Lepore, Jill. The Secret History of Wonder Woman (2014)

Course Description

A broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America from 1865. Note: Assignments will focus on reading, writing, and analysis. Prerequisites: ENG 1301 or concurrent enrollment or ENG 1302 or concurrent enrollment.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose, and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students must possess the skills necessary to update and utilize reliable computer and internet access. Access to an alternate location (TAMUC Gee Library, local public library, etc) in the event of technical difficulties. It is recommended that students acquire a local library card now so you are prepared for the semester if you are a remote student and do not have access to Gee Library. Students need to be familiar with Microsoft Office and navigating Brightspace.

Instructional Methods

Participation in group discussions, reading quizzes, writing assignments, and exams are utilized to help students learn to recognize and summarize primary sources. With that in mind, students will explore the historical causes and their effects of U.S. history since 1865. Methods used in this course are primarily reading and writing about these events. Each student will learn from assignments how to effectively identify and communicate the central argument of the materials and construct college level responses.

INTEGRAL TO THE INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS UTILIZED; READ AND ADHERE TO THE FOLLOWING POLICY:

Online courses offer a chance for developing a rich learning community where wonderfully diverse people from a kaleidoscope of backgrounds come together to share and learn from one another. Respecting the opinions of others and allowing for a safe space to explore the events of history is paramount to learning in such a platform.

Students should expect to encounter differing opinions and multiple perspectives. Respectful, healthy discussions that utilize evidence to support discussions with multiple viewpoints are the beauty of such a course as this. However, aggressive or hostile language directed at anyone in the learning community will not be tolerated and will be reported to necessary University entities. Rest assured that appropriate measures will be taken to protect the safe learning space were all are welcome and included. Thank you in advance for remembering that an online class platform is nothing like other social media sites and usual classroom discussions are expected with all assignments.

Student Responsibilities and Tips for Success in the Course

As this is an online class, it is strongly suggested that students spend the first few days familiarizing themselves with the structure of the course and the online components. Students enjoy a higher degree of success in online courses when deadlines, details, and requirements are observed. It is strongly recommended that students print off a copy of the syllabus and refer to it daily. Likewise, it is recommended that important dates and deadlines are recorded in a calendar, set alarms/alerts on mobile devices, or personal calendar, especially the last section of the syllabus which is titled: "COURSE OUTLINE/CALENDAR."

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

Assessments

Detailed instructions for the two (2) exams, the Wonder Woman paper, the five (5) Historical Context Assignments and Geographic Cartography/Story Map assignment are posted within the online course shell. Exams are essays that require citations based on the chapters and other readings. Due dates for all assessments are found in the syllabus calendar below and on the online course shell.

One writing assignment over The Secret History of Wonder Woman by Lepore will be due in the last weeks of the semester. Details regarding this assignment can be found in Assignments section of MyLeo and more instructions will come in class as we move closer to this assignment.

One Geographic Cartography assignment is the Final Exam for this Course. Instructions for this assignment are available on MyLeo.

Preparation and engagement are practiced using the Historical Context Assignments. These will happen throughout the semester and are useful for learners in preparation for their academic success on exams and other writing assignments. Instructions are found in MyLeo, including formats and requirements. All aspects of these required activities must be submitted by Friday on the week they are assigned and are due by 7:00 pm. Postings made after the deadline receive no points.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your Instructor.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Technical Support

If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here:

<https://community.brightspace.com/support/s/contactsupport>

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Since this is a fully online course, interactions between students and instructor will take place via email, discussion boards, and through comments dealing with written assignments. Students can expect timely communications from the instructor, usually within 24 hours. Faster response times to queries can be expected during normal weekday business hours.

Please note: Sufficient time is provided to allow students to plan well in advance to ask questions for any upcoming assignments. Consequently, students should not expect immediate responses from any emails time-stamped in the desperate moments just prior an important deadline. Barring some kind of crazy insomnia on my part, students emailing me in the wee hours of the morning can expect a response the next day.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies
