Course Description

An introduction to the laws, philosophies and theories of ESL schooling with an emphasis on the evolution of language policy and the sociological, psychological, and legal implications. Students will gain knowledge of effective oral language and literacy practices for English Language Learners in grades K-12. Provides students with opportunities to reflect on their own language learning and schooling experiences then compare them to practices shown by research to be effective. 3 semester hours.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student will ...

1. identify and understand theories of L1 and L2 acquisition and development.
2. understand the role of culture in language development and academic achievement.
3. value bilingualism, biliteracy and multiculturalism and become an advocate for English learners.
4. apply best practices for teaching ELLs
5. prepare for the English as a Second Language Supplemental (#154) certification exam.

Course Objectives:

This course is designed to help prepare students for the English as a Second Language Supplemental (#154). We will focus on the following standards for the Supplemental tests:

English as a Second Language Standards:

- Standard I: The ESL teacher understands fundamental language concepts and knows the structure and conventions of the English language: 1.1k, 1.2k, 1.3k

- Standard III: The ESL teacher understands the processes of first- and second-language acquisition and uses this knowledge to promote students' language development in English: 3.2k, 3.3k, 3.4k, 3.5k
- Standard IV. The ESL teacher understands ESL teaching methods and uses this knowledge to plan and implement effective, developmentally appropriate ESL instruction: 4.1k,
- Standard V: The ESL teacher has knowledge of the factors that affect ESL students' learning of academic content, language, and culture: 5.2k

English Language Proficiency Standards (ELPS)

- (c) Cross-curricular second language acquisition essential knowledge and skills.

(1) Cross-curricular second language acquisition/learning strategies.

The beginning teacher understands and teaches language learning strategies to students to develop their awareness of their own learning process in all content areas. The beginning teacher can provide all instruction, delivered in English, so it is linguistically accommodating (communicated, sequenced, and scaffolded) commensurate with the student's level of English Language Proficiency: A, G

(2) Cross-curricular second language acquisition/listening.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The beginning teacher understands and teaches ELLs to listen to a variety of speakers to gain an increasing level of comprehension of newly acquired language in all content areas. The beginning teacher can provide all instruction, delivered in English, so it is linguistically accommodating (communicated, sequenced, and scaffolded) commensurate with the student's level of English Language Proficiency: E

(3) Cross-curricular second language acquisition/speaking.

The beginning teacher must understand and recognize that ELLs speak in a variety of modes for a variety of purposes, with an awareness of formal/informal registers using vocabulary with increasing fluency and accuracy in language arts and all content areas. The beginning teacher can provide all instruction, delivered in English, so it is linguistically accommodating (communicated, sequenced, and scaffolded) commensurate with the student's level of English Language Proficiency: E

(4) Cross-curricular second language acquisition/reading.

The beginning teacher must understand and recognize that ELLs read a variety of texts for a variety of purposes with an increasing level of comprehension in all content areas. The beginning teacher can provide all instruction, delivered in English, so it is linguistically accommodating (communicated, sequenced, and scaffolded) commensurate with the student's level of English Language Proficiency. For Kindergarten and Grade 1, certain of these student expectations apply to text read aloud for students not yet at the stage of decoding written text: E

• (D) Proficiency Level Descriptors

- (1) Listening: Kindergarten – Grade 12

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint

Instructional Methods

How the Course is organized

On each “Unit” page, there are links to supplementary readings and handouts for class activities. Students should save these.

Complete instructions for all written assignments are included in the online unit scheduled for when the assignment is due. Find each Assignment link by clicking on the appropriate “Unit” link on the left navigation bar which will then reveal the Assignment link below it. The online instructions provide step by step directions for how to accomplish the assignments and other resources such as rubrics. Please review these instructions and all associated documents carefully before beginning your assignments.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students should regularly log on to the course website, check for online instructor feedback and email the professor if they don’t understand something.

When students log on to the course, they should check to see if there are any announcements. I may also post here such things as changes in the schedule when assignments are due or provide further clarifications for specific assignments.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

C = 70%-79%
D = 60%-69%
F = 59% or Below

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Quizzes	25%
Discussion Responses	25%
Lesson Plan	25%
Certify Teacher Practice Exams	25%
TOTAL	100%

1. Quizzes: 5 quizzes (25% of total course grade):

The student will have one week to complete each online quiz. Students will be allowed to take the quiz three times.

Student Learning Outcomes: The student will...

#1: identify and understand theories of L1 and L2 acquisition and development.

#2: understand the role of culture in language development and academic achievement.

Assessment Method: Multiple-choice, true/false and matching items

2. Discussion Responses: 5 Responses (25% of total course grade)

Submit responses over selected bilingual/ESL issues. Students will be required to post an initial discussion of at least 400+ words to the assigned topic. The initial discussion response may be submitted up to one week late, but peer responses will not be accepted late. Then, respond to at least two classmates within two days of the initial discussion post due date.

Student Learning Outcomes: The student will...

#1: understand and apply theories of L1 and L2 acquisition and development.

#2: value bilingualism, biliteracy and multiculturalism and become an advocate for English learners.

Assessment Method: Response rubric. Discussion postings must be substantive or the student will not be given full credit, if it is apparent to the professor that students have not spent enough time or effort in writing the responses. For example, "I agree. You are absolutely right," does not constitute a substantive response.

3. SIOP Based Lesson Plan: (25% of total course grade):

Students will create selected parts of a SIOP lesson plan. Students will include differentiated activities to meet the needs of English language learners at different English proficiency levels.

Student Learning Outcome: The student will...

#4: apply best practices for teaching ELLs

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Assessment Method: Lesson Plan & Demo Rubric

4. Certify Teacher Practice (25% of total course grade):

Exceed course requirements on practice ESL Supplemental certification exam.

Assessment Method: Submission of ESL Supplemental practice and exam score reports.

Student Learning Outcome: The student will...

#5: prepare for the English as a Second Language Supplemental (#154) certification exam.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Please allow 24 hours for an email response and seven to ten days for feedback from the due date of assignments.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Professionalism Component: You are expected to demonstrate a professional attitude at all times. This includes respecting the thoughts of your peers as well as your instructor. Also included is the following: accepting constructive criticism, turning in high quality work and understanding that this is a growth experience.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism will result in a grade of F for the assignment and possibly the course. Further infractions could result in dismissal from the teacher education program. Plagiarism consists of copying directly from a source without properly citing the source. It is also using someone else's work and claiming it as your own. For more information see <http://www.unc.edu/depts/wcweb/handouts/plagiarism.html> or <http://www.plagiarism.org/>.

Cite your Sources (from 5% to 100% subtracted if not followed):

APA (American Psychological Association) style should be used for all references. Include a citation in the body of your report (Author, Year, page number) and a bibliography at the end. A complete guide to APA style is available at <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>.

Late turn-ins:

- All assignments are to be completed and uploaded by midnight on the day they are due. For each day the assignment is submitted late, 5% will be subtracted from the total grade. Quizzes and peer responses will not be accepted late.
- Late assignments will be accepted up until one week after the due date, after that time, no work will be accepted for any credit.
- Quizzes and peer responses will not be accepted for late credit.

The quizzes will be available online 5 days prior to their due dates. You will have three attempts to take the quiz prior to the due date. You will have a time limit to complete the quiz and submit it. Upon submission you will immediately get a numeric score report which will tell you the number of questions missed, but not which questions. The day after the testing window is closed you will be able to return to the exam, seeing which items you got correct and which you missed. Quizzes cannot be taken late.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
