Course Description

This course is an introduction to database systems and information management. It is designed to develop entry-level knowledge and skills in data modeling, design, and the representation of information in relational database systems. Structured Query Language and advanced features of relational database systems will be utilized to develop database applications. In addition, this course will include topics on the physical characteristics of databases, techniques for improving access to information, and improving performance and reliability with relational database systems.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

1. Install, configure, and interact with a relational database management system;

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

2. Describe and apply the components of the relational database model to database design;
3. Apply the Structured Query Language (SQL) for database definition and manipulation;
4. Utilize a database modeling technique for a single entity class, a one-to-one (1:1) relationship between entity classes, a one-to-many (1:M) relationship between entity classes, a many-to-many (M:M) relationship between entity classes;
5. Comprehend then implement web database programming fundamentals by developing an application program interface (API) to access and maintain a relational database;
6. Learn and implement the principles and concepts of information integrity, security and confidentiality;

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your Instructor.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

You can come to my office (JOUR218) at any time during office hours regarding any question about any topic, including the questions about this course. I can share my industry and research experiences with you. Other than face-to-face and classroom communications, the primary mode of asynchronous communication is email. My email address is mutlu.mete@tamuc.edu. Usually I email you using a tool in myLeoOnline, where I cannot see/edit your email address. The emails I send through the myLeoOnline go the email address you associated with myLeo system. It could be your @leo.tamuc.edu or other email address from other domains you selected (gmail, yahoo, outlook, etc.). In the first week of semester, I will email you and ensure that you receive this email to establish an electronic communication between you and me. I usually response students' emails in 24 hours. Please wait 24 hours to remind the issue again in the emails. My office number is 903-886-5497; however, the least preferred way of communication is phone calls because of untraceable nature of the actions. If need be, I can give you a phone call appointment to discuss a course issue.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Credit will be given for ONLY those exams, programs, and/or projects turned in no later than the deadline as announced by the instructor of this class, unless prior arrangement has been made with the instructor. Late programs / projects / assignments can or cannot gain partial credit. Credit for late programs / projects / assignments will be announced with the description of it. Assignments and projects will be posted in university's myLeoOnline communication system. Detailed information will be provided by the instructor. Students also should turn in their assignments through myLeoOnline portal. Each student is responsible for the content/instructions of email communications.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
