Course Description:

Detailed study of the development of all phases of theatre art and drama from its origins to French Renaissance theatre. Includes study of theatre conventions, plays, and major dramatic movements.

Prerequisite:

THE 1310—Introduction to the Theatre or permission of the instructor.

Course Introduction:

It has been said that theatre prior to the Renaissance (and the advent of perspective) was altogether presentational. The conceptual framework for this semester revolves around this notion coupled with ideas of comedy, culture, and power. Of course, socio-political conditions must be studied and related to the theatres of their times. In addition, we (re)view plays and productions from the past through contemporary lenses. We will apply principles of the past to plays in the present (Eleemosynary and She Stoops to Conquer). This semester's theme will be cultural milieu and perspectives and the ways in which comedy speaks back to power.

Course Ethics and Attendance: Note that attendance alone does not constitute participation. Promptness, attendance, and “attentiveness” are valued in this class. Please behave accordingly and do not disrupt the class with excessive talk or the use of cell phones or other devices. A willingness to “give theatre history a chance” is most appreciated. It is assumed that students will work cooperatively with one another and all work that is not “original” will be properly credited. See the TAMUC Student’s Guide Handbook for more information on plagiarism. This is a serious offense that can result in separation from the university. EVEN if not specifically noted on instructions or prompts for each assignment, plagiarism policies will be strictly enforced.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of theatrical forms and styles of production across cultures and centuries.
2. Apply theories and terminology to discussions on theatre
3. Develop skills necessary to think and write critically and clearly about theatre history and theatre practices.

Graduate Student Enhanced Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the graduate student will be able to:

1. To develop a working background on the history of theatre from the Classic(al) era through the French Renaissance, its plays and players, that will assist students in making intelligent assessments regarding early theatrical practices.
2. Display a learned knowledge of the skills of the working theatre historian.
3. Synthesize academic research into cohesive scholarly writing and oral presentations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments:

In-Class Exercises (Best 20 @ 1 point each = 20 pts. total): As stated above, attendance does not constitute participation. We will conduct in-class exercises almost every day. These exercises are used to focus your attention on the material offered in the course and are hands-on, interactive methods to explore the material. You MUST be present and you MUST participate to receive credit.

Graduate Student: The graduate student will also be expected to develop/lead up to four In-Class Exercises for undergraduate students enrolled in the class. The student will be graded on the level of creativity/effectiveness of the exercise, the effectiveness of his/her ability to work with undergraduate students, and the level of understanding of the concepts explored in class as they apply to the topic at hand.

Talking Points (10 @ 2 pts = 20 pts.): Each student will complete lucid and cogent talking points for each reading (Brockett chapters and plays). These can be in whatever format you choose (bullet points usually work best) but should be questions and/or comments (anything that can assist with a class discussion) that struck you while reading. It is expected that you make connections between the readings (across chapters and plays), and in-class exercises and lecture/discussions. Though you may write in bullet points, students should approach these talking points through a scholarly lens; it is expected that students will write at a level appropriate for upper-level course and will exercise critical thinking skills. Talking Points are to be submitted via email; however, students will need access to their work for all classes (hard or digital copies).

Tests (Tests 1 & 2 @ 15 pts. each; Final Exam @ 10 pts. = 40 pts. total)

Application Papers (2 @ 10 pts. = 20 pts. total): Students are required to attend performances of both Playhouse productions (clear your schedules NOW!). Students will submit papers that apply concepts explored in class to contemporary productions. Papers should be approx. 3-4 pages, typed, double-spaced, 12 pt. font (or whatever your default font/size is), well-organized (complete sentences, full paragraphs). I will consider spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure in the grading. (See grading rubric in your syllabus). Papers are to be submitted via email. I will not accept hard copies of your papers.

Graduate Student: Three History/Play Presentations (3 @ 10 pts. each = 30 pts.): The graduate student will develop three Historical/Play Presentations. They must choose from the following periods/cultures: Greek, Roman, Medieval, English Renaissance, Italian Renaissance, or French Renaissance. Each presentation will include outside research regarding the historical zeitgeist of the period (what is happening politically, socially, culturally, and economically at the time), playwrights/theatre practitioners of the period, theatrical conventions (performance spaces, costumes, music, set, props, etc.), and short annotations for at least three plays that represent the period in question (approximately one paragraph for each play), as well as any other information deemed significant by the student. The student will come prepared to lead the class discussion for the day, lead appropriate class activities, and offer outside material in a formal, well-researched, professional, creative, interactive, and interesting presentation for the class. This project takes considerable time and energy – start early and be thorough.

