Objectives, Schedule, and Policies

Welcome to ACCT 522, Governmental and Not-for-Profit Accounting. In this course, we will study accounting principles and procedures used by governmental units, such as cities and counties; non-profit organizations, such as hospitals and colleges/universities; and the federal government.

Our primary course objectives are to study methods used by managers of governments and not-for-profit organizations to report financial position and operating results, and to demonstrate compliance with legal requirements and agency duties. A secondary course objective is to raise your awareness of public policy, financial and non-financial issues and differences related to government and non-profit accounting.

COB Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will demonstrate proficiency in spoken communications by delivering clear and well-structured business presentations.
2. Students will demonstrate proficiency in written communications by creating clear and well-structured business documents.
3. Students will identify and evaluate ethical business issues.
4. Students will identify and evaluate global business challenges.
5. Students will be analytical problem solvers in business environments.

Prerequisites for our class are ACCT 321 and ACCT 322, ACCT 502, or equivalent classes. PowerPoint slides and course video materials for each chapter are located in the course text website. Importantly, I will communicate with you via postings in D2L.

Exams 1-3 will be 50 MCQs each for 180 minutes (available in D2L) and 1 written project submitted via Drop Box in D2L.

Grades will be based on the average of four equally weighted exams (i.e., the average of all four exams). A final grade of "A" requires 90% of possible points, a "B" requires 80%, and a "C" requires 70%. A grade of D requires 60% of possible points, and an "F" when less than 60% of possible points are achieved.

All students must follow and conform to the University policy on Academic Honesty. A copy of the policy is posted on our eCollege page in "Doc Sharing". You are required to submit a signed copy of the policy to our eCollege page. You are encouraged to work together on homework, but your answers on homework must be your own words. You may NOT to work together on tests, and you must report observations suggesting violations of our honor code.

Reasonable accommodations will be provided for disabilities. If needed, please ask. For more information, please contact Director of Disability Resources & Services, Gee library room 130. Information concerning student disability resources and services (SDRS) may be obtained at www.tamu-commerce.edu/deanstudents/sdrs/.

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.
