Course Description

This course is a comprehensive study of the early childhood pedagogy, research and curriculum, including the area of instruction, experience, and list of materials. A special emphasis will be given to planning curriculum that will help make learning meaningful for young children. The focus will be on integrated curriculum, child-centered philosophy, the role of play, and attention to the individual child's needs and interest. Reflecting and supporting diversity in addition to utilizing assessment tools and processes will also be emphasized.

Student Learning Outcomes

Participation in this class will enable students to demonstrate:

1. To investigate theories and practices associated with the ECE curriculum.
2. To examine techniques used in the authentic assessment and evaluation of young children.
3. To create instructional material used to teach the curriculum.
4. To plan activities for an active hands-on approach to the curriculum.
5. To demonstrate methodology for teaching an integrated curriculum to young children.
6. To develop curriculum sensitive to cultural pluralism and children with special needs.

- The learner will be an active and engaged participant in discussion forums by analyzing, constructing/creating, and evaluating information presented within the textbook, external readings/resources, student research, and class activities.

- The learner will demonstrate an understanding of the methods used in education by creating appropriate curriculum, highlighting the technology employed, and the appropriateness and effectiveness in the study of early childhood education.

- The learner will also demonstrate understanding of the course materials through a mid-term and a final.