Grading Breakdown:

The following grading scale will be used to determine all individual grades as well as the student's overall grade in the course:

In-Class Exercises	20 pts.	100-90 =	A
Talking Points	20 pts.	89-80=	B
Tests	40 pts.	79-70=	C
Papers	20 pts.	69-60=	D
		59 and below=	F

Graduate Student Grading Breakdown:

In-Class Exercises	20 pts.	130-117=	A
Talking Points	20 pts.	116-104=	B
Tests	40 pts.	103-91=	C
Papers	20 pts.	90-78=	D
History/Play Presentations	30 pts.	77 and below=	F
Total	130 pts.

A grade of "A" will not be assigned to any individual who has not completed ALL outside of class assignments. (Talking Points, Final, Attendance at departmental productions) regardless of average.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

WORKING EMAIL REQUIREMENT: It is a course expectation that you have a working email address that you check daily. If you have not already acquired an email address through the university or otherwise, please make arrangements to do so before the next class meeting. There WILL be times that I need to contact you with important information and email is often the speediest and easiest way of doing so. Additionally, I will provide electronic copies of the plays and any supplemental reading through myLeo Online and/or email.

WRITTEN WORK: Unfortunately, papers/projects do occasionally get lost. Please, for your sanity, save your work on a thumb drive, etc. Do not depend on your paper staying on the hard drive of any university computer, as it will be deleted, altered, or worse – turned in by someone else as their work! Be aware that it is a course expectation that you keep copies of your assignments until you receive your final grade for the semester.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Contacting Me:

Please feel free to visit me during my office hours at any time during the semester. I am here to help! If you can't make my office hours due to a scheduling conflict, please set up an appointment with me. Communicate, communicate, communicate! The easiest and most reliable way to contact me is via email. Please do not leave a message for me in the main department office.

Email Policy:

Before sending me an email with a general course-specific question, review your syllabus/look at the handouts/check myLeo Online/ask a classmate first. If your question has already been addressed in one of those places, then you will have the answer you need. If your question does not exist, please feel free to email me.

When emailing me: Please make your emails clear and concise, written with proper grammar in order to assure my earliest attention. In addition, please follow some common "email etiquette" procedures in order to keep our electronic communication effective and efficient. Specifically:

- Write a relevant subject line (e.g., "Theatre History question," or "THE 340 meeting request")
- Address me by name (ie: "Dear Professor Worley" or "Hi Becca" or just "Becca")
- Bonus: "meaningless niceties" are never a bad idea!
- Concisely state what it is you need. If it can't be communicated in a concise manner, perhaps request an appointment. If requesting an appointment, give me times that you are available in the initial email!!! My office hours are posted above.
- Use a "sign-off" ("Thank you" is always good) and sign your name.

Not following these guidelines potentially puts you at the bottom of my list for response time.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:Attendance Policy:

You may accumulate two (2) absences before any penalty occurs. There are no additional absences allowed without penalty. Plan accordingly. There is no such thing as an “excused” absence. Of course, if you have a prolonged illness or injury, or if a family emergency arises, speak with your instructor ASAP. Grades will be dropped in ½ letter grade increments for every class absences beyond the first absence.

Late Arrivals:

To further foster a high level of commitment—and because the work we will be doing this semester will involve intensive focus—the class will adopt the following late entry policy. Students must be on time for every class. Entering a class late or leaving early is disruptive to the flow of the class and indicative of a less than disciplined/committed student. Please be on time out of consideration to your learning process and the processes of others. The class will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m.! If you arrive after 9:40 a.m., please do not enter the classroom (you will be marked absent regardless). If you arrive within the ten minute grace period, please do so discretely in order to avoid disrupting the class activities/discussions. Also, you are expected to stay until you are dismissed from class. Two late arrivals (within the ten-minute grace period) or early departures (or any combination of the two) may be counted as one absence in the class.

Cell Phones and Laptops:

Please turn off all cell phones upon entering the classroom. Please do not check messages or engage in text messaging during class. This is disruptive to the flow of the course. Further, you are welcome to take class notes on a laptop or other electronic device. However, these devices should only be used for taking notes over the current discussions/activities – and you must type very quietly and turn off all sound so as not to disturb other class members. If I suspect that laptops are being used for other purposes, I will ban them from the classroom.

Late Work:

I do not accept late work.

Extra Credit:

The instructor reserves the right to offer extra-credit to all students, and to gauge its application appropriately and uniformly for all.

Incompletes:

Under normal circumstances, an Incomplete (I or X) will NOT be given for a final grade in this course. Per University policy, students who because of circumstances beyond their control are unable to attend classes will, upon approval of their instructor, receive a mark of X (incomplete) in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades at the time of the request for an incomplete.
