COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OUTCOMES

Students will become acquainted with the general historical development of art from the Prehistoric period to Contemporary Art. The course will introduce basic tools and terminology used in discussing artworks. We will explore art and artifact contextually – through culture, language, politics, and location, as well as techniques and production, to better begin to truly see and understand what makes this work so essential. We will look at the ways that art had introduced and developed technology, while illustrating the advances of civilization. This class will require students to discuss a number of images that represent the historical span of the course and to demonstrate the analytical skills necessary to communicate visual information. By the end of the course you should not only be able to discuss historically significant works of art, but also be acquainted with the characteristic features of the art and culture from major historical periods.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- understand definitions of important art and art historical terminology
- discuss and explain historically significant works of art
- analyze significant styles and movements within art history and including a variety of types of media
- enhance visual literacy and critical thinking skills

ASSESSMENT:

Students' ability to meet the course objectives and learning outcomes will be evaluated through written assignments, discussion posts, worksheets, projects, and essays.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

Carol Strickland, The Annotated Mona Lisa: A Crash Course in Art History from Prehistoric to Post Modern (Andrews McMeel Publishing, 3rd Edition, 2018)
ISBN: 1449482139.

WORKLOAD:

The rule of thumb for time required for course study and preparation each week for a face-to-face class or an online course during the spring and fall semesters is three times the number of credit hours (or 9 hours per week) for the course. If you find yourself unable to complete course requirements in a timely manner, refer to the University's withdrawal policy and the appropriate dates. Incomplete grades are only granted for extreme emergencies. Being "overloaded" either from other class assignments or job commitments are not considered to be emergency situations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:*

Participation: Each person is expected to be prepared for the class, which means having completed the reading and/or viewing the film screening and completed the assignments. Responding to classmates blog entries and discussions is a pivotal and key part of each of the assignments for the course.

Discussion: Each student will write numerous times to the discussion page for the class. There will be clear class prompts, with word counts for you to follow.

Book Essays: At various points throughout the class, you will be given questions asking you to respond to the reading. These will require you to develop your writing skills and respond to challenging and unique questions the readings present.

Study Guides: For each section of material covered you will produce a study guide, filled with the important facts and key information covered. You will focus on defining new terminology, and creating a document that summarizes the material.

Visual Essay Project:

At the end of the course, each student will create a document that compares a number of different images seen throughout the course and in their everyday life. Thoughtfully, the student will choose artwork and film/television stills to address a theme that they are interested in that aligns with the course material. Further, each student will respond to each of their classmates work.

Assignments will NOT be accepted over TWO DAYS late. For each class day late, the grade will be reduced by ½ a letter grade.

Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the school or local library, office service companies, an Internet cafe, or a bookstore, such as Barnes & Noble, etc.

STATEMENT ON ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ADA ELIGIBLE STUDENTS:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Office of Student Disability Resources and Services
Texas A&M University-Commerce, Gee Library, Room 132
Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835, Fax (903) 468-8148
StudentDisabilityServices@tamuc.edu

After contacting the Office of Student Disability Resources and Services, it is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor of what accommodations are needed IN ADVANCE of when they are needed (for example, if testing accommodations are necessary, please inform the instructor with appropriate documentation at LEAST one week before the test date).

EMAIL POLICY:

Email is the preferred form of communication, with a general response time of 24 hours during the week (do not expect replies over the weekend). For all emails sent, please include full name, student ID, and the class that you are attending. Do not send emails to myself and other professors at once, as each professor has different issues to address. You are allotted three absences for this course; plan accordingly and there is no need to contact me about unexcused absences that are incorporated into this allowance. For excused absences, you need to bring in a hard copy of appropriate documentation of your absence.

TEST AND GRADE POLICY:

Make-up exams will be administered only in instances of excused absences (and acceptable documentation) and may not be designed in the same format as the regularly-scheduled exam. When an excused absence causes a student to miss an exam, it is the student's responsibility to inform--or to have someone else notify--the instructor within 4 days of the exam. If permitted, these exams must be made up within two weeks of the scheduled date, at a time and place determined by the professor.

Assignments are due at the start of the class on the assigned date. Late work will only be accepted for one week after the due date, and the grade will be penalized. Concerning grade decisions, I will not discuss specific grades on ANY assignment or test the day it is returned. If you have concerns regarding a grade, email me within one week of receiving the assignment back clearly explaining why you think the assignment was addressed incorrectly. After the email is received, we will then set up an appointment to discuss the concern.
