Either is acceptable for full participation. All other course work will be done asynchronously.

In my course, all work is due at the end of a module, and all modules end at 11:59 PM on the last Sunday of the module. This is to give you time to work through the weekend on your course work. Please plan ahead. My modules are mostly self-paced, and will give you some leeway for how you want to plan your time, but you'll need to be focused, aware of deadlines, and capable of holding yourself to a schedule to be successful.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Participation will be counted partly through your use of Top Hat as well as class discussions, drafting your assignments, group work, conferences, etc. If you might miss a deadline, I encourage you to contact me sooner rather than later; extensions are given on a case-by-case basis. Consistent lateness may cause a deduction of participation points.

Attendance Policy

This is an online course, so there is no real “attendance.” Either you do the work, or you don’t. If you do not complete any of the work for any single unit, it will result in an automatic failure of the course. If you have a family or medical emergency, contact me as soon as possible in order to make arrangements so that you can complete the course without undue hardship.

Participation will be counted through your use of Top Hat. When you answer the Before and After Reading questions, you will gain participation points. If you miss a deadline, you must contact me to ask for extra time to work in Top Hat. It is your responsibility to ask for this extra time. Consistent lateness may cause a deduction of participation points.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as students’ progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Basic Needs Statement

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect their performance in the course, is urged to contact the Dean of Students for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so. This will enable him to provide any resources that he may possess.

Grievances

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with the Director of Writing, Dr. Ashanka Kumari, by emailing her (ashanka.kumari@tamuc.edu). Before an appointment is scheduled, the student must provide clearly documented and explained issues as to why the meeting is being requested. The student must also state when they want to discuss the issue, in-person or via phone (not email) with the instructor already. Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 ("Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation").

Writing Center

The Writing Center (or the "Communication Skills Center") offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike. The Writing Center offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We currently only offer 45min, online sessions that writers can book from our website: www.tamuc.edu/writing-center. We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike (faculty and staff too!). Research shows that all workers benefit from sharing their work with a focused reader. The Writing Center staff is trained to support writers in any stage of the writing process (from the blank page to polishing sentences), and we work with writers to verbalize writing goals and to stay on track with larger writing projects. We work with any form of writing (academic and nonacademic). The writers with whom we work usually bring projects like important emails, weekly writing assignments, midterm and final essays, and theses and dissertations. Contact us with any questions here: Writing.center@tamuc.edu
