To gain access to Top Hat, it is YOUR responsibility to create an account when you receive an email from the campus bookstore. Be on the lookout for this email at the start of the semester.

If you have any issues with Top Hat, you will need to contact support@tophat.com

Through Top Hat, you will gain access to the following course materials:

Writing Inquiry 2nd Edition. Eds. Jessica Pauszek, Shannon Carter, Donna Dunbar-Odom, and Tabetha Adkins. Fountainhead Press, 2019.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Course Description

English 1301 introduces students to writing as an extended, complex, recursive process and prepares students for English 1302 which more rigorously examines the forms and structures of argument and means to approach multiple audiences. In 1301, students will write weekly and will work on essay organization and development. The course will emphasize close reading, summarizing, and analysis of expository texts including student writing.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. Students will be able to communicate (written, orally, and/or visually) in a manner appropriate to the audience and occasion with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Students will be able to work together toward a shared purpose relevant to the course or discipline with a sense of shared responsibility for meeting that purpose.
4. Students will understand and practice academic honesty.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need:

- Flash drive or other means (dropbox.com account, for example) of storing digital versions of the essays and other written material you generate (always, always keep a backup of everything you turn in!)
- A valid, working email address that you check often (everyday). I will email the class through D2L, so be sure that that email is the one you check.
- Regular internet access
- Access to a computer with a word processing program and a printer (assignments must be typed uploaded through D2L in a doc or docx file)

Instructional Methods

This section is a “W” WEB section, meaning that our entire course is online. Each week, I will provide a synchronous class time that you will be expected to attend during that time or will be allowed to watch the recording of during the week. Either is acceptable for full participation. All other course work will be done asynchronously with given deadlines throughout the week.

then schedule an appointment with the Director of Writing, Dr. Ashanka Kumari, by emailing her at ashanka.kumari@tamuc.edu

Before an appointment is scheduled, the student must provide clearly documented and explained issues as to why the meeting is being requested. Where applicable, students should also consult the University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 (“Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation”).

Writing Center

The Writing Center (or the “Communication Skills Center”) offers writers free one-on-one assistance. They welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike. Research shows that all writers benefit from sharing their work with a focused reader. The Writing Center Staff is trained to support writers in any stage of the writing process (from a blank page to polishing the sentences), and they work with writers to verbalize writing goals and stay on track to finish larger writing projects. The writers with whom they work bring projects like important emails, weekly writing assignments, midterm and final essays, and theses and dissertations. If you would like to make an appointment, contact them at writing.tamuc@gmail.com
