Course Description:

This course prepares students for optimal success at the university and beyond by motivating them to develop skills, knowledge, and behaviors that will create confident, self-sufficient learners.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. To gain an overview of the customs, organization, and academic disciplines within an institution of higher education.
2. To familiarize oneself with the history, faculty, and programs of study within the university and the Department of Music at Texas A&M University-Commerce.
3. To increase one's effectiveness in practical matters such as time management, organization, and planning.
4. To develop general skills in critical thinking, creative problem solving, and other necessary tools/habits for success in college and beyond.

5. To learn and employ sound practices in research, study, and practice.
6. To gain a specific understanding of the conceptual and practical demands of the study of music.

Modality:

This course will be presented in a face-to-face, in-person format. Classes will sometimes meet in locations other than the regular classroom. The instructor will provide advance notice of those class meetings.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods:

Instruction will include lectures by the instructor, class discussions, and a series of guest speakers representing the music faculty and other divisions of the University.

Assignments, Grading Policies, and Calculation of Final Average:

1. Participation and involvement in all class activities

Engagement, participation, and a positive attitude are important in a course of this kind, as they are in any area of college and life. Students will participate in classroom discussions, presentations, and fieldtrips, the details of which will be announced by the instructor. It is especially important that first-year students begin the process of integrating into both the university and department's community of scholar/musicians.

2. Reading

It is imperative that students stay up-to-date on their assigned readings. Topics covered in the readings will often frame the activities/discussion in class. Please do not ignore this important component of the course.

3. Completion of written assignments

Students must turn in all written assignments at the designated time in order to receive credit. Written assignments must follow the format given by the instructor in order to be accepted.

4. Final Examination

A cumulative written final exam will be administered at the end of the semester. Content for the exam will be taken from readings and discussions throughout the course of the semester.

CALCULATION OF FINAL GRADE

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90% - 100%
B = 80% - 89%
C = 70% - 79%
D = 60% - 69%
F = 59% or Below

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I encourage students to communicate with me as much as possible, especially if a student has questions, feels challenged by the academic content of the course, or has missed classes. I also encourage students to communicate with me prior to a known absence. My office hours are indicated at the top of the syllabus. If you cannot see me during my regular office hours, please email me to set up an appointment at a time that is mutually convenient. Apart from speaking to me before or after class, email is usually the best means of getting in touch with me, as well as the official form of communication for the university. Please do not try and contact me through any kind of social media platform.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to be present at each class meeting and to participate fully in each class regardless of modality unless the absence falls under the excused absence policy.

Communication with the instructor of any absences is of the utmost importance. Excused absences are defined as illness (with a note from a physician), family emergency, or a University related event or activity (with prior approval). Courtesy dictates informing the instructor in advance of an absence whenever possible. Potential absences, other than those listed above, should be discussed directly with the instructor at the beginning of the semester, or as early as possible. Final classification of absences will be at the sole discretion of the instructor.

Note: Excused absences are defined as illness (with note from a physician), family emergency (with release from the Dean of Students), or a University related event or activity (with prior approval).

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty has zero tolerance in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one's own, misrepresenting absences or tardiness on sign-in sheets or roll calls, etc.). Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression in college and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, expulsion from class, and/or the University, and a failing grade.

University Mission Statement

Texas A&M University-Commerce provides a personal educational experience for a diverse community of life-long learners. Our purpose is to discover and disseminate knowledge for leadership and service in an interconnected and dynamic world. Our challenge is to nurture partnerships for the intellectual, cultural, social, and economic vitality of Texas and beyond.

Music Department Mission Statement

The Music Department of Texas A&M University-Commerce promotes excellence in music through the rigorous study of music history, literature, theory, composition, pedagogy, and the preparation of music performance in applied study and ensembles to meet the highest standards of aesthetic expression.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
