Course Description

New trends in the historical profession increasingly require that graduate students have experience producing research prepared for conference paper delivery or publication.

This course will provide students guidance in using their thesis research in the preparation of a conference paper and/or for proposed publication in an academic journal or anthology. Students in the course will be required to propose the paper to an academic conference or submit the article to an academic journal or anthology call for papers for consideration. This course will meet regularly, and is for students who are on the MA/MS thesis track for a master's in history. Prerequisites: HIST 590, HIST 591 and pass the History Department Qualifying Examination prior to enrollment.

Student Learning Outcome

By the end of the semester, students should be able to produce high-quality writing that conforms to the norms and conventions of the historical profession.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

For each writing workshop meeting, students will submit a writing sample from their thesis, thesis proposal, or connected writing of at least 4-6 pages, including footnotes. At least once, students must submit a revision of a previous submission. Resubmissions of material without revision will not be accepted. Progress must be demonstrated with each submission. Each student will prepare detailed comments for each of their peers' submissions, including sentence-level comments (draw on Stylish Academic Writing) and conceptual-level thoughts. Students will also review and comment on standards of professional ethics in our field.

At the end of the semester, students will produce a self-assessment of 2-3 pages that details their contributions to the class and the benefit they received from it.

Your participation grade will be based on your engagement in our class discussions and be guided by the following rubric:

- A = Always prepared, frequently participates, rarely absent
- B = Always prepared, participates only when called on, rarely absent
- C = Usually prepared, rarely speaks, rarely absent
- D = Often unprepared, several absences
- F = Usually unprepared, frequent absences

All writing workshop submissions are due on Mondays of a writing workshop week, by 5pm.

GRADING

Grading

Grades for the semester will be determined according to the following breakdown:

Written Work	50%
Participation	50%

Grades for written work are based on the following rubric:

- A = Mastery of reading and class material; factual accuracy; thoughtful, historical argumentation demonstrating ability to synthesize and/or some originality of thought; technically clean; proper citation format
- B = Good to excellent command of most reading and class material; accuracy; good level of historical argumentation; reasonable thesis statement; proper citation format
- C = Good command of class material; accuracy; ability to articulate a historical point of view, even if it is not compelling or is poorly reasoned; some errors in citation format
- D = Poor command of required assignments; errors; ahistorical or narrow reasoning; poor citation format

The grading scale used for this course is as follows:

- 90-100 = A
- 80-89 = B
- 70-79 = C
- 60-69 = D
- 59 or less = F

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

Policy for Reporting Problems with Pearson LearningStudio

Should students encounter Pearson LearningStudio based problems while submitting assignments/discussions/comments/exams, the following procedure must be followed:

1. Students must report the problem to the help desk. You may reach the helpdesk at 1-866-656-5511.
2. Students must file their problem with the helpdesk and obtain a helpdesk ticket number
3. Once a helpdesk ticket number is in your possession, students should email me to advise me of the problem and provide me with the helpdesk ticket number.
4. I will call the helpdesk to confirm your problem and follow up with you

PLEASE NOTE: Your personal computer and internet access problems are not a legitimate excuse for filing a ticket with the Pearson LearningStudio Help Desk. Only Pearson LearningStudio based problems are legitimate reasons to contact the Help Desk.

You strongly are encouraged to check for your internet browser compatibility BEFORE the course begins and take the Pearson LearningStudio tutorial offered for students who may require some extra assistance in navigating the Pearson LearningStudio platform.
