

Introduction to Jazz and Jazz Rock: MUS 1310
Course will be taught online using D2L

Professor: Mr. Ryan Dahir
Office: Unavailable - Use Video Call
Office Hours: By Appointment
E-mail: Ryan.Dahir@tamuc.edu

Mission Statement:

The Music Department of Texas A&M University – Commerce promotes excellence in music through the rigorous study of music history, literature, theory, composition, pedagogy, and the preparation of music performance in applied study and ensembles to meet the highest standards of aesthetic expression.

Objectives: To give students an introduction to the historical periods of jazz through class lectures/discussions and to increase an awareness of style characteristics with various listening examples. Social and economic aspects related to jazz will also be a focus in lectures and class listening examples as well as the many multicultural facets of the music.

Course requirements/grades:

- You are expected to watch all lecture videos, short essay answers should come from the material in the lectures, not google. No plagiarizing will be tolerated.
- Active listening to the music under discussion in the lectures. It cannot be emphasized too strongly that this is a listening class as well as a reading class and that familiarity with the works, composers and performers under discussion is essential.
- Your grade in this course will be determined by the completion of three online exams, biweekly quizzes, one written assignment (concert review). Each exam will have a small listening portion as well as a mix of multiple choice, true/false, fill in the blank and short essay questions and will constitute 60% of your final grade. 40% of your grade will be from the quizzes. Grading scale: A=100-90, B=89-80, C=79-70, D=69-60, F=below 60

Optional Text: Experiencing Jazz by Richard Lawn 2nd edition. (You only need this if you intend to miss a lot of class)

Attendance This course does not require mandatory attendance by the student. However, please note this is a lecture class, and attendance is necessary to do well on exams and quizzes.

University's Pandemic Response

"A&M-Commerce requires the use of face-coverings in all instructional and research classrooms/laboratories. Exceptions may be made by faculty where warranted. Faculty have management over their classrooms. Students not using face-coverings can be required to leave class. Repetitive refusal to comply can be reported to the Office of Students' Rights and Responsibilities as a violation of the student Code of Conduct. "

"Students should not attend class when ill or after exposure to anyone with a communicable illness. Communicate such instances directly with your instructor. Faculty will work to support the student getting access to missed content or completing missed assignments."

Students with Disabilities:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Campus Concealed Carry

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun.
