GRADING

Each student is required to submit Module Assignments/Case Studies, Quizzes, Discussion Boards, and Exams (myLeo Online). Discussion boards require a minimum of one post and two replies to fellow students. Module assignments may include exercises, projects, and/or short quizzes. Further details will be given in MyLeo Online (D2L).

Grades are based on the quality, consistency, and quantity of work submitted. Each assessment area represents a fixed percentage in the calculation of the final grade. As a junior level course, grading will include consideration of content as well as grammar, spelling, style, and organization.

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Weight of assessments in calculation of final course grade:

Four (4) Exams (10% each)	40%
Case Studies	20%
Content Quizzes	25%
Discussion Boards and Syllabus Quiz	15%
Total:	100%

Late work WILL NOT be accepted. Extra credit work will NOT be assigned so please do not ask.

If you miss an assignment because you are in the hospital, please email me proof of admission and release. If you miss an assignment or quiz because of a death in the family, please email me a copy of the newspaper clipping stating you as the surviving spouse, parent, child, grandchild, or brother/sister.*

Exams

Exams are given throughout the semester. Please see the course outline/calendar in this document for an approximate timeframe. The exams are not group work. The exams will be timed and can only be accessed once; therefore, once you begin, you may not stop and come back to it later. Make sure you have RELIABLE Internet connection before beginning exam.

Module Assignments/Case Studies

Module assignments are to be submitted to the assignments folder by the due dates posted. Assignments will not be accepted as email attachments. Spelling, punctuation, and grammar errors will have a negative impact on your assignment grades.

Content Quizzes

Just as with the exams, the quizzes will be timed and can only be accessed once; therefore, once you begin you may not stop come back to it later. Due dates for case studies and quizzes will not be extended. There are no make-up quizzes for any reason. If you miss a quiz, you miss those points.

Discussion Boards

Discussion boards require a minimum of one post and two replies to fellow students. Discussions may be completed and submitted prior to the posted due date, but keep in mind that sufficient dialog must occur with fellow students. Spelling, punctuation, and grammar errors will have a negative impact on your assignment grades.

Professional Conduct

By enrolling in this course for academic credit, you agree to adhere to the Regulations and Procedures published in the TAMU-C STUDENT GUIDEBOOK:

INTERACTION WITH INSTRUCTOR

This is an online course; therefore, expect most communication to be online as well. I will correspond with students via your university email (your “myLeo” mail) and via announcements in myLeo Online (D2L) and MindTap. Students are required to check university email daily.

All emails from students must include:

- Course name and section in the subject line (BGS 401)
- Salutation
- Student name and CWID in after body of email
- Proper email etiquette (no “text” emails – use proper grammar and punctuation)

I will make every effort to respond to emails within 24 to 48 hours Monday-Friday, provided the correspondence follows the requirements listed above. If your correspondence falls over the weekend or some unforeseen circumstance occurs, it may be longer before you receive a reply.

In order to avoid duplication of questions and answers, if you have procedural or assignment related questions, you may post those in myLeo Online. It is likely that your peers will have the same question. Questions or concerns of a personal nature should be sent to my email address from your myLeo email account.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Texas A&M University-Commerce will not condone plagiarism in any form. Plagiarism represents disregard for academic standards and is strictly against University policy. Plagiarized work can result in a "0" on a given assignment(s) or an "F" for the course as well as further administrative sanctions permitted under University policy.

Guidelines for properly quoting someone else's writings and the proper citing of sources can be found in the APA Publication Manual and through online resources provided. If you have difficulty summarizing or documenting sources, contact your professor for assistance.

The instructor reserves the right to manage a positive learning environment and thus will not tolerate inappropriate conduct in the course. Students must contribute appropriately to the class, and must maintain a professional level of respect when interacting with other students and the instructor.

Assignments, discussions and exams must be submitted by the due dates stated. See the "Grading" section of the syllabus for more detail.
