Course Description

This course provides a preliminary study of the selection, reproduction, nutrition and marketing of beef and dairy cattle, swine, sheep, horses and poultry.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Develop a basic understanding of the livestock, meat, dairy, and egg industries and how they are structured.
2. Describe the products and contributions of the different livestock species to humans.
3. Describe basic management techniques and considerations for each of the various livestock and poultry species.
4. Understand the basic biology and physiology of livestock genetics, reproduction, nutrition, and health.
5. Recognize common breeds of livestock and poultry.

Materials

Required Text: None – all material will be provided in class

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

General Class Rules
1. Turn off and do not use electronic devices during class.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

2. Attentiveness in class is strongly suggested but not required. However, if you choose otherwise, do not, talk to your neighbors, read the paper, and especially do not text. Achieving the course objectives and being successful will require attendance, taking notes and study.
3. All hats will be removed (or ball caps turned backward) during exams. Also you may be asked to leave your backpacks in the front of the room on exam days.

Attendance

Attendance is expected and will count towards your final grade. You will be given 100 points for lecture. You will be allowed 2 unexcused absences before a 10 point deduction for each absence thereafter. Attendance may be used to decide future opportunities such as extra credit.

Grading

Grading:

1. Exams:

   - Four exams will be given through the course during the class period. The last exam may be a comprehensive final.

     Tentative Dates:
     > Thu. February 9th
     > Thur. March 9th
     > Tues. April 18th
     > Tues. May 9th 10:30-12:30

   - Exams will be given during the entire class period. Exam formats may include T/F, matching, multiple choice, and short answer. Also some exams may require a scantron which must be provided by the student.   A smart phone/cell phone/tablet will not be allowed to use on the exam.

   - Missed exams: All students are to take the in-class exams at the time they are scheduled unless you have a valid excuse. Unless it was an emergency the instructor needs to be notified before the missed exam. If a makeup is written it may be more difficult, not easier, for the student.

2. Quizzes
   - A quiz will be given every week during the semester except for the weeks of an exam.
     - Most quizzes will typically be taken through eCollege and posted no later than Thursday of that week and due by the following Tuesday.
     - Announced and unannounced quizzes may also be given in class

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

3. Missed quizzes: unless it is a university excused absence or special circumstance with instructor notification and approval, late quizzes on eCollege will be allowed to be made up within the week it is due for a 50% reduction after the due date. Quizzes taken during class time may be kept and turned in late for the 50% reduction.

4. Homework
   - Homework assignments/projects may be given in addition to the quizzes.
   - Late homework: Homework will be due at a specific date and time. Anytime after the due date, the homework is considered late and will receive an automatic 30% reduction in the final score and a 10% reduction each day beyond the due date.

Grading

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%
B = 80%-89%
C = 70%-79%
D = 60%-69%
F = 59% or Below
