COURSE DESCRIPTION

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The Visual Art segment of the course is an introduction to teaching the discipline of Art at the elementary level, concentrating on the integration of the art elements and principles of design within the regular curriculum.

COURSE OBJECTIVES Student Learning Outcomes

1. To develop critical thinking skills, conceptual constructs, specialized vocabulary and art history through the study of the human figure
2. To learn to draw the human figure in an objectively accurate manner
3. To develop manipulative, work-oriented skills and demonstration of specific process skills and mastery of mediums
4. To develop the ability to carry out directions, meet deadlines, meet attendance requirements, come to class prepared, show respectful attitude towards all, maintain work area

COURSE REQUIREMENTS Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using D2L Brightspace learning management system, Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint.

Course Instruction Methods and Student Expectations:

This course will require both reading material located in the D2L classroom, weekly reading assignments, and viewing of online videos. Assignments will include writing assignments, creative art projects, slide presentation, and quizzes.

- You will need a computer or other device to access D2L for course content and to turn in assignments and quizzes.

-Artist research assignment: Oral PowerPoint 15-minute presentation with images (labeled images should include title, year, medium, size). For help with research methods and citing sources, contact Research and Learning Head, Sarah Northam at the Waters Library, 903-866-5434, Sarah.Northam@tamuc.edu. A Research Guide and Tutorial may also be made available to students through the library.

Instructional Methods

A. Chapters 3, 6 & 7 (required reading). PowerPoint group slide presentation, lesson plan- Microsoft.

B. The Elements of Art & The Principles of Design

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Studio projects: Sketchbook To develop awareness and sensitivity to natural and manmade environments. This area covers the students' visual and aesthetic observation and critical thinking skills.

C. To learn a verbal and visual vocabulary that is relevant to art.

D. To express inventive and imaginative ideas, thoughts, feelings through art media, tools, and techniques. This area helps students develop a growing ability to express creatively and helps increase knowledge of art production skills.

E. To be introduced to an understanding of self and others through the study of art, culture and heritage. This area helps students develop awareness of our cultural differences and the importance of art in various cultures.

F. To become acquainted with aesthetic growth through visual discrimination and judgment. The elements in this area are concerned with developing informed judgments about art through art criticism.

G. To understand the importance of integrating art into the classroom, and to understand how appropriate art projects develop problem solving and critical analysis in student learning.

C. Portfolio- Painting, Drawing, Printmaking, Collage, Sculpture.

D. Group oral presentation of Integrated lesson plans. The course fee will cover the cost of art supplies and materials used in class. You will need to purchase materials needed for the oral presentation of the integrated lesson. You will need to make enough copies of your presentation lesson plan for everyone in class.

Focus:

1. Class participation and involvement in critiques.
2. Dedication to class studio work and homework.
3. Dedication to self-directed and group work.
4. Experimentation and demonstrated understanding of visual concepts.
5. Quality of work and presentation.
6. Demonstrated understanding of key concepts presented in class as it applies to development of an integrated curriculum.
7. Excellent attitude, attendance, promptness, timeliness, maintenance and cleanup of work area.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

- Excellent attendance & promptness. More than three unexcused absences will adversely affect grade. A tardy will count as half an absence, as will leaving class early. Excused absences will be considered due to illness with a doctor's note, or due to a death in the family. Any other extenuating urgent circumstances should be discussed with the instructor. More than 6 unexcused absences for the course will result in a student being administratively dropped.
- Following directions on given assignments

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Positive attitude, degree of involvement, contributions to class discussions. Any disruptive activity will result in the student being escorted from class and administratively dropped.
- Dedicated scholarship in class work, paper, presentation, and homework.
- Understanding of visual and art historical concepts.
- Professionalism. Come to class prepared. Phones must be put away and turned off. No headphones.
- Completion of assignments by the given deadline.
- Control and mastery of art media and techniques.
- Quality and improvement in work.
- Craftsmanship, creativity, and presentation.
- Regularly check D2L for announcements, grades, etc.

GRADING

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Late assignments: Late assignments will adversely affect grades, and must be turned in by the end of the 5-week section of art. Please communicate with the instructor for any concerns with timeliness of assignments or tests. There will be no extra credit.

Class participation and promptness: Participation is required. It is important to come to class prepared so you can take part in the group discussions and critiques. You will be called upon even if you do not raise your hand. Be an active and positive learner.

Any disruptive behavior may result in being escorted from the class and the student being administratively dropped.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

You are expected to arrive to class on time and stay the entire period. Leaving early is the same as a tardy. 10 points will be deducted from your daily studio time for late arrival or leaving early. Regular attendance is expected. Excessive absences may result in the student being administratively dropped. Excused absences will be accepted due to illness (with a doctor's note), or a death in the immediate family. For any urgent extenuating circumstances, please communicate with your instructor.

Class involvement and promptness: It is important to be prepared so you can get the most out of the class. Be an active and positive learner. It is the student's responsibility to check D2L for directives and to complete all work on a timely basis. If there are any extenuating personal circumstances, please contact instructor before class.

Plagiarism: Do not take credit for someone else's work. According to Texas A & M University-Commerce, "the university does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource materials. Plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the course."

Drop a Course: "A student may drop a course by logging into their myLeo account and clicking on the hyperlink labeled 'Drop a class' from among the choices found under the myLeo section of the Web page."

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
