Overview of Course

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will provide the students with a generalist approach to theories, concepts and skills required to develop a methodology for writing and using technology in case management and social work practice in ever changing systems. A continuum of support systems and agency resources will be explored to allow the student to gain insight into the needs of agencies as practice based settings. The students will explore statistical basics, interdisciplinary collaborations and ethical dilemmas, as well as think critically about an array of political, social, institutional and personal issues affecting practice. These issues will be used to develop writing and technology skills that impact the student, employees and clients of Social Service Agencies. Prerequisites: Math 141, 175, or 179, 6 sh. In US Sciences, SWK 225, 250, and 275. Concurrent enrollment: SWK 322, 328, and 329. This course is restricted to social work majors.

COURSE OBJECTIVE(S):

While this course is an overview and assessment of the writing and research methods used by Social Workers, it will build a base for the practical application of the software packages most frequently used in social services agencies. The understanding of research methods and how they are used in developing practice, ethical and practical issues, data collection and preparation, analytical techniques, and introduction to the computer and computer software, and evaluation research are some of the topics to be covered.

This course is intended to introduce the student to the field of quantitative data analysis using appropriate descriptive and inferential statistical techniques and writing in the style of the American Psychological Association (APA). The course focuses on types of data that are found in contemporary Social Work research and practice.

Overcome the "fear of writing" many students have by gaining an understanding and appreciation of basic logical deductive principles involved in the analysis of content.

1. Know the information sources available in the library and other sources.
2. Understand and use the library to obtain information from various sources.
3. Develop an understanding of writing an academic paper using the writing style specified by the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association.
4. Develop and complete narrative/writing that is fact-based and rich with assessment based on clients strengths and needs.
5. Identify and apply social work values and professionalism.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES:

This course provides a foundation for writing competency needed in all other social coursework.

PROGRAM GOALS:

1. Prepare students for competent and effective generalist social work practice with diverse client systems.
2. Provide students with a foundation of knowledge for professional development, graduate education, and lifelong learning.
3. Develop student capability to improve human service delivery systems and promote social justice.
4. Socialize students to the profession of social work.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) requires a competency-based approach to identify and assess what students demonstrate in practice. In social work, this approach involves assessing students' ability to demonstrate the competencies identified in the educational policy. Students to achieve programmatic goals listed above, need to demonstrate the following ten competencies for generalist- level practice.

Competency 2.1.1 Identify as a professional social worker and conduct oneself accordingly

Competency 2.1.2 Apply social work ethical principles to guide professional practice

Competency 2.1.3 Apply Critical thinking to inform and communicate professional judgments

Competency 2.1.4 Engage diversity and difference in practice

Competency 2.1.5 Advance human rights and social and economic justice

Competency 2.1.6 Engage in research-informed practice and practice-informed research

Competency 2.1.7 Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment

Competency 2.1.8 Engage in policy practice to advance well-being and deliver services

Competency 2.1.9 Respond to contexts that shape practice

Competency 2.1.10 (a)-(d) Engages, assesses, intervenes and evaluates individual, families, groups, organizations, and communities

Practice Behaviors

Each competency (outlined above) describes the knowledge, values, skills and cognitive and affective processes that comprise the competency at the generalist level of practice. While content and activities of each course in the BSW curriculum covertly or overtly addresses each of the ten competencies, integrated into each course is a set of behaviors (practice behaviors) representing observable components of one for more competencies. Content and assessment in this course reflects the following practice behaviors:

2.1.3.3 Demonstrates effective oral communication in working with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities, and colleagues

2.1.3.4 Demonstrate effective written communication in working with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities and colleagues

IMPORTANT: A Laptop, tablet or smart phone with a word processor is required for every class during the semester. If you do not have any of these equipments, inform the instructor to make arrangements.

Other required readings or digital materials for each week/unit will be available in the corresponding weekly folder in Brightspace (D2L).

Teaching Philosophy: Team-based Learning

Much of what students learn in the classroom is through: the level of effort contributed by the individual (engagement), and the learning community that is created through shared ownership and contributions of the collective. This means that we come prepared to join in the classroom learning experience by having our readings and other work completed. We also take responsibility for completing assignments in a competent and timely manner. However, much more than this, it also means that we each take a shared responsibility for the growth and professional development of each of the individuals in our learning community.

