Course Description

This course provides a survey of the fields of theatre, designed to provide an introductory knowledge of the phases of drama, performance, literature, and production procedures.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will learn fundamental principles, vocabulary, and theories of Western theatre.
2. Students will develop creative capacities through exercises, assignments, and discussions.
3. Students will learn to critically apply course materials to live performances.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Students are required to attend class and login to D2L weekly in order to complete assigned discussions, quizzes, and other assignments.
2. Students are required to attend two productions via the Department of Theatre at TAMUC.
3. Students are required to participate in all class requirements to the best of their abilities.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

1. Students must be able to navigate D2L via MyLeo.
2. Students must be able to use a word processing software (Microsoft Word, Google Docs, etc.) as well as presentation software (Power Point, Prezi, etc.).
3. Students must be able to check their email regularly.

Instructional Methods

1. Attendance: Students must participate in all weekly assignments in order to receive credit for participation for that week. These will include:
  - a. Group Discussions and Quizzes
    - i. These will be based on the assigned chapter each week.
  - b. Exploration Assignments
    - i. These will be assigned based on the content of each exploration and will be explained further in classes each week. There will be 6 quizzes throughout the semester.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

c. FINAL PROJECT This will be discussed further closer to the due date.

Your final project will be a performance of a monologue/scene of your choosing accompanied by written script work.

- Monologues are individual based and will consist of a 2 minute performance.
- Scenes will consist of 2-5 students. Students should share the load and roles equally by ensuring that there is a fair amount of work per student. A scene must be a 5-10 minute performance.

2. Play Attendance: All students are required to see two plays at TAMUC this semester. Production/Ticket information will be provided in class and via D2L. Students must provide proof of attendance with the following:

- A virtual copy of your signed program uploaded via D2L. The House Manager will explain before each performance.

3. Play Response: Students will complete a response for the two productions they attend at TAMUC.

- a. This will consist of short answer responses based on questions given to you by the instructor. You will have access to these before the performance.
- b. This is an academic assignment, so elements such as spelling, grammar, and scholarly tone will be part of the grade.

4. Late work will be accepted at the discretion of the instructor, and only with appropriate documentation. YOU MUST EMAIL ME FOR APPROVAL!

5. Extra credit may be provided at the discretion of the instructor and will be announced via D2L.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

1. Students are encouraged to engage in class and login to D2L multiple times per week in order to participate fully, stay on track, check for updated information, and stay in contact with the instructor and fellow students.
2. You will get as much out of this course as you put into it. Please come with a positive attitude and a willingness to learn and appreciate what we learn.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

3. Communication is key - students should feel free to contact the instructor with any questions, concerns, or to meet any needs necessary.

GRADING

Interaction with Instructor Statement

If at any time you feel that you need further instruction or explanation, please feel free to speak with me at your convenience. I have an open-door policy with all students. If you do not feel that you are getting what you need please let me know. I cannot help you find a solution if I do not know that there is a problem.

Please observe the following basic email etiquette:

- Informative Subject Line
  - Class name and/or number

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- o Topic of discussion
- Address me by name
  - o Jaylan is perfectly fine, or Mrs. Fennell if you do not feel comfortable calling me by my first name.
- Salutation
  - o Does not have to be “formal”
  - o “Niceties” are always a good idea
    - I hope you are having a nice day
    - I hope you had a great weekend
    - Congrats on being an amazing human being
- Briefly and concisely state what it is you need
  - o If you cannot state your needs in a few sentences, consider requesting an appointment
  - o If requesting an appointment, please:
    - State the reason for your appointment (I want to discuss my grade; I have questions about...)
    - GIVE YOUR SPECIFIC AVAILABILITY
      - Good idea—I am available Monday 1-3 or Tuesdays after 2:30
      - Bad idea—What works for you? I am free whenever.
- Sign off
  - o Does not have to be “formal,” and thank you is always appreciated
  - o Give your name
    - Always a good idea to provide CWID, especially
    - if paperwork is involved
