Instructional Methods

This course utilizes a practicum approach such as observations, small group/whole group instruction, co-teaching, and full-time teaching in the field. Seminars will be held virtually, weekly and uses an integrated approach to connect learning and experiences.

The purpose of the (internship) within the field-based program is twofold: (1) to demonstrate knowledge about content, pedagogy, technology, classroom management, assessment and evaluation, and the teaching and learning process; and (2) to demonstrate the ability to work with and manage students, plan lessons, and teach students using relevant and meaningful learning experiences in a professional manner. Thus, the assessment and evaluation of interns is also twofold as it addresses performance in both field based and seminar settings.

The primary force in the CPDT is the instructional leadership team that is coordinated by the cooperating teachers and university supervisors with input from the interns, clinical teachers, and principals. Most decisions about the activities and experiences each intern or clinical teacher will have are determined by the ILT through discussion and consensus. The ILTs are usually composed of the cooperating teachers, usually from different grade levels or content areas, an intern, and/or a resident, and university supervisor.

The field-based teacher education program has been designed to provide each student with opportunities to learn about students, learning, and teaching in the best possible

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Literature Study:

Student Learning Outcomes: 1-10

Assessment Method: (Discussion based Participation)

During seminars, interns discuss multiple articles and selections (TBD) analyzing research based methods and making connections with current experience and planning for your own classroom. Your group will meet several times throughout the semester. Details will be provided in seminar.

Professionalism:

Student Learning Outcomes: 1-10 (see Student Learning Outcomes)

Assessment Method: Determined by the Instructional Leadership Team, weekly ITEPS/Journals, Professionalism, self-assessment, and lesson evaluations. The Intern Student Handbook clearly explains expectations for internship.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Attendance, punctuality and engagement at ALL university seminars, assigned campus days, school/university meetings, and field based staff development. Your grade will be lowered if you are absent, tardy or non-participatory.
- Professionalism at the highest level to be demonstrated at all school and university functions. Contributing to class activities, accepting responsibility, and consistently demonstrating initiative and cooperation during seminar, on assignments, and in the field is expected.

The Reflective Teacher:

Learning Outcomes: 1-10 (see Student Learning Outcomes)

Assessment Method: Instructional Leadership Team

- Complete ITEPs as directed by the ILT (Instructional Leadership Team). ITEPs detail your goals/activities in the field based setting. During this sharing time modifications can be made as agreed by the ILT. Have your cooperating sign your ITEP and submit to your supervisor as determined by the ILT.
- Journal writing in a Reflective Journal while in your placements and in seminar which will include reflections on teaching and learning strategies, organizational/management systems, effective instruction, and diverse learners. Reflection is essential to learning and addressing what you are seeing and areas that you need to address. Be sure to include routines, timing, children's responses to different situations, etc. This journal will be an invaluable reference, especially when you are a teacher of record. Submission of journal will be discussed in seminars.

Lesson Plans and Evaluation:

Learning Outcomes: 1-10 (see Student Learning Outcomes)

Assessment Method: Documentation through lesson plans, evaluations, observations (Cooperating Teacher/Supervisor)

- Evaluations will be completed throughout the semester from different teaching experiences. Your cooperating teacher and supervisor will evaluate lessons. Prior to the lessons your supervisor will evaluate your plans and provide feedback. Your supervisor will discuss lesson plans and evaluation requirements for Internship and Clinical Teaching. In Clinical Teaching you will provide your supervisor with the formal lesson plan at least 48 hours in advance. Your supervisor will review your formal lesson plan and provide feedback. At each formal evaluation (in Clinical Teaching) you MUST have prepared for the evaluator the following items: your final lesson plan, a seating chart, and all handouts to be used during your lesson. Your supervisor will expect that you prepare the environment for this virtual or face-to-face experience.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Midterm Evaluation covering experiences from first placement as completed by the ILT.
- Final Evaluation covering experiences in the field and seminar as completed by the ILT. See attached grading rubric.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

You are now a professional! These assignments are given to you as a professional, not a student. Be responsible, be precise, be a professional in everything that you do. You are modeling to your children, to your colleagues and to your Cooperating Teacher. We are expecting from you what your future employer will expect from you. Think of this as a year long interview with your campus.

GRADING

Grading will reflect a combination of seminar and field work. The Supervisors, and Cooperating Teachers contribute to grading decisions. Field focus: prior preparation, strength and delivery of lessons, knowledge of subject matter, utilization of lesson design, and assessment of student progress.

The following holistic scoring will be utilized:

A (90 – 100%) = Commendable. Well above average in initiative, thought, organization, reflection, and implementing professional choices. Evidences extensive control of own decision-making and learning processes. Monitors, adjusts, and manages independently. Excellent attitude, attendance, participation and completion of assignments by due date.

B (80 – 89%) = Developing. Functional, but in need of instruction regarding initiative, thought, organization, reflection, and implementing professional choices. Evidences some control of own decision-making and learning processes. Monitors, adjusts, and manages--but requires intervention and reminders. Good attitude, attendance, participation and completion of assignments by due date.

C (70 – 79%) = Needs Improvement. Some lack of initiative, thought, organization, reflection, and responsibility. Evidences little to no control of own decision-making and learning processes. Does not adequately monitor, adjust, and manage. Sometimes exhibits poor attitude, attendance, participation and completion of assignments by due date.

D (less than 70%) = Not recommended for teacher certification

Final assessed grade will then be translated into courses for internship:

ELED 437: Science, Technology, and Math in a Field-Based Setting
 ELED 438. Integrated Learning: Social Studies in Field-Based Settings
 ELED 443: Classroom Management in a Field-Based Setting
 RDG 448: Content Reading Methods for Teacher Candidates

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.