Grounded on this perspective, this class is facilitated according to several pillars of the Team-based Learning (TBL) approach. In team-based learning, students are assigned strategically to a permanent team, which participate in discussions and application activities throughout the semester. (Note: team meetings might be necessary out of class time). TBL also encourages a mid-term and end of term course assessments as well as a self-examination and peer assessments.

Teams of 4-5 members are formed strategically considering students' assets and liabilities in relation to the course content. The number of students assigned to a team in this course will depend on the total of students registered. The team activities are designed to foster critical thinking and instructional engagement. The permanent team strategy creates a sense of belongingness and connectedness within team peers. It also offers the opportunity to learn together by learning about and from each other throughout the semester.

To guarantee an effective learning community, each team member will assess their peers and complete a self-examination on their performance at mid-term up to date. Each team will also assess the development of the course at this time. The same assessment process will be repeated at the end of the semester. Further details on team-based learning will be shared on the first day of class.

Overview of Course Assignments

SELF- IDENTIFICATION FORM

Students will complete a Self-Identification form on the first day of class. Students will state general information on their student status, availability, contact information and respond to questions on writing and technology skills.

WRITING EXERCISE (25 pts.)

Students will write a short reflection of 500 words on an assigned topic. The objective of this activity is to assess the strengths and areas of potential development of students writing skills.

SOLO ACTIVITIES (150 pts.)

Students will complete 8 activities individually over the semester. The solo activities will help students develop the Literature Review paper due at the end of the semester. Each activity is assigned a different value totaling 150 points.

TEAM ACTIVITIES (100 pts.)

Students will complete four activities in their assigned teams during class time. The majority of the team activities will prepare students for the Literature Review draft. Each activity is worth 25 points for a total of 100 points over the semester.

CHOOSING CIVILITY BOOK CLUB GATHERINGS (100 pts.)

Students will read Choosing civility: The twenty-five rules of considerate conduct. Teams will discuss the chapters and how they related to the NASW Code of Ethics. Teams will record and upload four book club meetings throughout the semester. Individual contributions to each discussion will be considered. Individual team members who do not engage in the discussion meetings will incur in a low grade. Meeting Recordings posted passed the due date will not be acknowledged. Further instructions will be provided in a rubric.

LITERATURE REVIEW (100 pts.)

Students will write an individual paper of 1,600 to 1,800-word count, providing current statistics and a review of the literature on a specific social issue/problem. This is an academic paper and the expectation is to complete the paper as such. The paper must follow APA style and format according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed.). Content, structure, and other specifications are provided in the assignment rubric.

PEER ASSESSMENTS (15 pts.)

Complete a Peer Assessment form for each team member at the end of the semester. Students may receive up to 15 points based on the average of all the evaluations received from team peers. If students do not submit the assessments on their peers, the said student will not receive their corresponding points. The assessment form is available in Brightspace for review. Students will also complete an assessment form to self-examining their performance in the team; however, this assessment will not be averaged to the peer assessment points received by peers.

MID AND FINAL TERM COURSE ASSESSMENTS (10 pts.)

At mid-term, students will share in their teams how they understand the course is developing and offer recommendations to build a stronger learning community. For example, what activities help them learn the material better, recommendations for the instructor and students. At the end of the semester, students will offer a general assessment of the course and offer recommendations for future semesters.

Assignments	Value
Self- Identification Form	-
Solo Activities (8 x points vary per activity)	150
Team Activities (in-class) (4 x 25pts.)	100

Literature Review Paper (Final Paper)	100
Team Peer Assessments	15
Mid and Final term course assessments (5 pts. each)	10
TOTAL POINTS	475
Engagement	100

The final grade is calculated:

Average of Individual & Team Activities/Assignments + Engagement Average / 2 = Course Grade.

