METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

Lecture, discussion, seminar, and supervised application.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS include, but are not limited to:

1. The 600 clock-hour total for supervised experience must include a minimum of 240 hours of direct service work with clientele appropriate to the community or school program emphasis area.
2. On-campus class meetings will be arranged by the instructor of record to meet the instructional needs of the section to which the student is assigned. A schedule of these meeting times will be published by the instructor of record. Individual supervision sessions will occur at the discretion of the instructor of record.
3. Weekly interaction with an average of one hour per week of individual and/or triadic supervision, throughout the internship (usually performed by the on-site supervisor)
4. An average of one and one half hours per week of group supervision provided on a regular schedule throughout the internship, usually performed by a program faculty member
5. The student will negotiate a Field Experience Contract with the on-site supervisor. This contract constitutes an agreement between the student, field supervisor and instructor of record and specifies the student's activities, hours, and supervision arrangements.
6. The student will submit a Weekly Activity Log to the instructor that will document a cumulative record of hours including:
 - a. direct on-site contact hours
 - b. on-site individual supervision

GRADING

POINT VALUE

Weekly Logs/Paperwork	20 points
Tapes	180 points
Assessment of skills	50 points
Case Conceptualization paper	50 points
Total	300 points

Pass = 240 points and above

“Pass” represents at minimum an expected level of effectiveness. Students demonstrate a satisfactory skills level, and have a uniformly beneficial effect on the clients at their field placement. Students who achieve this grade are usually more comfortable with feedback, and have a positive view of the opportunities presented in training and supervision.

Fail= less than 240 points

“Fail” represents a lower than expected level of effectiveness. Students with this grade are functioning below the level required for field practicum. There may be severe limitations in certain areas. Students who fail to grasp and consistently to demonstrate basic communication and interpersonal skills will generally earn this grade.

When students demonstrate personal limitations that might impede future performance, or consciously violate ethical standards, and are ineffective and harmful to clients, then these students will not receive the instructor's endorsement to continue with the program. (ACA Ethical Standards)

In our midterm meeting, I will let you know if you are passing the course. The most common reason for failing this course is failure to meet the 275 hour requirement at your field site. In addition, some students are not able to demonstrate a level of counselor development expected in this course.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Students will spend a minimum of 275 hours at the field experience site and submit a copy of the Internship Log at midterm documenting these hours to the instructor. The Log will also maintain a cumulative record of on-site hours. We will review the log requirements in class. Paperwork in this class is very important and will be placed in your permanent file. All files are subject to review and may be audited by CACREP.
2. Class Meetings: Please consult attached schedule of meetings. Students may also be required to meet with the instructor for individual supervision. Interns need to be very clear that there is no substitute for class/supervision. If you have plans which interfere with attendance you should consider dropping the course.

3. Three video recordings with a typed case analysis/self-evaluation will be brought to class for supervision. The case analysis will be discussed in class. Additional taping will be required during the semester and used in supervision.

Rules regarding video recordings submitted for grading:

- Submit videos on a USB drive (not a CD/DVD)
- Tapes will not be accepted late.
- Unclear video recordings will be returned to the students (One letter grade will be deducted for unclear recordings).
- Recordings will be of individual counseling sessions accompanied by a typed analysis.
- Taped sessions will be held close to the due date to allow instructor to assess current skill levels.

Case analysis:

- Include client demographics: age, gender, ethnicity, family constellation, etc.
- Description of presenting problem, referral source, areas of concern
- Interventions and techniques used in the session and a rationale for choosing these responses.
- Evaluate your interventions and techniques.*
*most important part of analysis
- Example format will be provided

You need to be prepared to give and receive constructive feedback.

If you are in a school setting, your supervisor probably will assume a mentoring role. In most community settings, your field supervisor will give you direction on case management; I will be emphasizing your skills, attitudes, interventions, self-awareness and conceptual understanding of your clients. Erase all recordings at the end of the semester.

4. Assessment of skills: Students will be assessed by the professor on skills in four areas:

Process Skills: These include skills learned in Pre-Practicum and refer to counselor behaviors that can be observed either through two-way mirrors, videotaping, or audio-taping. These skills enhance the process of counseling and will be evaluated in their execution rather than their choice.

Conceptual Skills: Most of the counselor's covert behaviors are found here. Conceptual skills reflect deliberate thinking and case analysis. There are two kinds of thinking in this area: conceptualization during the session and between the sessions. Kinds of behaviors that represent these skills include:

- understanding what the client is saying;
- identifying themes in the client messages;
- choosing strategies appropriate to client goals;
- recognizing even subtle improvement by the client.

Personalization Skills: These include both easily observable and subtle behaviors. Because counseling is a very personal activity, these skills will indicate how well the student has adjusted to the role of helper. Examples of these might include:

- comfort with the responsibility of being a counselor;
- being able to separate one's own issues from those of the client.

Professional Skills: These include ethical behaviors both within, and outside, counseling sessions. Examples include, but are not restricted to, the following:

- completing paper work on time,
- safeguarding confidentiality,
- behaving professionally in field placement,
- dressing appropriately for counseling contacts,
- not being defensive with an accusing client,
- being able to handle a range of personal emotions, and being able to accept constructive critique.

5. Case conceptualization paper: Students will develop a comprehensive written case study over a current client. Students will detail the presenting case, including background information removing any personally identifying information. The student will then use two theories to provide theoretical interpretations and a plan for helping. Cases will be discussed in class and a paper copy will be turned in to the professor.

Counseling Student Competency Evaluation (CSCE)

The Counseling Program is obligated by professional ethics (see ACA Code of Ethics, 2014) and University procedure to assess students as to their potential for meeting the expectations of the professional counseling field. The Counseling Student Competency Evaluation will be used as a basis for assessment. Copies of the CSCE are available from the Departmental website or by contacting the Department of Counseling Office.
