Students will write weekly, including such texts as journals, reading responses, summaries of argumentative texts, argumentative papers, and longer papers integrating secondary research. Activities include close reading of sample texts, both student and professional. Some sections will emphasize special topics in both reading and writing. Prerequisites: Grade of C or better in English 1301 or advanced placement or CLEP.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need:

- Flash drive or other means (dropbox.com account, for example) of storing digital versions of the essays and other written material you generate (always, always keep a backup of everything you turn in!)
- A valid, working email address that you check often (everyday). I will email the class through D2L, so be sure that that email is the one you check.
- Regular internet access
- Access to a computer with a word processing program and a printer (assignments must be typed uploaded through D2L in a doc or docx file)

Instructional Methods

This is a “B” Blended section, meaning we will have some f2f class time and some online course time. Because of the pandemic, we are only allowed to have so many students in the course at once. You will be given a group, and I will designate which days your group will come to class f2f. When your group is NOT f2f, you are expected to do the work remotely via Top Hat and D2L.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course It is expected that you will participate in Top Hat every week, usually on multiple occasions. Students in “B” blended courses are expected to be in class OR complete their work remotely in the allotted timeframe. All students should check their email daily and log into D2L at a minimum 2-3 times a week. To succeed in this course, you should also complete all the required reading and activities in Top Hat.
