COURSE DESCRIPTION

Catalogue Description of the Course

516. Basic Skills. Three semester hours.

Provides the foundation for all practicum and internship experiences. Students learn communication and interpersonal skills under faculty supervision. Demonstration of these skills is a prerequisite for enrollment in practicum (COUN 551). Students will examine their intrapersonal issues and interpersonal styles and will follow ACA Ethical Standards.

Prerequisites: Application form returned to department several months before actual enrollment in this course (check department for availability and due dates), COUN 501, 510, and completion of or current enrollment in COUN 528.

General Course Information

The purpose of Pre-Practicum is to provide continued acquisition of counseling skills. Supervised application of a number of interviewing skills is the primary focus. Students can expect to examine their intrapersonal issues and concerns. They should be able to demonstrate the ability to express and understand their own personal dynamics and development, including strengths, sensitivities, defenses and limitations. A grade of “B” or higher must be earned in COUN 501, 510, 528, and 516 for admission to candidacy status (or its equivalent for those seeking school counselor certification only). Completion of these requirements is mandatory before enrollment in practicum (COUN 551).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class, you will utilize the Learning Management System (LMS) entitled D2L for portions of instructional and learning methods and submitting assignments. You will need to utilize other technologies such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, etc. If you have issues with this system, it is your responsibility to contact the help desk immediately.

Instructional Methods

This course consists of lecture and didactic learning methods, small group discussions, and in-class assignments, videotaping and reviewing, coupled with experiential learning and practical application. Self-reflection, self-evaluation, and offering and receiving feedback are also important instructional methods in this course. In addition to this, small lecture, discussion, activities, and workshops may be utilized during this course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

Client Role

You will be in a client role and in a counselor role in different role-plays and activities in this course. These roles are essential and mandatory to your learning, demonstration, and assessment of basic counseling skills. If you are not prepared to engage in these roles, you are recommended to drop this course, as it will negatively influence your grade. What you share in these role-plays (or real-plays) is entirely up to you and your comfort level. As such, all students are held to the highest privacy and confidentiality standards and must abide by the current ACA code of ethics. You have the right and personal responsibility to share only as deeply as you want. At the same time, if you find yourself not wishing to engage in these exercises, you may prefer to drop the course.

Confidentiality and Ethics

In this course, you are entering an experience that involves a fair amount of role-playing and practice interviewing. Naturally, in the course of discussion, it is possible for a student colleague to say something personally important and confidential. It is your duty to maintain confidentiality. Confidentiality is extremely important to the integrity of this course, enrolling in this course carries with it the responsibility to maintain confidentiality. Confidentiality cannot be guaranteed in any situation, but we are collectively accountable to maintain a safe, trusting environment throughout the course including experiential activities, and in-class conversations. While it can be compelling to share personal information about class members with others, all students are bound by the ACA ethical code of confidentiality with respect to any material shared by other members of the class. The disclosure of personal information to anyone outside this class would be considered unethical and you will face consequences for disclosing it to non-class members. Please explore any concerns you have about confidentiality during class time, after class, or via private communication with the instructor.

When students demonstrate personal limitations that might impede future performance, or consciously violate ethical standards, and are ineffective and harmful to clients, then these students will not receive the instructor's endorsement to continue with the program. (ACA Ethical Standards)

Personal Counseling Requirements

All students are required to participate as a client in personal counseling (see Student Handbook).

- For students admitted to the program before Fall 2017, 6 personal counseling sessions must be completed prior to enrollment in COUN 551: Practicum.
- For students admitted in FALL 2017 or later, 10 personal counseling sessions must be completed as a requirement in this 516 course. Failure to do so may result in a grade of “F” Failure or “X” Incomplete.

This personal counseling requirement may be completed at no cost to the student at one of the department-operated clinics (CHEC, Mesquite). Students may, at their own expense, complete this requirement with a counselor not associated with A&M-Commerce. Evidence of completion of this requirement is achieved by providing a signed letter from the counselor, preferably on letterhead, stating simply that the student has completed the required number of sessions.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible for the active learning process. Expectations of this course include the following:

1. You are expected to display professionalism at all times. Be respectful to your professor and peers. Be open to feedback, as you will receive this throughout the program.
2. Prepare for classes. Complete any and all readings prior to class time.
3. Complete all assignments by the deadline.
4. Adhere to the university student code of conduct.
5. Participate. During face-to-face classes, you are expected to actively participate in all activities and discussion. In the online format, you are expected to participate in all online discussions/activities. This is crucial to your learning.
6. All writing assignments must be done according to APA 6th edition.
7. Regularly check your University email. My suggestion is to check it at least once a day as your instructors and others from the department and University may contact you.
8. Begin your readings ASAP. Sometimes it may take more than one attempt to digest the material.
9. Deadlines are the last possible moment something is due—not the first moment to start. Work ahead. I realize this may not always be possible; however, when you can do so.
10. Be open to the process. This degree takes time, work, effort, and growth.

Assignments/Assessments

*Note. All assignments are to be submitted in D2L

1. Class Participation & Attendance (30 points)

Due to the nature of this class, attendance and participation are essential. Participation is credited to all activities related to this course. Please be aware that being consistently late to class can also constitute as an absence, particularly when a pattern of lateness emerges without justification. As this is a vital clinical course, two (2) absences may result in your final grade being reduced one grade level. Three (3) absences or more may require you to repeat this course for credit. Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of key concepts through class discussions and in-class activities. Regular attendance, arriving to class on time, and reading the materials before class are expected. You are encouraged to actively participate in and out of class. Do not expect/rely on class lecture for your learning. This class requires you to be an active and critical thinker, to share your thoughts respectfully, to engage with the material honestly and openly, and to participate in role-playing and skills practice both inside and outside of class. This course is the foundational course for facilitating your counseling skills; thus, attending, participating, and experiential learning within and outside of the classroom are crucial.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

You will have many opportunities to contribute to the total learning experience through attendance, discussion, and assigned activities.

