The Psychology and Sociology of Diverse Populations
Course Syllabus: Spring, 2020

INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

Instructor: Rebecca Stephens

Office Location: Instructor will not be on campus this semester, but will be available to students via emails and phone conferences

Office Hours: I am not on-campus this semester however, so all meetings will be via email or on the phone. If you wish to have a phone meeting, then please email me with your request, along with a phone number where you can be reached, and the date and time when you would like for me to call you. I will then call you based on that information, or, if I am unavailable at that time, then I will email you in follow-up so that an alternate date/time can be arranged. I am generally available to be in touch with you on Mondays-Fridays, between the hours of 12noon - 4pm, and on Wednesday evenings between the hours of 6pm-8pm. Additional times may also be available.

You may also want to contact the Psychology Office in Commerce if you have any questions that they may be able to answer. Also, if you are having trouble reaching me for any reason (for example, if you do not have online access at any time), please call the office in Commerce and request that they call me to notify me. Speak with our departmental administrative coordinators, Marlina Fisk, in Binnion 201, phone number 903.886.5940; or, Nicole Jones, in Binnion 201, phone number 903.886.5631.

Office Phone: 903.886.5940

Ms. Jones and Ms. Fisk are the departmental administrative coordinators in the Psychology Department Office, and students are encouraged to call and visit with them about any questions or concerns. They are able to be in touch with the instructor if you have any emergencies or need to reach the instructor, but for any reason you are not able to email or get online.

University Email Address: Rebecca.Stephens@tamuc.edu

VERY IMPORTANT: Please put PSY310, Spring, 2020, and your name, in the subject line of ALL emails that are sent to me. Also be sure to include your first and last names at the end of every email. Please limit emails to course related content, and please do not put my email address on your mass email forwarding list ;)

Preferred Form of Communication: Email

Communication Response Time: Within 24 hours. If you do not hear back from me during that time, please re-send your email.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Additional materials will be distributed in class or made available on the course website.

Keep in mind the following: If you are considering purchasing an eText (electronic version of the textbook) only, you need to remember that our online eCollege quizzes are 'open book' quizzes, and you may not be able to access your etext while taking a quiz. You may need to have a printed version of the textbook if you wish to be able to access your textbook while taking a quiz.

VERY IMPORTANT NOTE: If, for whatever reason, you are unable to lease or purchase your required textbook (your own copy) AND HAVE IT IN YOUR POSSESSION before FRIDAY, January 24, 2020, you will need to drop Psy310 for the Spring, 2020 semester and take the course during a semester when you will be able to have the textbook at the start of the semester. You are expected to have the textbook on the first day of class, which is Monday, January 13, 2020, and you will be using it immediately. You MUST have it no later than 1/24/2019. If you are ordering a book from an online book seller, be sure to get a guaranteed DELIVERY DATE of 1/13/2020 or before; otherwise, purchase your book from one of our university bookstores so that you know that you will have it before 1/13/2020.

Software Required:

A word processing program such as Microsoft Office Word, or similar software enabling you to compose assignments and save/open files.

Required Materials:

Also, you need to purchase a spiral notebook with pockets or a 3-ring binder with pockets in which you write the notes that you take throughout the semester, and in which you can store documents/materials that you print from our course website.

Course Description

This course will examine the variables which affect the perceptions, beliefs, and behaviors of the microcultures which comprise our population. This course will include, but will not be limited to, culture as a function of socioeconomic status, religion, gender, language, age, exceptionality, geographical origins and ethnicity. Additionally, as a Global Course, this course will include information relating to these issues in a global context.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Global Course Designation:

This course is designated as a TAMU-C Global Course, as described in the TAMU-C Quality Effectiveness Plan. One overall goal of this course is to prepare students for an interconnected world. In this course, students will be expected to demonstrate knowledge of interconnectedness of global dynamics (e.g., issues, processes, trends, and systems). To demonstrate knowledge of interconnectedness of global dynamics, students will be asked to write a final paper that connects concepts presented in class to global issues.

