COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

Designed to introduce the students to the principles and functions of the government of the United States, this course examines the principles underlying the development of the U.S. Constitution, and the opportunities and constraints imposed by and on the political system in the U.S. Topics will include the legislative, executive, and judicial branches. Federal bureaucratic agencies, federalism, political participation, national election process, public policy, and civil liberties and civil rights. In addition, the global forces that continue to shape our understanding of the relationship between the people and government will be addressed.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable)

1. Critical Thinking: Students will be able to differentiate between fact and opinion.
2. Communication: Student communication will be clear, purposeful, and make appropriate use of evidence, data and technology as applicable. In written, oral, and or/visual communication A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure
3. Personal Responsibility: Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4. Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate an understanding of societal and/or civic issues.

Application of Student Learning Outcomes

1. Explain the origin and development of constitutional democracy in the United States (Communication).
2. Demonstrate knowledge of the federal system (Communication).
3. Describe the concepts of separation of power and checks and balances, both in theory and in practice (Social Responsibility).
4. Demonstrate knowledge of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the federal government (Communication, Personal Responsibility)

5. Evaluate the role of public opinion, interest groups, and political parties in the political system (Critical Thinking, Personal Responsibility).
6. Analyze the election process (Critical Thinking).
7. Describe the rights and responsibilities of citizens.
8. Analyze issues and policies in U.S. politics (Critical Thinking, Social Responsibility)

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Browser Support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products. Customers can still report problems and receive support for critical issues; however, D2L does not guarantee all issues will be addressed. A maintenance browser becomes officially unsupported after one year.

Note the following:

- Ensure that your browser has JavaScript and Cookies enabled.
- For desktop systems, you must have Adobe Flash Player 10.1 or greater.
- The Brightspace Support features are now optimized for production environments when using the Google Chrome browser, Apple Safari browser, Microsoft Edge browser, Microsoft Internet Explorer browser, and Mozilla Firefox browsers.
