

EDCI 566.41E: Field-Based Professional Development Practicum in Education
(For ETIP Credit)
Course Syllabus for Spring 2022

According to State of Texas HB 2504, this course syllabus must be submitted for review prior to the course's scheduled start date. Therefore, the instructor has the right to modify this syllabus and course calendar at any time between submission for publication and the first day of class. Furthermore, the instructor has the right to modify the syllabus at any time during the course itself provided that (1) such changes do not increase expectations or requirements beyond a reasonable equivalent and (2) students are given ample notification.

Instructor: Gil Naizer, Professor, Department of Curriculum & Instruction
Office Location: Commerce Campus - Ed. South #224
Office Hours: By appointment.

COURSE INFORMATION

Materials Needed for the Course:

Students will use notes and/or handouts related to their completed staff development (ETIP) sessions as needed to complete course activities. Any additional readings will be supplied by the instructor.

Course Description: Students develop conceptual and professional skills related to their practice in the field. The course requires applying what was learned from staff development (ETIP) in a field-based setting and reflecting on the success or lack of success in order to improve classroom results. Course may be repeated for credit. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

General Guidelines:

- 1 Students register for one section of EDCI 566 for selected ETIP courses.
- 2 Requirements for graduate credit are above and beyond practicum requirements for the district.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the conclusion of the course, the student will demonstrate the following outcomes:

1. Integrate staff development and university seminar in a way that aligns educational theory and practice.
2. Provide a venue for teachers to share what they have learned from staff development and gain an understanding of the theory and research that forms the foundation for that content.
3. Demonstrate how they have applied the learning from staff development into classrooms and reflect on its effectiveness.
4. Present to an audience of teachers a particularly effective idea or practice they have developed related to concepts from ETIP courses.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Complete selected ETIP courses. After completing the appropriate ETIP courses, you will register for EDCI 566 Practicum where you will get credit for application of learning from the courses.
2. Documentation. Document application of ideas from the ETIP courses. How and when did you implement ideas?
3. Reflection. Thoughtfully reflect on the implementation. What went well? What didn't? What did you learn from this? How did you change the implementation for the next time? Did things improve? How did this impact your classroom?
4. University Seminar Attendance & Participation. Attendance and participation at all class meetings and/or online discussion groups is required and essential to your success in this experience. Students are expected to be on time and actively participate. The rules of the University regarding class attendance will be followed in this course. Although you should notify faculty in advance, in the event you are not able to attend class, such notification does not constitute an excused absence. Attendance procedures follow the ETIP guidelines.
5. Presentation and Discussion. Join other teachers and share ways in which implementation of ideas from ETIP affected your teaching and/or classroom.
6. Goals for Future Learning Opportunities: What are your next steps in improving your classroom?

FINAL GRADE IN THE COURSE

Course grades will be on a A-F scale, which will focus on successful completion of the previously outlined course requirements.

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course/Department Specific Procedures/Policies:

Late Work

Specific dates and times are established for every assignment. No late work is accepted without extenuating circumstances approved by the instructor. Students who feel they have an extenuating situation must contact the instructor prior to or during the due date about the circumstance. Work cannot be made up and extra work is not allowed to compensate for missing or later work.

Appeal of the Final Grade (13.99.99.R0.05 Student's Appeal of Instructor's Evaluation, Effective September 1, 1996. Revised February 8, 2007)

1. The final grades awarded by faculty members are their expert judgment concerning student performance. Students challenging a final grade must show that the instructor's judgment was unfair based on:
 - a) some basis other than performance, or
 - b) standards different from those applied to other students in the same course section, or
 - c) a substantial, unreasonable, and unannounced departure from previously articulated standards or the syllabus.
2. Students who believe their grade to be unfair must first discuss the matter with the instructor.
3. If no satisfactory resolution is reached with the instructor, or if the instructor is unavailable, the student shall appeal to the department head. A grade appeal must be initiated in writing with the department head (or dean if the department head is the instructor) within six months of the last day of the semester in which the grade was awarded. The department head will examine the student's appeal to determine whether the student has established an apparent case of unfair academic evaluation as described in section 1. If the student has not established a case that appears to have merit, the department head will so inform the student and the instructor without delay.

4. If the case has merit, the department head will secure, from all parties, written statements and other such information as he or she deems helpful and will issue his or her findings and remedies, if any. In so doing, the department head will be guided by the principle the burden of proof lies with the student.

For additional information regarding the appeal of a final grade above that of the department head, please consult the latest version of the graduate catalog or contact the Head of the Department, Curriculum and Instruction, at 903-886-5537.
