COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description: The purpose of this course is to learn theatre by doing it. The respective shop supervisors, staff, and faculty will teach theatrical production in safe, structured instruction. Various jobs and duties will relate closely to the current production, as well as the daily operations of the theatre. This course will develop your skills in production, problem-solving, and use of tools and technology. This course will also develop your work ethic, attitude, respect, and reliability.

Required Text Book: The Backstage Handbook: An Illustrated Almanac of Technical Information (3rd Edition) by Paul Carter, ISBN-13:978-0911747393, ISBN-10: 0911747397

Materials:

1. Mandatory – safety glasses, work gloves, work clothes, closed-toed shoes, QR reading app on smart phone/device, crew shirt
2. Recommended – ear plugs, steel-toed shoes
3. Other materials and specific work attire may be necessary, and at the discretion of your supervisor.

IF YOU DO NOT HAVE THESE ITEMS, YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO WORK YOUR HOURS.
THIS IS NOT NEGOTIABLE.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will learn essential skills in various aspects of theatre production, including (but not limited to) construction, painting, marketing, sewing, etc.
2. Students will be assigned to production crews, and learn the expectations of each.
3. Students will cultivate appropriate attitudes, skills, and professionalism required for working in a theatre.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance/Participation:

Attendance and participation in course activities (including work assignments, crew assignments, and work hours) are mandatory for this course.

NOTE: Participation is defined as following instructions from faculty, designers, supervisors, etc. in a safe and timely manner, and with a positive attitude. Negativity, unsafe practices, and poor attitude WILL negatively affect your grade, regardless of how many hours you have worked.

Grading

Your grade will be determined as follows:

Work hours (weekly average)	45%
Skills Test	10% (total)
Mandatory Work Calls	10%
Show Crew	10%
Auditions	5% (total)
Strike	20% (total)

Exceptional work will receive an	A (90% and above)
Above average work will receive a	B (80% - 89%)
Average work will receive a	C (70% - 79%)
Below average work will receive a	D (60% - 69%)
Unacceptable work will receive an	F (59% or less)

Assessment:

1. Each student will fill out a form to indicate availability and areas of interest. You will receive an assignment based on your responses, as well as the needs of the department/production. Please note that you are not guaranteed your preferred assignment. Students are rotated through various shops each semester (and within a given semester) to provide the student with a well-rounded education while meeting the needs of the department.
2. It is your responsibility to check the call board each day. All assignments, production information, work calls, etc. will be posted on the main call board, located in the hallway between the main office and the green room. Pertinent information will be posted at least 24 hours prior to the call, although sometimes emergencies arise that may result in less time.

Note: Social media, email, and text messaging are NOT the same thing as the call board. Although information may be shared via these outlets, the call board is still the central area of communication. "No one told me" is never an excuse.

3. Students will clock in, report to the appropriate supervisor, and be ready to work on the project/duties assigned for the day. At the end students will clock out. More information regarding time management will be provide later in the syllabus. If you do not clock in/out, you will not receive credit for the time worked.

4. Students must be dressed in work clothes. This includes “paint clothes” (or, clothing you do not mind getting ruined), close-toed shoes, and any safety gear required for the shop or project. If you do not wear them in, please bring them with you. You cannot clock in until you are dressed appropriately and ready to work. Failure to work due to lack of appropriate attire will result in zero hours for the day. NOTE—Box Office personnel requires a different dress code, which will be addressed at your first shift.
5. Student must work a MINIMUM OF FOUR HOURS PER WEEK to pass this class. If you wish to receive a higher grade, you must work more hours.
6. If you will be missing work for any reason you must notify Donna and your immediate supervisor. Failure to do so will result in points being deducted from your total hours. Hours missed from excused absences may be made up with proper arrangements with the supervisor. Unexcused absences (no call/no shows) will not be eligible for makeup work.
7. If a work call is made for your assigned shop, you will be required to work at least one of the time blocks for every work call posted. These are mandatory, and separate from your regularly scheduled work hours. They cannot be used to make up missed hours. (You may sign up for an extra work call shift for makeup hours, but you must work the mandatory time first.) Sign-up sheets for work call shifts will be posted on the call board. Failure to attend work calls will result in hours subtracted from your total hours.
8. Strike is mandatory for each student, for each production. Failure to attend strike may result in failure of this course.
9. All students are required to audition for every University Playhouse production. Failure to do so may result in failure of this course.
10. Students are required to crew each show. Crew positions will usually be based on your shop assignment. If you are cast in both shows, you will not be required to hold a crew position. Failure to crew a show may result in failure of this course.
11. Crew members must wear the approved crew shirt, black pants, and black shoes for all technical rehearsals and performances. Failure to dress appropriately will result in immediate removal from your position.
12. Each shop will administer benchmark skill tests throughout the semester. These tests are designed prove your abilities within each shop. Each test must be completed before the due date, although you may request a test earlier than the due date, if you feel you are prepared. You must schedule a test time with your shop supervisor. These tests are administered as pass/fail—you either know it, or you don’t. Failure to pass the benchmarks may result in failure of this course.

Benchmark #1 due by October 4
Benchmark #2 due by November 1
Benchmark #3 due by December 6

13. Minimum effort will result in minimum grades. To earn a higher grade, you must go above the minimum requirements (see grading scheme above).
14. Performance during the run of a production will affect your grade. The director, design team, and faculty have the right to replace any actor, designer, or crew member during the rehearsal and/or run of the show. This may be for attitude, work ethic, failure to meet deadlines, etc.
15. If you are fired from a cast or crew for any reason it will result in automatic failure of this class.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Each student is required to have a working email address that you will check daily. If you do not already have one, please make arrangement before the next class meeting.

It is recommended that students download a QR code reader to their smart phone or other device they will have during class time.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If at any time you feel that you need further instruction or explanation, please feel free to speak with me at your convenience. I have an open-door policy with all students. If you do not feel that you are getting what you need, either from the class, a supervisor, fellow students, etc. please let me know. I cannot help you find a solution if I don't know that there is a problem.

If you are asked to perform a duty or use a new tool with which you are unfamiliar, please inform your supervisor immediately so that you can be instructed in safe and proper execution. Students of all skill level will be working together, and we do not expect you to know everything from the onset.

COURSE PROCEDURES

Once assigned to a shop, the student will receive more specific instructions regarding the safety procedures and policies set in place by local, federal, and university governments. The student will also receive training specific to the functions within said shop, and are expected to perform these duties as instructed by supervisors.

ATTENDANCE IS MANDATORY! You are expected to be actively engaged in projects while you are clocked in. Breaks are observed. However excessive breaks, texting, working on outside work (homework, personal projects, etc.), sleeping, social media, lack of participation, etc. will result in removal of the class for the day and docked hours (in addition to the hours lost for leaving).

If you report to work, rehearsal, etc. under the influence you will be removed immediately and referred to the department head for appropriate disciplinary action.

UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES

Student Disability Services: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
