. This paper should have a thesis regarding the historical content and context and be supported by our reading or personal research. Film will be selected on Week 4 in a separate discussion for that week. I will have a list for you to choose from and only one can review a movie. You must reference 2 reviews of the movie and have 3 academic sources to prove your findings in the film. For further How-To's see DocSharing. This paper will be 12' font, double-spaced, MLA formatting and citations (see OWL at Purdue), include 2 reviews, 3 academic sources, and at least 4 pages. Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – End of Week 13 @ 11:59 pm.

F. Annotated Bibliography: 100 Points (1 @ 250 pts.)

Each student will prepare an annotated bibliography of books, journal articles, and other sources on a specific topic of their choosing provided that it relates to the course material. At least 10 sources of academic repute are required. You will state in the annotations whether this source passes the CRAAP test; annotations should be at least 250 words. The paper should be 12' font, double-spaced, MLA formatting and citations (see OWL at Purdue), and include at least 10 sources. This is your big project and it will be due at the end of the semester. However, you can use your analyzation paper to start research on your topic and use the sources you find. For an example of a good Annotated Bibliography check DocSharing. Late work will not be accepted. DUE DATE!!! – Tuesday May 9, 2017 11:59 pm.

Students should know that plagiarism occurs any time another’s ideas or words are used without attribution.
