Course Description:

Detailed study of the development of all phases of theatre art and drama from the Restoration to the Modern era. Includes study of theatre conventions, plays, and major dramatic movements.

Prerequisite:

THE 1310–Introduction to the Theatre or permission of the instructor.

Course Introduction:

Across cultures and centuries, theatrical works can be categorized according to their style. Broadly, these styles can be broken into two types: presentational and representational. The conceptual framework for this semester revolves around this notion as it applies to acting, playwriting, production, and theatre architecture. Of course, socio-political conditions must be studied and related to the theatres of their times. In addition, we [re]view plays and productions from the past through contemporary lenses. We will apply principles from the past to plays in the present (One Flea Spare and Smoke on the Mountain).

Course Ethics and Attendance: Note that attendance alone does not constitute participation. Promptness, attendance, and “attentiveness” are valued in this class. Please behave accordingly and do not disrupt the class with excessive talk or the use of cell phones or other devices. A willingness to “give theatre history a chance” is most appreciated. It is assumed that students will work cooperatively with one another and all work that is not “original” will be properly credited. See the TAMUC Student’s Guide Handbook for more information on plagiarism (this includes self-plagiarism). This is a serious offense that can result in separation from the university. EVEN if not specifically noted on instructions or prompts for each assignment, plagiarism policies will be strictly enforced.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of theatrical forms and styles of production across cultures and centuries.
2. Apply theories and terminology to discussions on theatre
3. Develop skills necessary to think and write critically and clearly about theatre history and theatre practices.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments:

In-Class Exercises (Best 20 @ 1 points each = 20 pts. total): As stated above, attendance does not constitute participation. We will conduct in-class exercises almost every day. These exercises are used to focus your attention on the material offered in the course and are hands-on, interactive methods to explore the material. You MUST be present and you MUST participate to receive credit.

Précise Assignments (3 @ 5 pts. Each = 15 pts. total): “English Theatre to 1800,” “The Beginnings of Modern Realism,” and “Alternative to Realism,” and “Continental” (combined).

For the purposes of this class, a precise is a chapter summary and covers the major points made in the chapter as they relate to what we have covered in class and to theatre across time and culture as a whole.

These should be around 3-4 pages in length. If these are done well, they can be your study guide for tests and for further exploration of the material. You may use bullet points, write in prose, make an outline, or a combination. We will go over more specific guidelines for writing a precise in class.

Tests (3 including the Final @ 15 pts. Each = 45 pts. total)

Application Papers (2 @ 10 pts. = 20 pts. total): Students are required to attend performances of both Playhouse productions (clear your schedules NOW!). Students will submit papers that apply concepts explored in class to contemporary productions. Papers should be approx. 3-4 pages, typed, 12 pt. font (or whatever your default font/size is), well-organized (complete sentences, full paragraphs). I will consider spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure in the grading. (See grading rubric in your syllabus). Papers are to be submitted via email. I will not accept hard copies of your papers.

Grading Breakdown:

The following grading scale will be used to determine all individual grades as well as the student’s overall grade in the course:

In-Class Exercises	20 pts.	90-100 =	A
Precise	15 pts.	80-89=	B
Tests	45 pts.	70-79=	C
Papers	20 pts.	60-69=	D
		59 and below=	F
Total	100 pts.

A grade of “A” will not be assigned to any individual who has not completed ALL outside of class assignments. (Précises, Final, Attendance at Departmental Productions) regardless of average.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

WORKING EMAIL REQUIREMENT: It is a course expectation that you have a working email address that you check daily. If you have not already acquired an email address through the university or otherwise, please make arrangements to do so before the next class meeting. There WILL be times that I need to contact you with important information and email is often the speediest and easiest way of doing so. Additionally, I will provide electronic copies of the plays and any supplemental reading through eCollege and/or email.

WRITTEN WORK: Unfortunately, papers/projects do occasionally get lost. Please, for your sanity, save your work on a thumb drive, etc. Do not depend on your paper staying on the hard drive of any university computer, as it will be deleted, altered, or worse – turned in by someone else as their work! Be aware that it is a course expectation that you keep copies of your assignments until you receive your final grade for the semester.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Contacting Me:

Please feel free to visit me during my office hours at any time during the semester. I am here to help! If you cannot make my office hours due to a scheduling conflict, please set up an appointment with me. It is not an imposition. Communicate, communicate, communicate! If something presents you with difficulties in this class, let me know. I cannot help you if I do not know what is going on. The easiest and most reliable way to contact me is via email. Please do not leave a message for me in the main department office.

