COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students must be enrolled in applied voice lessons, and they must be willing to take the time to write clearly with neat penmanship. An understanding of the International Phonetic Alphabet is required for success in this course. A basic understanding of D2L is required to be successful in this course, as it has transitioned to an online format due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Instructional Methods

Students are required to purchase a copy of Cheri Montgomery's German Lyric Diction Workbook. A major part of the course will be centered on mastering the material within the workbook. We will be holding class via Zoom conference, and the course will begin primarily lecture based. Eventually, students will be required to submit video recordings of themselves singing their German repertoire, which will be watched by the class and evaluated by the instructor. Assignments will be submitted through D2L.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Classroom Etiquette:

The majority of our work in class will stem from information in Cheri Montgomery's book. Please have the book with you at every Zoom lecture. Diction is a complex subject, as it requires an understanding of phonetic sounds. Due to the complexity of the subject's nature, unnecessary or distracting use of electronic devices including tablets, laptops, and cell phones will not be tolerated. Generally, it is requested that you do not use your cell phones during a Zoom lecture. Please refrain from using distracting "virtual backgrounds" during course lectures, and mute your microphone upon entering the Zoom lecture, unless otherwise instructed.

Etiquette/Procedure for Recording Submissions:

On coaching/performance days, singers will be assigned to submit a high quality video recording which will be coached/viewed on Zoom. All students are required to attend and actively participate/remain engaged in their colleagues' performances. Please note that this is not a time to complete work for other classes or do work on your computer. It is important that we create an encouraging and supportive environment.

On YOUR assigned Singing Day:

Students must record and submit a high quality video recording of their song/aria at least 24 hours in advance of their assigned day to "sing in class." Please treat this like a true "in-class" performance: wear appropriate attire (jury/professional attire) and test out the balance between the accompaniment and your voice to be sure that both are clearly audible. At the beginning of your video, clearly announce your name, your song or aria and the composer. Additionally, before you sing, you will read your text (in character, dramatically) as a poem. I cannot stress enough to be sure that your recordings are high quality, and that they are something you feel confident in and proud of.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Your final grade will be based on the following:

Extenuating circumstances must be communicated to the instructor in a timely manner. In the case of absence, it is the student's responsibility to find out what he or she missed. Weekly language podcasts and various other listening assignments will be announced at the professor's discretion.
- 2.) Quizzes – 20%

- 4.) Assignments – 30%
Assignments will include IPA transcriptions, composer presentations, and listening assignments.
- 5.) Final Exam – 15%