The following criteria will be used to determine participation & attendance points:

Class Participation & Attendance Rubric

3 – Exceeds Expectations (27-30 points)

Proactive participation: leading, originating, informing, challenging contributions that reflect in-depth study, thought, and analysis of the topic under consideration. This does not mean dominating discussion or self-disclosure inappropriate to the circumstances. No more than one absence/no evident pattern of lateness

2 – Meets Expectations (24 – 26 points)

Reactive participation: supportive, follow-up contributions that are relevant and of value, but rely on the leadership and study of others, or reflect opinion/personal self-disclosure rather than study, contemplation, synthesis, and evaluation. Two or less absences/no evident pattern of lateness. Student attended another department equivalent class to meet supervision requirement due to excused absence.

1 – Does Not Meet Expectations (0-25 points)

Passive participation: present, awake, alert, attentive, but not actively involved or invested; Or Uninvolved: absent, present but not attentive, sleeping, texting/surfing, irrelevant contributions. More than two absences/pattern of lateness evident

2. Taping Role-Play & Session Analysis (3 tapes & 3 analyses; 150 total points; 50 points each). Each student is required to participate in a long-term counselor-client role-play practice relationship, both as counselor and as client, outside of class time. Students are expected to meet weekly (outside of class time) to practice their counseling skills with each other and video record the sessions. From these weekly sessions, students are to submit three (3) video recorded counseling sessions (minimum 30 minutes in length) along with a session analysis for each, which will include identification of the specific skills used and reflection on the use of those skills. Include reflective comments of not only on growth areas but also strengths.

Counseling skills learned throughout this course will consist of attending and exploring skills, understanding skills, action skills, and professionalism skills, all of which will be practiced throughout this course, with a goal of them being evidence in your role-play tapes and session analyses.

Each session analysis will consist of you reflecting on your personal experience as the counselor, how you as the counselor impact your client, and the skills used in session. Note that each session analysis must correspond to the particular video submitted. See

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

Appendix A for outline of session analysis. The assignment must adhere to the APA 6th edition standards, utilize headings provided in the outline (see Appendix A), be a minimum of three (3) pages—with a maximum of five (5) pages in length (double-spaced, excluding title page), and include a title page. See Rubric below for grading details.

Please note the following:

- Each of the three (3) sessions should begin with confidentiality. In each role-play you must review confidentiality at the beginning of the session.
- Students are required to provide their own recordable DVD or digital video recording device to complete these tapes. (The following types of recordable DVDs will work: DVD+R, DVD+RW, DVD-R and DVD-RW).
- Depending on class size, there may be three (3) people to a group—one as counselor, one as client, and one as observer (rotating). If used, the observer is to provide objective feedback to the others.
- Please turn in your session analysis in D2L, and place your DVD/media storage device in an envelope with your first and last name.

4. Counseling Student Competency Evaluation (CSCE)

The Counseling Program is obligated by professional ethics (see ACA Code of Ethics, 2014) and University procedure to assess students as to their potential for meeting the expectations of professional practice in the professional counseling field. The competencies outlined in this document (CSCE) are specific to professional counseling and are in addition to academic requirements. The Counseling Program may suspend from the program any students judged incapable of meeting these expectations. Procedures regarding potential dismissal are outlined in the Program's Retention/Dismissal Procedure.

The CSCE may be used by any faculty member with any student enrolled in a Counseling course to provide that student with feedback regarding their potential for meeting the expectations of the professional counseling field and the Department. Completion of a CSCE is required in the following courses: COUN 551, COUN 552, COUN 620, and COUN 660 (i.e., Clinical Supervision, Advanced Practicum, Advanced Internship, Advanced Supervision, Advanced Teaching). The course instructor in COUN 516 and COUN 548 may choose to implement the CSCE at his/her discretion. Each use of the CSCE must be placed in the student's Department file along with any remediation plan developed by the faculty in conference with the student.

The Counseling Program has elected to use the CSCE to monitor student's progress in professional practice. As a requirement in this course, a final CSCE evaluation will be completed by the course instructor, in consultation with the student, to assess your professionalism, general competency, social and emotional maturity, integrity and ethical conduct, and clinical competency. Please note that the instructor of the course may choose to administer the CSCE at different time intervals throughout the semester (e.g., initial, mid) at his/her discretion. The CSCE can yield an overall average composite score or an average subscale score for each domain. The Department utilizes both overall average composite score and average subscale scores to monitor students' professional practice. See rubric below.

Counseling Student Competency Evaluation (CSCE) Rubric

		1- Does Not Meet Expectations	2 - Meets Expectations	3 - Exceed Expectations

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

90%-100%	A
80%-89%	B
70%-79%	C
60%-69%	D
< 59%	F

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

Assignment/Assessment	Point Value
Class Participation & Attendance	30
Personal Reflection Paper	60
Three Taping Role-Plays & Session Analyses (40 points each)	150
CSCE	0

Total points possible = 240 for this course.

Your Final Grade is determined by adding the point values earned from each assignment and then dividing by 240. The resulting value is multiplied by 100 to yield a percentage. For example: $(210 [\text{points earned}] / 240) \times 100 = 87.5\%$

Browser support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products.
