COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook(s) Required:

No textbook is required for purchase. Assigned readings and videos will be accessed via D2L and the online through TAMUC library.

Course Description

The course examines the role of art in protest associated with political and social movements throughout the world. The social and cultural context of art produced will range from the French Revolution to contemporary topics such as Black Lives Matter in a variety of artistic media. We will explore art as a means of activism.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. To gain an understanding of the role of visual arts in political and social movements throughout the world.
2. To see the ways in which art reflects or communicates social, political, and ideological values.
3. To learn about how particular forms of media were implemented as tools of activism in uprising and revolutions throughout history.
4. To learn about artist's roles as activists in political and social movements.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using D2L Brightspace learning management system, Microsoft Word.

Course Instruction Methods and Student Expectations:

This course will require both reading material located in the D2L classroom or accessed via through the TAMUC library, regular class attendance, and active participation in class discussion. Assignments will include written assignments and class presentations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Grading

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%	A = 270 – 300 Points
B = 80%-89%	B = 240 – 369 Points
C = 70%-79%	C = 210 – 339 Points
D = 60%-69%	D = 180 – 209 Points
F = 59% or below	F = 0 – 179 Points

Assessments

Reading Response Papers – 4 @ 50 pts = 200 pts

Research Paper – 75 pts

Class Presentation – 25 pts

Total Points – 300

Course Policies:

Assignments: Late submissions will receive a ½ letter grade deduction for each day submitted late and will not be accepted after three (3) days past deadline. See course schedule for assignments deadlines.

Participation: Students are expected to attend class, having done the assigned reading and prepared to critically discuss the readings and actively participate in class discussion. The success of each week’s discussion depends on the preparation of all the class participants.

It is the responsibility of each student to monitor his/her attendance. Each student in this course is allowed five (5) unexcused absences. Unexcused absences require no explanation on the part of the student.

In this class, excused absences are: (1) participation in pre-approved University activities such as athletic events, sponsored field trips, and travel for specific University-related academic reasons; (2) verifiable legal proceedings; and (3) cases of illness, injury, or emergencies. For any absences to be considered excused, illness or otherwise, documentation for your absence must be emailed to your professor not later than 5 days after the missed class. Failure to do so will result in an unexcused absence, NO EXCEPTIONS.

When a student accrues more than five (5) unexcused absences the instructor has the prerogative to drop the student 1 letter grade for each unexcused absence exceeding 5. For example, 6 unexcused absences will drop an “A” to a “B” and so forth.

Academic dishonesty:

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one’s own, etc.). Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression in college and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, dismissal from class, expulsion from the University, and a failing grade.

Classroom Etiquette:

CELL PHONE USE IS NOT PERMITTED IN THE CLASSROOM. ANY STUDENT TEXT MESSAGING WILL BE ASKED TO LEAVE CLASS. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Please be mindful and respectful of others in the classroom. In all communication including email and discussion groups please adhere to the following guidelines:

- Use of profanity, slang or racial slurs is NOT permitted
- Be mindful of tone, keep it professional and respectful of others
- Avoid jokes, as they may not come across as such by others

Any behavior that is deemed disruptive by the instructor may result in a student being asked to leave class, and continued disruptions may also result in expulsion from the class.
