COURSE INFORMATION

TEXTBOOK:

Title: Criminal Justice in America (9th Edition)
Authors: George Cole, Christopher Smith & Christina DeJong
Publisher: Cengage

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course provides a historical, philosophical, ethical, and practical overview of the American criminal justice system. It focuses on the nature and defining of crime, its impact on society, and the processes of the justice agencies - law enforcement, courts, and corrections.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Understand and analyze criminal justice terms, concepts, theories and models.
2. Analyze the organizational, cultural and institutional characteristics and operations of the major criminal justice system, including law enforcement, courts and corrections.
3. Communicate in a critical, analytical and cogent manner.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed:

Basic understanding of Microsoft Office programs Internet browsing Webcam & Microphone

Instructional Methods:

Face-to-Face Course Hands-on Learning In-class Work Days

Course Attendance:

- Class attendance is required.
- Should you miss class, it is also your responsibility to ask a classmate or the professor what was missed. If you miss class the day an assignment is due, the assignment must be submitted before class begins.

D2L:

This course utilizes the D2L learning management system for the dissemination of supplemental materials. D2L allows for additional communication between the students as well as the professor. Students should check D2L regularly for email announcements, handouts, articles, etc. that may be posted by the professor.

Quizzes and Examinations:

Students are required to take quizzes and exams during the assigned day and time as scheduled on the course syllabus. No make-up exams or advance exams will be offered.

Grades:

Individual grades on assignments are posted in D2L in order to assist students in monitoring their academic progress throughout the semester. Borderline final grades will be determined based on in-class participation, attendance and the completion/submission of all assignments.

Extra Credit:

Any extra credit opportunities will be discussed in class. If offered, extra credit will be available to all students in the course, not individual students.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is generally defined as the presentation of the ideas and/or the words of someone else as one's own. Examples of plagiarizing material include using a person's written words or ideas from a variety of different sources (internet, classmate's paper, book, journal article, etc.) without proper documentation. Plagiarism is taken very seriously and the student will be fully punished if caught plagiarizing material within this course. This course uses plagiarism software, which is integrated within D2L.

You commit plagiarism if you use, copy and paste or paraphrase:

- Any part of an assignment submitted by a student from a previous semester
- Any part of an assignment written by/shared with a current classmate (collaboration work, group work and split work are NOT allowed)
- Any part of another person's written words without correct documentation
- Any part of another person's ideas without correct documentation, including any part of a website, book, encyclopedia, news article, journal article or any other source used without correct documentation.
- Plagiarism is punished in a variety of ways. If collaboration/shared work is found, BOTH the student who copied and the student who allowed their work to be copied will be reported. The student(s) may fail the assignment and/or the entire course. The Dean may take additional actions.
- To avoid punishment: don't plagiarize others and don't allow other students/friends to view your work at any time, no matter the circumstances.

Electronic Policy:

Laptop computers may be used during class time, for the purpose of taking electronic notes only. Students should not access the internet or play games during class. If a student is found using their laptop for activities not pertaining to taking electronic notes, the student will lose their privilege of using their laptop during class for the remainder of the semester/term.

NO electronic communication devices or music devices are to be used in this class during class time.

This includes cell phones, tablets, laptops, iPods, etc.

- Students must turn off all electronic devices during class. Should there be an extenuating circumstance, which requires the potential use of a cell phone during class, please notify the professor prior to class.
- Should your electronic device go off during class, you will be asked to leave the class. This is disruptive to your fellow students and the classroom environment. Laptops should be closed during student presentations and guest speakers

Classroom Rules:

- Students are free to discuss individual thoughts and opinions during class discussion periods, however, be sure to be courteous to your fellow classmates and professor.
- Please be tolerant toward comments and opinions for which you do not agree; tolerance is a reciprocal process for all students. The professor will not tolerate any remarks that are personally demeaning, or offensive.
- Students who become disruptive in class will be asked to stop the behavior immediately.
- If the behavior continues, the student(s) will be asked to leave the classroom immediately and for the rest of the class period.
- If asked to leave, a student(s) will not be allowed back in the classroom until he/she/they meet with the professor in her office to discuss the disruptive behavior.
If the disruptive behaviors arise in class and/or in the online discussion board again, the student(s) will be asked to leave and cannot return until he/she/they meet with the professor and the Department Head to discuss dropping the student(s) from the course.
