Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students are expected to log into the course at least 3 times per week and check their emails. Announcements and emails are posted on Mondays and may come periodically. Also, even though the homework isn't due until Sunday nights at midnight, your instructor has limited availability on Sundays, so get your questions in early and often.

GRADING

Grading, Key Content Areas, and Assignments: Grades in BGS 402 are based upon a student's work in three key content areas: quality, consistency, and quantity. These content areas reflect the course objectives and the core communication skills that students are expected to learn. Each of these content areas represents a fixed percentage of the course's content. Since this is a junior level course, grading will include consideration of content as well as grammar, spelling, style, and organization.

Research Paper 20%
Module Assignments 20%
Quizzes 40%
Discussions 20%
Total 100%

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Grades will be awarded based upon a point system. Your total number of points will be divided by the total number of points available to determine your grade percentage. Extra credit work will not be assigned.

RESEARCH PAPER

The research paper is worth 20% of your final grade. Students must use APA Style formatting and citation. Additional format instructions are provided along with assignment details. Assignments are expected no later than 11:59 p.m. (CST) on the day they are due. The research topic will be given in D2L.

Submitting papers: All written assignments/research papers must be submitted to the appropriate folder within D2L and be produced in 12-point, Arial or Times New Roman type, and double-spaced, with one inch margins. Always use block left format with jagged right margins. Always use tabs at the beginning of paragraphs. Proofread carefully. Grammar, punctuation, spelling, and style count heavily in this course.

QUIZZES

There will be quizzes given in each module throughout the semester for a total of 40% of your final grade. Please see the schedule on the last page for the dates the quizzes will be open. The quizzes will be timed and can only be accessed once; therefore, once you begin, you may not stop and come back to it later.

The quizzes should be taken by the student without their textbook. Make sure you have a reliable internet connection before beginning.

MODULE ASSIGNMENTS

There will be module assignments given each week. These are worth a total of 20%. The module assignment will consist of one of the following: case study, research of relevant topics, or other written assignments. As a general guideline, your grade on this portion will be a function of the quality, quantity, and consistency.

Submitting Module Assignments: All written assignments must be submitted to the appropriate folder within D2L and be produced in 12-point, Arial or Times New Roman type, and double-spaced, with one inch margins with correct APA formatting. Always use block left format with jagged right margins. Always use tabs at the beginning of paragraphs. Proofread carefully. Grammar, punctuation, spelling, and style count heavily in this course.

DISCUSSION BOARDS

The discussion board is worth 20% of your grade. The preferred pattern for the discussion activity is that it becomes a conversation, not necessarily a series of posts and replies.

The format for grading the discussions will apply to both semester-long and other discussions (including the section/readings). Grading will include quantity of postings and replies, quality of postings and replies, number and variety of topics discussed in discussions, frequency and regularity of discussions, and timeliness. Students are expected to share their thoughts, responses and/or ideas, in order to learn from each other's opinions. Initial postings and replies are not considered differently in the grading process. Although some professors may set minimum numbers or "appropriate" numbers of postings and replies, students in this class should be aware that the number of postings and replies is only one factor that goes into the grading. Grading of the discussions does tend to be somewhat cumulative, in that a few really outstanding posts or replies may not provide very many points. On the other hand, many low quality posts do not add much value to the discussions.

Students should also be aware that copying things off the internet and posting it should include an appropriate reference. Also remember that simply making this kind of posting without making personal observations is not a quality post. Duplicated posts that someone else has already made and replies that are essentially "me too" or "I agree" without further discussion are not quality postings. It is the responsibility of each student to keep up with the scheduled readings and discussions for the chapters. Please also note that heavy activity during the last few days cannot compensate for a lack of participation during the term. Plan to participate throughout the entire semester. Once the chapter discussions have been closed, they will not be re-opened and will be in read-only format.

IMPORTANT POSTING RULES:

- 1) Postings may be a few sentences or a couple of paragraphs in length. The key to a quality post is that it provides thoughtful, clear analysis, and insight into the topic or questions. Your postings will be carefully read.
- 2) To achieve the highest possible score for discussion participation, student should maintain active engagement through consistency and quality. Quality is more important than quantity.
- 3) Plagiarism among students (copying others' postings) will not be tolerated. Please note that TAMU-C has explicit rules regarding plagiarism and will be subject to penalties. Students are advised to carefully read everyone's postings to ensure that no one has plagiarized your answer.
- 4) Students with very few or no substantive class participation will not receive the highest credit and failure to post at all will result in student not receiving participation points.
- 5) Proofread all posts and written communications to eliminate any offensive references, poor sentence syntax, misspelled words, etc. Keep errors to a minimum.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Browser support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products. Customers can still report problems and receive support for critical issues; however, D2L does not guarantee all issues will be addressed. A maintenance browser becomes officially unsupported after one year.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Papers or documents will not be accepted for grading through fax or as e-mail attachments. REMEMBER, the instructor does not grade late or incorrectly submitted assignments.

Late work is not accepted. This document outlines the due dates for all homework, but most will be due on Sunday nights at midnight.

No attendance policy will be imposed for this online course. However, students will need to complete all assignments and course requirements consistent with the assignment schedule. Excused absences will not generate extra time for meeting deadlines and scheduled events. Writing assignments must be delivered prior to the established deadline when "excused absences" interfere with the course calendar. Late work receives a grade of zero. Students may submit work before the due dates; however, assignment grades will be posted after the assignment due date. Since late assignments are not accepted, you are strongly encouraged to submit assignments prior to the due dates. Students will be expected to participate consistent with course objectives and goals. I expect that your completed assignments will always reflect your best effort.

It is the student's responsibility to:

- Stay active in the course by logging into the course on a regular daily basis.
- Always read every course announcement on the homepage of the course. Feedback for assignments, university announcements, and major department announcements will be posted to this forum. These announcements are placed in your course to help you so please take the time to read and understand each announcement. These announcements are time sensitive so they will only be available for a limited period of time.
- Learn to proficiently use the D2L system.
- Be able to proficiently use Microsoft Office and a computer operating system (Microsoft Windows).
- Be able to save documents created to Microsoft Office 2013 or 2016
- Have one reliable and one backup reliable Internet connection.
- Be proactive in reading all the reading and writing assignment instructions. Read all assignments several times and schedule a time in which to complete the assignment. To be successful, you will need to read assignment instructions many times.
- Ask questions about assignments via e-mail well before the due date. Submit all assignments before or on the due date. I can usually tell when an assignment is submitted as a last minute effort.
- Submit assignments in the appropriate format and to the appropriate submission folder.
- Read the instructor's individual grade comments in the Gradebook attached to each assignment.

- Ask questions that are not answered in the course syllabus, individual assignment details, or posted to course announcements.
- Always submit your best effort.
