Required Textbook(s):

History of Theatre by Neil Grant (ISBN: 978-0600596325)

Dead Man's Cellphone by Sarah Ruhl (ISBN: 978-1559363259)

Course Description:

The purpose of Introduction to Theatre is to familiarize students with the basic elements of plays and productions and to help students develop the analytical skills to think, speak and write critically about the theatre

Course Ethics and Attendance: (Note that attendance alone does not constitute participation.)

Promptness, attendance, and "attentiveness" are valued in this class. Please behave accordingly and do not disrupt the class with excessive talk or the use of cell phones or other devices. A willingness to "give theatre and its many forms a chance" is most appreciated. It is assumed that students will work cooperatively with one another and all work that is not "original" will be properly credited. See the TAMUC Student's Guide Handbook for more information on plagiarism. This is a serious offense that can result in separation from the university. EVEN if not specifically noted on instructions or prompts for each assignment, plagiarism policies will be strictly enforced.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the student will be able to: 1) Become a more informed, critical audience member 2) Gain a basic understanding of the elements of dramatic structure and of theatrical production 3) Learn to evaluate the artistic quality of a script and a performance 4) Gain appreciation of how plays reflect the people and cultures that produce them 5) Gain understanding of the relationship of theatre to the other arts and humanities

I. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments:

First Assignment Paper: Brownie points

Reading/Lecture Quizzes: 200 points (5 quizzes @ 40 points each)

Dead Man's Cellphone Test: 100 points

Midterm Exam: 100 points

Final Exam: 100 points

Performance Reviews: 500 points (2 papers @ 250 points each)

1000-900 = A; 899-800 = B; 799-700 = C; 699-600 = D; below 600 = F

Assignments Explained:

First Assignment Paper: This is your introduction to the course. Write a ½ page, MLA formatted (1-inch margins, 12-point Times New Roman font, double-spaced) paper telling me about yourself. Have you done theatre before? If so, what have you done? Have you seen any shows? If so, what have you seen? Why are you taking this course? What are your college plans? Major, etc.? While this paper is not for a “grade,” it gives me a chance to tailor discussions in a way that will benefit you. It will also help when it comes to writing your performance reviews as I will grade/edit this paper for grammar, content, etc. It may end up counting for extra credit later in the semester. On the second half of the page, upload a picture of yourself.

Reading/Lecture Quizzes: Throughout the semester, students will take a series of quizzes designed to assess retention of lecture materials. These will consist of definitions, multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, short answer, etc. Each quiz is worth 40 points for a semester total of 200 points.

Tests: There are three tests for this course: a test over the assigned play, a midterm exam, and a final exam. The midterm and the final will cover material discussed up to that point and the third test will cover the play. These will consist of short answer, definitions, multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, etc. Each test is worth 100 points for a semester total of 300 points.

Performance Reviews: Students are required to attend and watch two live performances over the course of the semester and respond in written reviews (3 typed, double-spaced pages minimum with 1-inch margins, and 12-point Times New Roman font). All students must take a selfie with an actor when appropriate. With some theatre, you will not be able to get a picture with the actor so you will need to take a picture of yourself inside the auditorium with the stage behind you, and insert the selfie into the last page of the paper and then load entire document into the corresponding online assignment.*

II. TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS:

WORKING EMAIL REQUIREMENT: It is a course expectation that you have a working email address that you check daily. If you have not already acquired an email address through the university or otherwise, please make arrangements to do so. There WILL be times that I need to contact you with important information and email is often the quickest way to do so.

WRITTEN WORK: Unfortunately, papers/projects do occasionally get lost. Please, for your sanity, save your work on a thumb drive, etc. Do not depend on your paper staying on the hard drive of any university computer, as it will be deleted, altered, or worse – turned in by someone else as their work! Be aware that it is a course expectation that you keep copies of your assignments until you receive your final grade for the semester.

TIMELINESS OF ASSIGNMENTS:

All work will be completed and uploaded on time. Late work will be accepted at the instructor's discretion. Excuses for late work will only be accepted with verifiable documented proof from a reputable source. (Example: In an emergency room for multiple days.) Problems with Internet service providers, computers, or not backing up ones work will not be considered acceptable. Become familiar with alternatives such as the public library, Internet cafés, or friends.

III. COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT:

Contacting Me:

I am here to help! If something is occurring that is presenting you with difficulties in this class, let me know. I cannot help you if I don't know what is going on. The easiest and most reliable way to contact me is via email. I check it almost constantly. Please do not leave a message for me in the main department office. If you will be communicating with me via email, please always write in clear and complete sentences, using proper grammar and punctuation. Also, SIGN YOUR NAME, otherwise, sometimes I don't know who it is from. If you plan on having a job someday that may utilize email, just think of it as practice.

IV. COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES:

Course Specific Procedures:

Attendance Policy:

You may accumulate three (3) absences before any penalty occurs. There are no additional absences allowed without penalty. Plan accordingly. There is no such thing as an “excused” absence. Of course, if you have a prolonged illness or injury, or if a family emergency arises, speak with your instructor ASAP. Grades will be dropped in letter grade increments for every class absence beyond three. That said, school absences will be excused on a case-by-case basis but you MUST email me and let me know. Do NOT rely on your classmates to tell me you are at a track meet, college visit, etc. I MUST hear from YOU.

Late Arrivals:

To further foster a high level of commitment – and because the work we will be doing this semester will involve intense focus – the class will adopt the following late entry policy. Students must be on time for every class. Entering a class late or leaving early is disruptive to the flow of the class and indicative of a less than disciplined/committed student. Please be on time out of consideration to your learning process and the processes of others. If you arrive within the five minute grace period, please do so discretely in order to avoid disrupting the class activities/discussions. Habitually showing up late to class will result in a grade reduction, as well. Also, you are expected to stay until you are dismissed from class.

Cell Phones and Laptops:

Please turn off all cell phones upon entering the classroom. Please do not check messages or engage in text messaging during class. This is disruptive to the flow of the course. You CAN live without your phone for an hour. Further, you are welcome to take class notes on a laptop or other electronic device. However, these devices should only be used for taking notes over the current discussions/activities – and you must type very quietly and turn off all sound so as not to disturb other class members. If I suspect that laptops are being used for other purposes, I will ban them from the classroom.

Extra Credit:

I rarely offer extra credit. This course is set up in a way that you should not need it. Do not expect me to offer extra credit; do the work.

Incompletes:

Under normal circumstances, an Incomplete (I or X) will NOT be given for a final grade in this course. Per University policy, students who because of circumstances beyond their control are unable to attend classes will, upon approval of their instructor, receive a mark of X (incomplete) in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades at the time of the request for an incomplete.

V. University Specific Procedures:

Academic Dishonesty:

This course adheres strictly to the college's guidelines for Academic Dishonesty printed in the Student's Guide Handbook. Plagiarism, cheating, or otherwise representing another's work or ideas as your own without proper attribution will not be tolerated. All work must be new and created for this class during this semester by you. It is your responsibility to ensure that you understand the definition of Academic Dishonesty at Texas A&M - Commerce. If such an instance occurs, the student will receive an automatic zero for the work in question, and I will immediately report the incident to the Head of the Department. (You should be aware that this could result in dismissal from school without credit for the semester).

Students with a Disability:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