Student Learning Outcomes

The following are the standard course objectives: The student is expected to be able to:

- 1) identify and explore educational and social assumptions, issues, and initiatives relating to cultural diversity;
- 2) apply information related to psychological and sociological research on diversity to decision-making and best practices in educational and other settings;
- 3) extend concepts learned in this course to global issues, and describe the relationship between domestic concepts of diversity (racial, ethnic, gender, sexual orientation, religious, language, geographical, socioeconomic status) and global issues such as population growth, economic systems, ecology and the climate, immigration, international and civil conflicts, terrorism, communication and technology, manufacturing and industrialization, weapons containment, etc.;
- 4) practice research methods using available electronic databases to seek and access research-based information relating to multicultural awareness; and,
- 5) develop writing skills using APA Writing Style, including the correct usage and formatting of APA Style citations and references.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system

Using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint

Using general Internet search engines (i.e. Google.com, Yahoo.com) to locate research related to topics

Accessing and using the Texas A&M University-Commerce Library electronic databases

Instructional Methods

Your course is delivered to you fully online, using the LMS (MyLeoOnline/D2L/Brightspace) instructional system that is available to you through Texas A&M University-Commerce. There are no on-campus meetings of this class. "LMS" refers to learning management system, and the names "MyLeoOnline", "D2L", and "Brightspace" are all names that refer to the one online learning management system that TAMU-C is currently using for all of its web-based courses. In this syllabus, you will see the LMS referred to as D2L or Brightspace or your LMS website.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

This is not a self-pace course. There is a very specific and scheduled format that you will follow for the course. All assignments and quizzes are to be completed according to the posted schedule. You are required to complete all assignments, quizzes, and other course requirements. You may not “skip” any assignments. Assignments that are submitted past the deadline dates that are listed in the MyLeoOnline topic assignment guidelines must still be submitted; however, they will be submitted for partial credit (half credit), or no credit if they are submitted very late.

You will need to sign online daily, seven days a week, to check your campus email. You will need to sign onto your course LMS website at least five days a week to work on your course. You may select which five days you sign on, but you need to sign on at least five days (or more, if you wish) each week.

So....

Monday through Sunday: Sign online and check your campus email every day.

Monday through Sunday: Sign onto our course LMS at least five days a week, and work on your Psy310 course, including composing your topic assignment posts; reading and reviewing the online lectures and any additional assigned materials, such as videos or assigned articles; reading classmates’ topic posts; as well as reading your assigned readings in your course textbook.

New topics may be posted once a week, or sometimes, twice a week; however, this schedule of posting topics may vary some at the instructor's discretion. Basically, you need to sign on daily (perhaps including weekends), and will be addressing new topics/discussions/assignments every several days or week. A more detailed day-by-day schedule appears later in this syllabus. Print out this syllabus and make several copies of the last page, which is the time line, so that you will know exactly what we are doing, and when we are doing it, throughout the semester. There is no reason to ever feel uninformed or ‘lost’ about your schedule of assignments, quizzes, and project.

Important note about weekends: You will not be required to sign on and do work for this class on weekends; however, depending upon your own personal schedule of work/school/home, you may choose to work on weekends. You will have the option to complete your weekly assignments before the weekend, or you will also be able to work on the weekends on your assignments. Assignments will generally be due at the end of each weekend, although this will vary some. Even if you do complete your assignments before the weekends, you will still need to sign online and check your emails on the weekends, so that, if I send out an email on a weekend, you will be able to read that in a timely manner.