Grading Scale

90-100% of points = A

80-89% of points = B

70-79% of points = C

60-69% of points = D

Student Rights and Responsibilities

---

"Civility in face-to-face classrooms, online courses and in labs, internships, practicum and all other academic settings necessitates respect for the opinions of others and is very important in all academic settings. It is likely you may not agree with everything that happens or discussed in the academic setting; however, courteous behavior and responses are expected. To create a civil and preserve learning environment that optimizes teaching and learning, all participants share a responsibility in creating a civil and non-disruptive forum" (Student Guide Book, p 35). To create an optimum learning environment, students have rights and responsibilities.

Student Rights

As set forth in Texas A&M University System Policy 13.02

The rights of students are to be respected. These rights include respect for personal feelings; freedom from indignity of any type, freedom from control by any person except as may be in accord with published rules of the system academic institutions, and conditions allowing them to make the best use of their time and talents toward the objectives, which brought them to the system academic institutions. No officer [university faculty, employee] or student, regardless of position in rank, shall violate those rights, any custom, tradition or rule.

Students are expected at all times to recognize constituted authority, to conform to the ordinary rules of good conduct, to be truthful, to respect the rights of others, to protect private and public property, and to make the best use of their time toward an education.

Students with Disabilities

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Students Responsibilities

Students' Engagement Policy

Class participation has three components:
appropriate interactions with classmates,
active involvement in-class activities, and attentiveness

Students will engage in class, reflecting responsibility, inherent in the development as a social work professional. Classroom exercises, discussions, role-plays, guest speakers and other in-class experimental exercises are essential for a student's professional learning and continued development of self-awareness.

To earn a level of competency within a specific course, students must demonstrate both mastery of content and active engagement. Mastery of content areas is evidenced by successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes, and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, the Social Work Profession is built upon human interactions and building human relationships – engagement. Engagement is defined as meaningful involvement in interactions with instructors, peers, outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment) among other possible venues. Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or Face-to-Face (F2F), students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities can include participation in a live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a F2F course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions and collaborating in interactive group projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and meet the threshold of active engagement 80% of the time during a semester. Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet for successful completion of the course.

As we enter the semester, we are all working under stresses and strains related to the COVID-19 pandemic. It is imperative that students communicate consistently and frequently with the instructor. If, for any reason, a student is not able to complete assignments or actively engage in the course, the student MUST reach-out to the instructor and let him or her know.

Final Evaluation and Grade Depends on both Course Engagement and Completion of Assignments

Inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both F2F classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material. One-half of the students' grades will be based on their level of engagement throughout the course.

Example:

Student A: earns 95% of possible points across the assignments

Student A: engaged in 75% of engagement activities provided throughout the course

Student A final grade:  $95\% + 75\% / 2 = 85\%$  (B) for the course.

Students will be provided with a Schedule of Engagement activities on or before the first day of class.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the University Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct and the National Association of Social Workers' (NASW) Code of Ethics.

The University Code of Conduct is located in the Student Guide Book, under Campus Life Documents (pp. 34-66) at:

<http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf>

To become aware of University policies related to student academic and behavioral expectations for students refer to the Guidebook.

Social Work Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or to the Department Head. More serious offences will be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p.35)

Social work students conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. Closely linked with professional recognition is the social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards. It is imperative for professional social workers to be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain the public trust. It is essential that each social work student gain a thorough understanding of the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate in behavior, both in and out of the classroom. Student conduct is to reflect the tenets of the NASW Code of Ethics located on the NASW website at <https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp>.

Campus Concealed Carry

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to: <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf> and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty

There is an expectation of maintaining high standards of integrity and honesty by all Social Work Graduate students at Texas A&M University-Commerce. Faculty and staff are expected to uphold and support student integrity and honesty by maintaining conditions that encourage and enforce academic honesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is academic dishonesty.

The School of Social Work follows University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty

<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/13students/undergraduates/13.99.99.R0.03UndergraduateAcademicDishonesty.pdf>

Students are expected to read and understand the University's Academic Dishonesty Policy.

The Office of the Provost documents and maintains a record of all incidents of academic dishonesty. Multiple incidents of academic dishonesty will result in a student's dismissal from the program and from the University.

A student who fails to meet the professional expectation of the field of Social Work may be suspended from further study by the School of Social Work (See Graduate School Catalog p.36)

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Browser support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products.
