COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students will need to be familiar with the University learning management system, (myLeo Online), know how to use a personal computer, navigate the World Wide Web/Internet, and use basic word processing software such as Microsoft Word and Power Point.

Instructional Methods

The following methods of instruction will be utilized for this course.

- Assigned readings from the required textbook.
- Lectures and discussions during assigned meeting times.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Weekly course work on myLeo Online.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

All students are expected to comply with the following requirements.

- All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.
- Students are expected to regularly check the course site for announcements and updates.
- Students are expected to complete all course readings for each section of the course.
- Students are expected to review any supplementary materials that the instructor provides, such as web links, news stories, etc.
- Students are expected to attend class regularly.
- Students are expected to complete all assigned writing assignments, quizzes, class activities, and exams. All coursework will be submitted to the class page on MyLeo Online.
- Students are expected to exhibit respect toward their fellow classmates and the instructor. This includes treating everyone with courtesy and esteem in all correspondence for the course. For more information on this subject, please see the Student Guidebook.
- Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments or taking exams), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material. For this course, academic dishonesty includes cheating, plagiarism, collusion and/or falsifying academic work. In particular, any student who passes passing off work as their own that was actually written by someone else, without proper citation or attribution, will be considered to have committed plagiarism. This holds true whether material comes from the textbook, another publication, an Internet source, or another student. Any act of academic dishonesty on an exam or quiz will result in a score of 0 for the exam or quiz. Any act of academic dishonesty on a writing assignment will result in a 0 for the entire semester's writing assignment grade. Instances of academic dishonesty may also be referred to the appropriate offices on campus and may result in significant administrative penalties.
- Students will comply with all myLeo Online/D2L technical requirements in terms of training, computer access, & Internet access.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Exam One	22%
Exam Two	22%
Exam Three	22%
Writing assignment	13%
Final Grade	100%

Assessments

Quizzes

Students will take weekly quizzes over the assigned readings for the course. These quizzes will contain both multiple-choice and True/False questions. Students will have 10 minutes to complete each quiz. These quizzes cannot be made up, however, the instructor will automatically drop the lowest three quiz grades. The dates and times for these quizzes are listed at the end of the syllabus

Class activities

Each week, students will complete an activity/assignment over the assigned readings. These assignments will vary in terms of format, however, they could include: brief simulations, responding to prompts, or quizzes over provided videos/news stories. The amount of time per activity will vary depending on the type. The dates and times for these assignments at the end of the syllabus.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Writing Assignment

Students will complete a writing assignment during the term that will require them to both effectively communicate their ideas and opinions as well as critically evaluate information, evidence, and data. Specifically this assignment will have students select a specific topic with the broad domain of Texas public policy. The assignment description, along with expectations and the grading rubric is provided on the course page in myLeo Online. Students will submit a topic proposal early in the semester and a final paper later in the semester. The deadlines for the topic and final paper are listed at the end of the syllabus.

Exams

Students will take three exams. All exams will include material from the textbook and the scheduled dates for the exams are listed below. These exams will have 50 multiple-choice questions. Students have 50 minutes to complete each exam. The times and dates for the exams are listed at the end of the syllabus.

Extra Credit "Syllabus "Quiz"

Students can earn up to a three bonus points toward their final average by taking a syllabus quiz. This quiz is designed to ensure that students familiarize themselves with the requirements and expectations of the syllabus. The quiz will be available on D2L/myLeo online and it cannot be made up. The dates and times for this quiz is listed at the end of the syllabus.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Students should rely upon e-mail, office hours, and course announcements as the primary means of communication with the instructor. I will use all of these to announce any changes to the course syllabus or other relevant information. Also, please note that the system will only send e-mail to your official University Email address, so you will need to check that account regularly. I will always try to e-mail you as soon as I can.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

From M-F you can expect a reply, at the latest, within 24 hours. On the weekends, I may take 48 hours to respond.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

- Make-up exams: If a student misses an exam, that student will receive a grade of 0 for the exam. Make-up exams will only be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Any request for a make-up exam must be made in writing and include documentation explaining why the absence was legitimate. Such a request must be received within 3 calendar days of the missed exam date, unless the student is physically unable to submit such a request. Legitimate reasons may include illness severe enough to require professional treatment, death of an immediate family member, participation in University activities, and legal obligations. Technical problems with accessing the course are not a valid excuse for missing an exam unless it can be shown that the problem is the fault of the myLeo Online platform. Students who miss any exam because they forgot about the exam dates/times will not receive a make-up exam. Please note, these reasons do not guarantee that a make-up exam will be given. Make-up exams will be exclusively essay format.
- Incompletes will be granted completely at the discretion of the instructor and only be granted in the case of serious medical illness or other serious, unavoidable circumstances and only if the student has completed at least 70% of the course work. Incompletes must be finished within two weeks of the end of the semester.
- Students must complete the "Personal Responsibility Statement" quiz available on the course site. Students who fail to do so by the time the first exam is graded will be administratively dropped from the course.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