All class components are completed online on our course website, or via email with other students and the instructor. There are no face-to-face class sessions, nor are students required to go to one of our campuses. Students are required to have access to a computer with internet access and email, and are required to have in their possession at all times the course textbook (purchase or lease). Students are expected to check the course website daily, Monday-Friday, and on weekends if you choose to do so, and are expected to check your email daily (every day). If students are unable to meet this requirement, then they are not able to be enrolled in this web-based section of the course. In general, you will not have assignments on the weekends; however, you will still need to sign online and check your campus email in case anything is communicated to you on the weekends (and it usually is). I realize that I am repeating this information several times, but it is very important, and I want to be clear about the requirement.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Attendance/Participation:

We cover a tremendous amount of information each week, therefore, participation at a high level is very critical to your performance in this course. ALL students are expected to be 100% active in participating throughout the course. You will not have the option of "going AWOL" for a few days. When it relates to attendance and participation, it's as simple (and demanding) as this:

- Check this website daily.
- Interact with your classmates and instructor frequently.
- Get your assignments done early and on time.
- If you are "absent"/not participating for a couple of days for an excused reason (see student handbook or instructor for detailed explanation of excused absences), you will be able to make up your work (daily participation assignment, projects, or exams). You will have to produce documentation for your excused absence, and make arrangements immediately upon missing class. You will have a few days to make up any missed work if it's an excused absence and approved by the instructor. Assignments, projects, or exams that are missed due to an unexcused absence may not be made up.
- If AT ANY POINT, the instructor perceives that you are not participating in full, then you may be dropped from the course. This can occur at any time during the semester, even if it's towards the end of the semester.

It is each student's responsibility to communicate honestly and frequently with the instructor about any circumstances that prevent the student from participating, and result in a temporary period of inactivity. Do NOT simply stop participating or drop out of the course. If you are not actively involved every day, it needs to be for reasons that are serious and cannot be avoided, and when that occurs, communicate immediately with your instructor by email (Rebecca.Stephens@tamuc.edu), or if you cannot access email, then call and speak with Ms. Fisk or Ms. Jones in the Dept of Psychology and Special Ed.

IMPORTANT NOTE: ALL STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE ALL ASSIGNMENTS, and ALL PARTS OF ALL ASSIGNMENTS, TO REMAIN ENROLLED IN PSY310! If you turn in an assignment after the stated deadline for that assignment, you will be submitting it for partial credit only, but it must still be submitted. Partial credit is better than a grade of zero. There are no assignments that are "optional". The sooner you submit the assignment after the deadline, the fewer points deducted for late submission. It is very important to submit every assignment before the stated deadline. If you are submitting an assignment more than a week after the original due date, then the assignment might not be accepted for any credit, and you will be at risk of being dropped from Psy310 for lack of participation. If you are submitting an assignment past the deadline, it is REALLY IMPORTANT to communicate with the instructor right away, at the point at which you realize that the assignment will be late, and then make arrangements for submitting it as soon as possible.

LAST DAY TO SUBMIT LATE ASSIGNMENTS FOR NO/PARTIAL CREDIT: Wednesday, April 29, 2020, before 11:59p.m.

Additional note about participation:

Please keep in mind that this is NOT a self-paced course. The course has been developed with a very specific, deliberate, and thought-filled schedule in place, and this schedule is designed to support your progress throughout the semester, as well as your in-depth learning of the material. It is VERY important that you stay in track with all of your assignments. Even if your participation becomes an issue for reasons that are "excused" by university guidelines, this does not mean that you are able to remain enrolled in the course. Excessive ‘absences’/lack of participation can result in being dropped from the class, whether those absences or excused or unexcused.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

All students must complete all course assignments, quizzes, and other course requirements. You may not “skip” any assignments. If you do not turn in your assignment by the due date, you will be required to turn it in late, and there is a significant penalty for late submission (50%). Be sure to turn in ALL assignments by the assignment deadlines. Assignment deadlines are listed on eCollege, in each topic’s Assignment Guidelines.

Tips for Success in the Course

- 1) Be sure to always read all of the emails that you receive from your instructor.
- 2) Keep a calendar in a location where you check it each day. On your calendar, write the course quiz dates and other topic assignment deadlines as you learn them each week.
- 3) Purchase a spiral notebook and keep it near your computer as you work. Take notes as you read online lectures. Take notes as you read your classmates' posts. No one can reasonably expect to keep all of the information and names and content in the memory--that would be a very poor study habit, and will keep you from doing well. Instead, use that spiral notebook as a study tool for success. Make notes as often as possible. Then, before and after each online session (an online session refers to each time you sign online), review what you have written in the spiral notebook, reminding yourself of what you have covered, posts to which you wish to respond, information that you have found on various course-related websites, etc. Your spiral notebook will then become a valuable resource for down the line as well...long after you have completed the course. If you pursue a career in teaching, then the spiral notebook is something to which you may refer for years to come.

