Course Description:

A survey of the underlying ideas, principles, and participatory practices of constitutional government in the United States and Texas. Topics considered include civil liberties and civil rights, constitutionalism, federalism, ideology, pluralism, political culture and socialization, political parties and interest groups, public opinion, republicanism, and voting and electoral politics.

Format:

Each class session will involve lectures and discussions about the assigned readings. You will regularly be asked to contribute your opinions and answer questions about the readings. In addition to the assigned readings listed in the syllabus, we will regularly discuss current political events, since developments in American politics occur on a daily basis.

This syllabus is subject to change at any time at the professor's discretion.

NO PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES ARE ALLOWED IN CLASS AT ANY TIME.

THIS INCLUDES (BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO):

CELL PHONES,

LAPTOPS,

iPADS,

iPODS,

MP3 Players/Recorders,

Translation Devices

VIDEO CAMERAS

OR ANY OTHER AUDIO AND/OR VIDEO RECORDERS OF ANY KIND

IF ANY OF THESE DEVICES ARE PRESENT IN CLASS THE ENTIRE CLASS WILL HAVE A POP QUIZ AND THE INDIVIDUAL(S) RESPONSIBLE MAY BE DIRECTED TO LEAVE THE CLASSROOM IMMEDIATELY.

Requirements/Assignments

Examinations: In this course, all students are required to take three exams, each of which will consist of 50 questions in a multiple choice format. Together, these exams will comprise 90% of your grade (each exam is worth 30%). The exams are NOT comprehensive. There is NOT a final exam in this course.

If you miss an exam, you will receive 0% for that exam.

If you have a legitimate reason for missing an exam (e.g. severe illness or injury requiring professional medical care, emergencies in your immediate family, participation in official university activities, legal obligations) AND you have supporting documentation for your absence, then you may request taking the MAKE-UP EXAM, which will BE GIVEN AT 4:45pm on Wednesday, October 3 (Exam 1); 4:45pm on Wednesday, November 14 (Exam 2); Exam 3 will be given during FINALS WEEK and CANNOT BE MADE UP.

Requests for taking the make-up exam must be submitted in writing and include documentation explaining and substantiating why the absence was legitimate. An approval to take the make-up exam will be based solely upon the professor's evaluation of your request and any supporting documentation.

Attendance: Attendance is critical, discussions are irreplaceable, and course sessions cannot be "made up." It will be extremely difficult, if not impossible, for you to succeed in this course if you do not attend all –or nearly all- class sessions. Attendance will be taken during each class session using a sign-in sheet for financial aid and other documentation purposes, however it will not directly affect your grade. Signing in a student who is not present or asking a student to sign you in when you are absent constitutes academic dishonesty (see p.3). Since your attendance will not be used to calculate your grade, it is not necessary to provide me with any excuses for absences (unless you are absent during an examination – read the previous section).

Attendance Note 1: If a pop quiz or any other assignment is given when you are absent, you CANNOT make it up, regardless of the reason for your absence (excused or unexcused).

Attendance Note 2: I will NOT reply to any emails asking what we did in class during your absence- We will follow the syllabus. If you miss class, get notes from a classmate and ask him/her if there were any announcements.

Participation: Your participation in this class is worth up to 4% of your grade.

Your contributions to the class discussions are highly desirable and will make class sessions more interesting. Positive participation includes responding to my questions, asking your own questions, and contributing to class discussions. All of these activities will positively impact your participation grade.

Negative participation includes: sleeping in class, side-talk with your neighbors, coming to class late, and any other class disruptions- any of these activities will negatively impact your participation grade, even if you contribute to class discussions. If you use personal electronic devices in class that will result in a pop quiz for the entire class and your removal from the classroom, and it will negatively impact your participation grade. Also, if you misbehave in class or disrupt class in any way you may be directed to leave the classroom and your participation grade will be negatively impacted.

Your participation grade will be calculated as follows:

- Never or Rarely Contributes to Class Discussions: 0%
- Sometimes Contributes to Class Discussions : 1%
- Often Contributes to Class Discussions: 2%
- Almost Always Contributes to Class Discussions: 3%
- Always Contributes to Class Discussions: 4%

Pop Quizzes: These will be assigned only if anyone is found to be using an electronic device in class, and will count for a total of 2% of your grade. Pop quizzes will be very difficult to pass. If you are absent when a pop quiz is given, you cannot make it up, irrespective of the circumstances, and will earn 0% for any quiz you miss. Pop quizzes will be graded on the basis of the content and clarity of your answers.

In-Class Writing Assignment: You will have ONE required writing assignment that is worth a total of 4% of your grade. The writing assignment will take place during class on Thursday, December 6, 2018 and requires you to write about issues that address your awareness of societal and/or civic issues, critical thinking, and communication skills. NOTE: IF YOU MISS THIS CLASS SESSION FOR ANY REASON, YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO MAKE UP THIS ASSIGNMENT.

Grades:

Your grade in this course will be determined by the criteria listed below. The following scale will be used to determine your grade:

- Exam #1 (September 27): 30%
- Exam #2 (November 13): 30%
- Exam #3 (Week of December 10-14): 30%
- Participation: 4%
- Pop Quizzes: 2%
- Writing Assignment (December 6): 4%

A 90-100%; B 80-89.9%; C 70-79.9%; D 60-69.9%; F Below 60%

Student Learning Outcomes for the Core Curriculum:

1. Critical Thinking: Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. Communication: In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Personal Responsibility: Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4. Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Policies:

Notes on Academic Dishonesty of ANY kind: Any student who is caught committing any kind of academic dishonesty will receive an “F” in this course and will be reported to the University administration. “Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), signing the attendance sheet for a student who is absent (or asking another student to sign you in when you are absent), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material” (Texas A&M University-Commerce Procedures A13.12). If you have any doubt as to what may constitute academic dishonesty, please consult with me prior to submitting any assignments.

Notes on plagiarism: All research papers will be submitted to turnitin.com, a digital plagiarism detection system. Any student who is caught plagiarizing will receive an “F” in this course and will be reported to the University administration for academic dishonesty. If you have any doubt as to what may constitute plagiarism, please consult me prior to submitting any written work.

Email Policy: Before you ask me a question in an email, check to see if the syllabus answers your question FIRST. I generally reply to emails within 24 hours, Monday-Friday. Emails sent to me over weekends will be replied to on Mondays. I do not reply to emails that ask questions about items covered in the syllabus, such as what chapters are covered on an exam or what the assigned readings are for a given week.

Code of Student Conduct: All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class and may refer serious offenses to the University Police Department and/or the Dean of Students for disciplinary action. Failure to comply with the Code of Student Conduct and commonsensical directions listed above may result in a verbal request to cease inappropriate behavior, your immediate removal from the class, being immediately dropped from the class, and/or a review by an appropriate university disciplinary agency. For more information on this subject, please see the Student Guidebook.

Campus Carry: Texas Senate Bill-11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-0Commerce Rule 34.06.02R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02R1.pdf> (and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

Non-discrimination notice: A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Note to Students with Disabilities: The American with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
