COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Must be able to use Microsoft Word or other word processing software.

Instructional Methods

This is an online Competency Based Education (CBE) course. Learning activities include assorted reading and videos, quizzes, essays, and pre and posttests.

Pretest

The Pretest for this course assesses your knowledge of the historical development of the United States and North America from 1877. There are 100 points total (30 from multiple choice, 20 from short identification, and 50 for essays). You will need a score of 80 to be able to move directly to the posttest.

The purpose of the pretest is to provide a baseline understanding of your knowledge in this competency. The pretest is a required element of the course and must be completed before moving into Learning Outcomes (LO's) or Posttest.

Module Tests

Each module has the following types of questions to test your knowledge: multiple choice quiz, short identification questions, and essays.

Quiz

You need to complete a multiple choice quiz in each module. It is a great opportunity to review what you learned in each module.

Short Identification Questions

The short identification questions require a written response, using complete sentences and appropriate grammar and punctuation. It should be one to two paragraphs in length. It should include the Who, What, Where, When, How, Why of the item in the prompt, as The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

well as an explanation of its significance. Significance is the explanation of why it is worth knowing about, how it enhances our understanding of the past.

Essays

Essays require a long-form written response, using complete sentences and appropriate grammar and punctuation. Expect to write 500 to 750 words to fully answer the prompt. You will be expected to cite any sources and quotes you use (see Student Responsibilities and Tips below).

Assessment

Posttest

The posttest for this course assesses your knowledge of the historical development of the United States and North America from 1877. There are 100 points total (30 from multiple choice, 20 from short identification, and 50 for essays).

The posttest is an assessment of your knowledge of the material required for the competency. A score of 80 points or higher is required to demonstrate competency.

If you score less than 80 points, you will have an opportunity to review the material and re-take the competency posttest. You may take the posttest assessment up to three times. If you have not passed the competency in three attempts, you will work with an Academic Coach to determine another method of fulfilling the program requirements in this subject.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

To be successful in this course, the written assessments are critical. If you do not immediately pass the Post-Test, you will find everything you need to address the written assignments in the readings/videos for this course. Expect to spend 30 or more hours reading/listening (depending on your reading speed). You may use outside source material that you have access to, but be wary, not everything you find may be factual, reliable, and peer-reviewed. If you choose to use a quote, it should be short, no more than 2 lines. Regardless you must cite your sources. You may use any standard citation format you choose: APA, MLA, Chicago, or Turabian. If you are unfamiliar with any of these please utilize the sources provide by the University's Writing Center (<http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/humanitiessocialsciencesarts/departments/literatureLanguages/writingCenter/default.aspx>).

You will be expected to adhere to the standards of Academic Integrity of university and Department of History policy as linked below in the Academic Integrity subsection.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

B = 80%-89%

F = 70%-79% or Below

If the seven-week term ends and you do not complete all competencies, you will receive a grade of "F" and be required to complete the remaining competencies in the next term.