More on Taking Notes : It is expected that ALL students will maintain a course spiral notebook containing notes that you take relating to all lectures, posts, etc. Maintain thorough notes that reflect the content of each lecture, and date each lecture. In addition to a critically important study aid, your notes provide documentation of your professional participation in this course.

- 4) Be sure to read all of the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) section in your Psy310 D2L website.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on a points system, with the following percentage scale determining your final semester grade:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The specific points system will be included in the final Course Syllabus that will be available on the first day of the semester.

Your semester grade will include three areas of assessment:

MyLeoOnline/D2L Weekly Topic Assignment and Response Posts

3 Quizzes

Final Paper (Psy310 Final Paper)

Assessments

Exams/quizzes will contain objective questions over material that is presented in the textbook and online lectures. Multiple choice format will be used. You will take your exams online, on our course website, and they will be timed exams. You will have a certain period of time in which you are able to take the exams, and you will have to complete the exam in the designated period. You will be able to use your textbooks when you take the exam; however, because the exams are timed, you will find that you MUST read and learn the material thoroughly prior to taking the exams, just as you would do for a closed-book exam in a face-to-face class.

If you try to take the exam without having read and studied the material, you will run out of time as you try to look up each answer. You will find that you will fail the exams if you try to do that (trust me, and those who have gone before you on this!). The requirement to read and study the material is the same for both web-based courses and face-to-face classes. Even though the quizzes are "open book", they will be challenging, and you will not have much time to answer each question. Don't make the mistake of ignoring this requirement (to complete the readings prior to each quiz), or you will find that you start the semester with a low grade, and that will impact your overall semester average.

For test security reasons, you will learn your score, however, you will not have access to the questions that you missed or the correct answers for those items that you missed on the quiz.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software. Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission, will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's/roommate's/family member's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Brightspace Support

Interaction with Instructor Statement

If you email instructor and do not receive an email response within 36 hours, most likely, your email was not received. Instructor will respond to all emails within a reasonable period of time.

- Communicate, communicate, and communicate. Email your instructor at Rebecca.Stephens@tamuc.edu whenever you have ANY problems, questions, concerns, or schedule conflicts. Please do not email instructor using any other email addresses. Use only the email address of Rebecca.Stephens@tamuc.edu to communicate with the instructor. Failure to communicate with your instructor can have very negative consequences. When you communicate with your instructor, you place her in a much better position to assist you, if it's possible to do so. When you do not communicate with her, she has no way to assist you.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Always read ALL of the emails that you receive from your course instructor, and be sure to read all of each email. It is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT that the student contact the course instructor in the event of any circumstances that prevent the student from participating fully. If you have any technical issues, as discussed elsewhere in this syllabus, it is important that you immediately contact the D2L/MyLeoOnline technical support and document your communication with them.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Attendance: The course attendance policy has been described in detail on Pages 6&7 of this Syllabus.

Late work: To remain enrolled in Psy310, all students must submit all assignments and all parts of all assignments. When an assignment is submitted past the deadline, it is being submitted for partial credit only, but it must still be submitted. Always email instructor upon submitting a late assignment to notify her that it has been posted.

No late Psy310 Final Papers will be accepted for any reason, excused or unexcused.

No late topic assignments will be accepted for partial credit after WEDNESDAY, April 29, 2020.

