* This outline is subject to change! Regular YouSeeU attendance (live or archived) is required to follow up with these changes, discussions, and the additional assignments.

GRADES AND ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS:

Exams: There will be a comprehensive final exam and 5 quizzes. You will be taking these tests online; you should get familiar with both the eCollege and the MyEconLab systems in the first few days of the semester. Each quiz and exam will open at minimum from Saturday through Sunday midnight giving you at least a 48 hour window. All homework assignments will be due Sunday by midnight of the date in schedule. There will be no make-up quizzes/exams if the deadline is missed.

Homework: There will be MyEconLab assignments to enhance your learning. Study plan is strongly encouraged and is part of your participation grade in addition to discussions. It is your responsibility to keep up with the webinars and the assignments and discussions. You can work together for the assignments but are expected to post your own work.

Grading: The grades will be based on final exam (30 points), 5 quizzes (10 points each), homework (15 points), and participation (which is the discussions & study plan 5 points). The grading scale is

90 – 100	A
80 – 89	B
70 – 79	C
60 – 69	D
Below 50	F

HELPFUL HINTS

SINCE this is an online course, you need to follow your school emails very regularly. You will have regular announcements and uploads. Reading the assigned materials, listening to Class Live sessions, working the assigned exercises in MyEcon Lab, being in constant communication with your instructor, checking the class website regularly are very important learning tools.

YouSeeU: Live attendance is strongly encouraged but is not required. However, listening to the archived lectures is a course requirement. In case you miss a session, please listen to the archived recordings and contact me for further explanations or questions via the email. To be able to use the chat platform for e-College, you will need a head-set with earphones and a microphone. For more detailed instructions as to how to use YouSeeU, please check out the information on the landing page of e-College under student resources.

RULES, REGULATIONS AND OTHER STUFF

- ✓ All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.
- ✓ The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact: Office of Student Disability Resources and Services, Texas A&M University-Commerce, Halladay Student Services Building Room 303 A/D, Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835, Fax (903) 468-8148, StudentDisabilityServices@tamuc.edu

✓ Plagiarism represents disregard for academic standards and is strictly against University policy. Plagiarized work will result in an “F” for the course and further administrative sanctions permitted under University policy. Guidelines for properly quoting someone else’s writings and the proper citing of sources can be found in the APA Publication Manual. If you do not understand the term “plagiarism”, or if you have difficulty summarizing or documenting sources, contact your professor for assistance. The College of Business and Technology at Texas A&M University-Commerce students will follow the highest level of ethical and professional behavior. Actionable Conduct includes illegal activity, dishonest conduct, cheating, and plagiarism. Failure to abide by the principles of ethical and professional behavior will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal from the university.

✓ A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.
