Course Description

ENG 1302 - GLB/US-Written Argument/Research

Hours: 3

This course provides students with advanced training in communication skills emphasizing the writing and reading of argumentative prose and adapting writing to alternate audiences. Students will write weekly, including such texts as journals, reading response logs, summaries of argumentative texts, argumentative papers, and longer papers integrating secondary research. Activities include close reading of sample texts, both student and professional. Some sections will emphasize special topics in both reading and writing. Prerequisites: Grade of C or better in English 1301 or advanced placement or CLEP.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

(critical thinking, communication, teamwork, and personal responsibility)

1. Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Students will be able to work together toward a shared purpose relevant to the course or discipline with a sense of shared responsibility for meeting that purpose.
4. Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
5. Students will be able to view themselves as engaged citizens within an interconnected and diverse world.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint and/or Prezi

Instructional Methods

All sections except those labeled W in the section number are face-to-face classes that meet during each meeting time. Students may submit coursework on line in learning management system but all class meetings will be face-to-face as scheduled.

Online sections (those labeled W in the section number) meet exclusively in the learning management system.

Celebration of Student Writing

Date and location to be announced. The Celebration of Student Writing is an event held every semester where students enrolled in ENG 1302 demonstrate and show-off what they learned in their research projects. All sections of ENG 1302 are required to participate. You must create some kind of display with artifacts, visual elements, and information about what you learned in your research. The “celebration” will look like a science fair with rows of tables and projects displayed. Your participation in this event is mandatory. Plan to arrive approximately 20 minutes early to set up.

This assignment measures students’ critical thinking skills (Student Learning Outcome 1) and will be assessed for Core Curriculum Assessment for the University College every four years. The analysis of this assessment will not impact your grade.

This assignment also measures students’ oral and visual communication (Student Learning Outcome 2) and will be assessed for Core Curriculum Assessment for the University College every four years.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Quizzes/ In-class participation

Quizzes and participation activities will be given at the beginning or end of class (depending on the assignment). Please be sure to attend class in its entirety so as not to miss this work. Quizzes and in-class work will not be available after the assigned class time without prior arrangements. Extensions will only be issued on a case-by-case basis.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

- Flash drive or other means (dropbox.com account, for example) of storing digital versions of the essays and other written material you generate (always, always keep a backup of everything you turn in!)
- A valid, working email address that you check often (everyday)
- Regular internet access (additional readings available online)
- Access to a computer with a word processing program and a printer (assignments must be typed and printed)

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

Please contact your instructor with any questions you may have. Your instructor's communication preference is e-mail or text (see top of this syllabus), and his/her address is: andrea.miller@tamuc.edu. Also, each instructor in the department of literature and languages is required to keep at least three office hours per course per week.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement

The instructor's communication response time and feedback on assessments are stated clearly.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Attendance/Lateness, Late Work, Missed Exams and Quizzes and Extra Credit

Grievance Procedure

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with the Director of First-Year Writing, Dr. Jessica Pauszek.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 (“Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation”).

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Collection of Data for Measuring Institutional Effectiveness

In order to measure the level of compliance with the university’s Institutional Effectiveness guidelines, throughout the semester, I will collect some of the ungraded texts you produce. The texts will be part of a portfolio created on your behalf and will be measured to ensure that our program “promotes practices that result in higher student academic achievement; an enhanced student experience; aligned and transparent decisions; and readily available information for improvement, accountability, and accreditation” (see “Department of Institutional Effectiveness,” <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutus/institutionalEffectiveness/default.aspx>). This is solely an assessment of program effectiveness and in no way affects students’ course grades or GPAs.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

Tenets of Common Behavior statement: All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See current Student Guidebook);

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: Netiquette
<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

TAMUC Attendance

Attendance is imperative to success. Be on time and engaged in class for every session. However, if you must miss class, please let me know as soon as possible. Daily quizzes, in-class writings, and other engagement activities will count toward the overall grade in the course, so missing them in full or in part, could negatively affect your grade. Quizzes and other in-class assignments will not be available after the class session.

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage and Procedure 13.99.99.R0.01.
