COURSE INFORMATION

Materials

Locke, Joseph and Ben Wright, eds. The American Yawp. <http://www.americanyawp.com/>
Additional, free sources will be assigned from the internet.

Course Description:

A broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America to 1877. Assignments will focus on reading, writing, and analysis. Prerequisites: ENG 1301 or concurrent enrollment or ENG 1302 or concurrent enrollment.

Student Learning Objectives:

Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.

In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.

Students will understand and practice academic honesty.

Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.

Course Objectives:

1. Analyze how the pursuit of economic, social, and religious liberty led to the colonization of the Americas and the impact it had on the liberty of American Indians and Africans;

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

2. Contrast the concepts of liberty in the colonial societies of New England and the Chesapeake;
3. Analyze how a lack of political and economic liberty led to the American Revolution, the creation of the Constitution, and an evolving democracy that expanded liberty to more Americans;
4. Contrast how westward expansion expanded economic liberty for white Americans, while empowering the expansion of slavery.
5. Contrast the arguments for and against slavery and the expansion of slavery through the Civil War and Reconstruction

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Student Responsibility Sheet:

The Student Responsibility Sheet will be issued and returned during the first week of class. The purpose of the Student Responsibility Sheet is to assess the student's role in their education. It will be assigned through the D2L portal.

Absence Policy:

Absences will not count against student grades. However, attendance, whether in-person or online, is expected in order to do well in the course.

For more information about the attendance policy please visit the Attendance webpage and Procedure 13.99.99.R0.01.

<http://www.tamuc.edu/admissions/registrar/generalInformation/attendance.aspx>

<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/13students/academic/13.99.99.R0.01.pdf>

Instructional Methods:

Students must log into their MyLeo account and access the class through the D2L portal using their CWID. The CWID is the student's campus-wide identification number that they should have received when they were accepted to the university. If students have trouble logging in, they should contact the tech support listed on the login page. The instructor is not tech support.

In the D2L portal, students will find materials posted for each class session. Students will use the lecture notes to answer the assigned lecture questions. Students will read primary sources, read news articles, and/or watch news clips and compare them to the lecture notes.

The class will meet virtually in Zoom or in person during the scheduled class times to discuss the material assigned for that class day.

Exams:

Students will complete four multiple choice exams during the semester. The exam questions will come from the lecture questions provided for each class session. The exams are not cumulative. The exams will be completed in the D2L portal. The exams will have 50 questions each. Students will have up to 60 minutes to complete Exams 1-3. Students will have 120 minutes for Exam 4, since it occurs during finals week. The due dates for the exams are listed in the course outline at the end of the syllabus. No late exams will be accepted.

Response Papers:

Students will complete four 300 word response papers that connect the primary source readings, news readings, and news videos to the lecture notes. The response papers will be submitted through the D2L portal as a PDF file. The due dates for the response papers are listed in the course outline at the end of the syllabus. No late submissions will be accepted.

Biographical Essay:

One biographical essay will be assigned for this course. Students will choose one historical figure from the time frame of the course and write a three to five page essay that argues why that person is important in studying American history. The essay must focus on the impact of the individual and contain valid arguments backed up by research cited according to the Works Cited handout. All components of the essay, except the topic, will be submitted through D2L as a PDF file. Submission dates are listed in the course outline. Guidelines for the topic, bibliography, rough draft, and final draft will appear on supplementary handouts. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Grade Breakdown:

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products. Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products. Customers can still report problems and receive support for critical issues; however, D2L does not guarantee all issues will be addressed. A maintenance browser becomes officially unsupported after one year.

Note the following:

- Ensure that your browser has JavaScript and Cookies enabled.
- For desktop systems, you must have Adobe Flash Player 10.1 or greater.
- The Brightspace Support features are now optimized for production environments when using the Google Chrome browser, Apple Safari browser, Microsoft Edge browser, Microsoft Internet Explorer browser, and Mozilla Firefox browsers.