Missing an exam: The 3 quizzes must be taken on the dates on which they are scheduled. See the Course Syllabus time line on the last page to note the quiz dates. Make up quizzes will ONLY be administered to students who miss an exam for a university-approved reason (i.e. extreme illness requiring a visit to the doctor or hospital, death in the family, court-mandated appointment). Official documentation (i.e. doctor's or hospital note, funeral notice or obituary, court document) must be submitted to instructor before a make up quiz will be administered. If you miss a quiz, you are responsible for contacting the instructor on the day of or before the day of the quiz. Not feeling well, having a child who is not feeling well (except for extreme illness requiring doctor's visit, of course), having to work, having other course work or other course exams, forgetting to take the quiz, having technical or computer issues (always have a back up plan for computer and internet access), etc. are not university-approved reasons for missing a quiz, and a make up quiz will not be administered for these reasons.

Extra credit: "Extra credit" is not offered for Psy310. During the course of the semester, every student will have the opportunity to receive "bonus (or "freebie") points" for various assignments and on each quiz. BE SURE to follow very carefully each topic's assignment instructions and each quiz's instructions so that you will always know what you need to do to be eligible to receive the "Freebie" points that are offered throughout the semester! Please do not contact instructor to request individual extra credit assignments or opportunities over and beyond those that are made available to all students during the course of the semester.

Dropping or Withdrawing from Psy310:

The deadline to drop a course is FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 2020 (no refund).

The deadline to withdraw from all of your courses is Thursday, April 16, 2020. (To withdraw, one must withdraw from all courses.)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Contact the Registrar's Office to drop this or any class. Phone: 903.886.5068

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. A reasonable attempt will be made to communicate any changes.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty 13.99.99.R0.03

Instructor's Statement relating to Academic Integrity:

Academic Honesty and Integrity: I cannot emphasize the following enough or too much. Far too many students are "finding out the hard way" that instructors and the university are extremely serious about our policies relating to academic integrity and honesty, and this is true in both web-based and face-to-face classes. Each environment has its own set of security needs, and these are addressed by instructors in various ways. In the most simple of terms, NEVER engage in any behavior or practice that is dishonest or misleading in any way. You must ALWAYS do your work and only your own work. NEVER have another student do work for you and then present it as your own. NEVER agree to do another student's work, and NEVER do another student's work. NEVER copy information from an internet source or another source, online and otherwise, and present it as your own.

NEVER take an online quiz/exam with another student or individual present (in person or by phone, cell phone, online, or in any other way!). You must take your exams by yourself, alone. You are NEVER to be in communication with another person during the time when you take a test, by any means (in person, or by any other method). NEVER have another student take part or all of an online quiz/exam for you. You must always do your own work, no exceptions.

NEVER have another student complete a part or all of an assignment for you. This is academic dishonesty, and you will not only be removed from this course, you will have additional consequences in terms of your enrollment, etc. What most students do not understand, but are beginning to understand, is that web-based instructional technology is advancing at a rapid rate, and the instructional software/delivery systems (such as MyLeoOnline/D2L, what you are using right now) are VERY sophisticated in terms of being able to monitor student involvement, practices, etc. There are many "check systems" that exist within this learning environment, and therefore, you will want to take seriously the guidelines relating to academic honesty. This course is built so that, if you take your commitment to the course seriously, and read and study the required material, as well as participate in the online discussions and the Psy310 Final Paper endeavor, you should do very well in acquiring the information that you need not only to do well in this course, but also to prepare you for a career in teaching or elsewhere.

There is absolutely no room for unethical and unprofessional conduct in this class, and it will not be tolerated. Keep in mind that your quizzes in this course are open book, and therefore, you will be able to complete the exams on your own, with the help of your textbook (not another person!).

COURSE OUTLINE / CALENDAR

The complete course time line for the Spring, 2020 semester will be listed on a table on the last page of this syllabus, available to students the first day of class. This includes quiz dates, project due date, and weekly readings.

You will learn the deadlines for your weekly topic assignments in each MyLeoOnline topic's Assignment Guidelines in MyLeoOnline.

Please make multiple copies of the timeline on the last page of the syllabus so that you can have the hard copy available to you for reference on a daily basis. Refer to it each day, so that you will always know exactly what we are doing, and when we are doing it. Mysteries are not a good thing when it comes to planning your course work and quizzes this semester <grin>.
