COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Please contact you instructor with any questions you may have. Your instructor's communication preference is e-mail, and her address is: Rachel.huddleston@tamuc.edu. Also, each instructor in the department of literature and languages is required to keep at least three office hours per course per week.

Grievance Procedure:

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with the Director of Writing, Dr. Jessica Pauszek, by emailing her. Before an appointment is scheduled the student must provide clearly documented and explained issues as to why the meeting is being requested. The student must also state when they discussed the issue in person or via phone (not email!) with their instructor already.

Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 (“Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation”).

Departmental Chain of Command for ENG 100/1301/1302 courses: Instructor -> Dr. Jessica Pauszek, Director of Writing -> Dr. Karen Roggenkamp, Assistant Department Head or Dr. Hunter Hayes, Department Head

Collection of Data for Measuring Institutional Effectiveness

In order to measure the level of compliance with the university’s Institutional Effectiveness guidelines, throughout the semester, I will collect some of the ungraded texts you produce. The texts will be part of a portfolio created on your behalf and will be measured to ensure that our program “promotes practices that result in higher student academic achievement; an enhanced student experience; aligned and transparent decisions; and readily available information for improvement, accountability, and accreditation” (see “Department of Institutional Effectiveness,” <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutus/institutionalEffectiveness/default.aspx>). This is solely an assessment of program effectiveness and in no way affects students’ course grades or GPAs.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:

Attendance Policy

Attendance itself will not be a part of your grade. However, please notice that there are daily in-class writing assignments or quizzes that take will place within the first ten minutes of class. These assignments count towards your participation grade (10% of your grade overall). Repeated absences will impact both the attendance and participation grades for the course. Furthermore, announced changes to the syllabus will be made in-class as needed. If you’re not in class, you won’t hear these announcements. Excused absences (documented illness or emergency, University events, military requirements) carry no penalty.

Technology Policy

Laptops or tablets are allowed in class for the purpose of note taking and partaking in class. Unless strictly stated, cell phones are not to be used in class; however, I understand that things happen—if you need your phone on you for some reason (such as a family emergency or an important phone call), please let me know before class begins.

Phone use in class is subject to a forfeiture of attendance and participation for the day. Headphones/Airpods are not to be worn during class.

Late Work

Papers are accepted via D2L ONLY (email or Google doc links will not be accepted) on the day they are listed due on the syllabus. Late papers are subject to a 12 point per day penalty, unless an extension has been granted. Extensions must be asked for prior to any due dates. Any revisions/rewrites do not recover points lost due to late submissions. For daily writing assignments and in-class activities, late work will not be accepted, since you have to be present and in class in order to receive the grade.

Revisions/Rewrites

Paper feedback will indicate areas of potential improvement. If time permits, you may submit a revision of the paper integrating the feedback for an increased grade up to one week after the initial paper is returned. This is applicable to all assignments except the final project.

Academic Honesty/ Plagiarism

The official departmental policy: “Instructors in the Department of Literature and Languages do not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Instructors uphold and support the highest academic standards, and students are expected to do likewise. Penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion. (Texas A&M University-Commerce Code of Student Conduct 5.b [1,2,3])

If you ever have any questions about a particular use of a source, always ask your instructor. They want you to avoid plagiarism, too, so they will help you do so whenever and wherever they can. Do what you can to take advantage of this support—to look innocent in addition to being innocent when it comes to charges of plagiarism.

Students guilty of academic dishonesty of plagiarism can expect to fail the assignment in question or the entire course depending on the nature of the incident.

On University-Sanctioned Activities

To accommodate students who participate in university-sanctioned activities, the First-Year Composition Program offers sections of this course at various times of the day and week. If you think that this course may conflict with a university-sanctioned activity in which you are involved--athletics, etc.--please see your instructor after class on the first day.
