COURSE SUMMARY

This course will serve as an introduction to the basic concepts of typography and its role in graphic design as visual language. Our goal is to give you the typographic knowledge that you need to empower yourself to be a great visual communicator!

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course content will address type history, anatomy, terminology, formal and aesthetic issues, and tools and materials of the trade. Thumbnail ideation, rationale writing, type manipulation, creative session critiques, and computer generated comprehensives will be explored through weekly assignments.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Gain an understanding of typographic architecture from a single letterform to an entire page layout.
2. Understand the basic formal and aesthetic issues in type selection. (8.3 pt Frutiger CE 45 light, C & L)
3. Introduction to the design process from pencil thumbnails to final computer comprehensives.
4. Strengthen knowledge and application of design elements and principles with respect to graphic design.
5. Become fluent in your verbal design-language skills through class critiques.
6. Develop a basic understanding of typographic form relationship in logotype and lettermark design process.
7. LEARN TO LOVE TYPE (8.3 pt Bodoni Roman, All Caps)

COURSE STRUCTURE

The class will be a combination of lecture, in class work and critiques with outside class exercises and assignments. The weekly schedule is meant to mimic a “real-world” professional practice environment. Completion of class homework will be necessary to achieve the goals for this class and its completion. A basic understanding of typography will play a crucial role in all of your future design endeavors.

ATTENDANCE

- ★ You may be absent from class twice.

STATEMENT ON STUDENT BEHAVIOR

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenet of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct)

All students must show respect toward the instructor and the instructor's syllabus, presentations, assignments, and point of view. Students should respect each others' differences. If the instructor determines that a student is not being respectful towards other students or the instructor, it is the instructor's prerogative to ask the student to leave, to refer the student to the department head, and to consider referring the student to the Dean of Students who may consider requiring the student to drop the course. Please refer to pages 42 - 46 of the Texas A&M University-commerce Student guidebook's Codes of Conduct for details.

STUDENT CONDUCT / CITIZENSHIP

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook). Students are expected, at all times, to recognize constituted authority, to conform to the ordinary rules of good conduct, to be truthful, to respect the rights of others, to protect private and public property, and to make the best use of their time and effort toward the educational process.

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN ANY CLASS-RELATED ACTIVITY.

Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the submission of someone else's materials as one's own work. Scholastic dishonesty may involve one or more of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, or collusion.

PLAGIARISM is the use of an author's words or ideas as if they were one's own without giving credit to the source, including, but not limited to, failure to acknowledge a direct quotation. Cite your references.

CHEATING is the willful giving or receiving of information in an unauthorized manner during an examination, illicitly obtaining examination questions in advance, copying computer or Internet files, using someone else's work for assignments as if it were one's own, or any other dishonest means of attempting to fulfill the requirements of a course.

COLLUSION is intentionally aiding or attempting to aid another in an act of scholastic dishonesty, including but not limited to, providing a paper or project to another student, providing an inappropriate level of assistance, communicating answers to a classmate during an examination, removing tests or answer sheets from a test site, and allowing a classmate to copy answers.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY COULD RESULT IN EXPULSION FROM THE UNIVERSITY