Email Policy:

Before sending me an email with a general course-specific question, review your syllabus/look at the handouts/check eCollege/ask a classmate first. If your question has already been addressed in one of those places, then you will have the answer you need. If you cannot find the answer, please feel free to email me.

When emailing me: Please make your emails clear, concise, and written with proper grammar in order to assure my earliest attention. In addition, please follow some common “email etiquette” procedures in order to keep our electronic communication effective and efficient. Specifically:

- Write a relevant subject line (e.g., “Theatre History question,” or “THE 340 meeting request”)
- Address me by name (ie: "Dear Professor Worley" or "Hi Becca" or just "Becca")
- Bonus: "meaningless niceties" are never a bad idea!
- Concisely state what it is you need. If it can't be communicated in a concise manner, perhaps request an appointment. If requesting an appointment, give me times that you are available in the initial email!!! My office hours are posted above.
- Use a "sign-off" ("Thank you" is always good) and sign your name.

Not following these guidelines potentially puts you at the bottom of my list for response time.

<http://www.tamu-commerce.edu/litlang/CSC/index.htm>COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES*Course Specific Procedures:*Attendance Policy:

You may accumulate two (2) absences before any penalty occurs. There are no additional absences allowed without penalty. Plan accordingly. There is no such thing as an “excused” absence. Of course, if you have a prolonged illness or injury, or if a family emergency arises, speak with your instructor ASAP.

Grades will be dropped in ½ letter grade increments for every two class absences beyond two. (Example: Someone with an “A” average who misses class five times will be in the “A-” range; a seventh absence moves that student down into the “B+” range and so on...)

Late Arrivals:

To further foster a high level of commitment—and because the work we will be doing this semester will involve intensive focus—the class will adopt the following late entry policy. Students must be on time for every class. Entering a class late or leaving early is disruptive to the flow of the class and indicative of a less than disciplined/committed student. Please be on time out of consideration to your learning process and the processes of others. The class will begin promptly at 11 a.m.! If you arrive after 11:10 a.m., please do not enter the classroom (you will be marked absent regardless). If you arrive within the ten minute grace period, please do so discretely in order to avoid disrupting the class activities/discussions. It is your responsibility to make sure that you find me after class and document your late attendance for the day—otherwise, your initial marked absence documented during roll will remain. Also, you are expected to stay until you are dismissed from class. Two late arrivals (within the ten-minute grace period) or early departures (or any combination of the two) may be counted as one absence in the class.

Cell Phones and Laptops:

Please turn off all cell phones upon entering the classroom. Please do not check messages or engage in text messaging during class. This is disruptive to the flow of the course. Further, you are welcome to take class notes on a laptop or other electronic device. However, these devices should only be used for taking notes over the current discussions/activities – and you must type very quietly and turn off all sound so as not to disturb other class members. If I suspect that laptops are being used for other purposes, I will ban them from the classroom.

Late Work:

I do not accept late work.

Extra Credit:

The instructor reserves the right to offer extra-credit to all students, and to gauge its application appropriately and uniformly for all. Students may only acquire up to 10 pts. of extra credit throughout the semester.

Incompletes:

Under normal circumstances, an Incomplete (I or X) will NOT be given for a final grade in this course. Per University policy, students who because of circumstances beyond their control are unable to attend classes will, upon approval of their instructor, receive a mark of X (incomplete) in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades at the time of the request for an incomplete.

University Specific Policies and Procedures:

Academic Dishonesty:

This course adheres strictly to the college's guidelines for Academic Dishonesty printed in the Student's Guide Handbook. Plagiarism (including self-plagiarism), cheating, or otherwise representing another's work or ideas as your own without proper attribution will not be tolerated. All work must be new and created for this class during this semester by you. It is your responsibility to ensure that you understand the definition of Academic Dishonesty at Texas A&M-Commerce. If such an instance occurs, the student will receive an automatic zero for the work in question, and I will immediately report the incident to the Head of the Department. (You should be aware that this could result in dismissal from school without credit for the semester.)

Campus Concealed Carry

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to (<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>) and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.
