Course Description

This foundation course in social welfare policy introduces students to social policy development, social welfare institutions and the historical and existing policies underpinning the development of social policy. Course content is designed to emphasize the effect of social policies on client systems at the micro, mezzo and macrolevels. Specific attention will be given to the interaction between social welfare policies and at-risk populations. No prerequisites.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES:

SWK 503, 505, 506, 553

PROGRAM GOALS:

1. Prepare MSW graduates for professional advanced generalist practice that reflects application and integration of critical thinking, theoretical frameworks, and differential interventions.
2. Enable MSW graduates to apply ethical reasoning to advance equality, justice, and social change.
3. Promote leadership and service that is relevant to individual contexts of practice and enhances well-being and quality of life.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) requires a competency-based approach to identify and assess what students demonstrate in practice. In social work, this approach involves assessing students' ability to demonstrate the competencies identified in the educational policy. Students achieve programmatic goals listed above through demonstration of the following competencies for Advanced Generalist Practice (AGP). Students achieve programmatic goals listed above through demonstration of the following bolded competencies for Advanced Generalist Practice (AGP).

Competency 2.1.1 Identify as a professional social worker and conduct oneself accordingly

Competency 2.1.2 Apply social work ethical principles to guide professional practice

Competency 2.1.3 Apply Critical thinking to inform and communicate professional judgments

Competency 2.1.4 Engage diversity and difference in practice Competency 2.1.5

Advance human rights and social and economic justice

Competency 2.1.6 Engage in research-informed practice and practice-informed research

Competency 2.1.7 Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment

Competency 2.1.8 Engage in policy practice to advance well-being and deliver services

Competency 2.1.9 Respond to contexts that shape practice

Competency 2.1.10 (a)-(d) Engages, assesses, intervenes and evaluates individual, families, groups, organizations, and communities

Student Learning Outcomes (Practice Behaviors)

Each competency (outlined above) describes the knowledge, values, skills and cognitive and affective processes that comprise competency at the Advanced Generalist Practice (AGP) level. While content and activities of each course in the MSW curriculum covertly or overtly addresses each of the nine competencies, identified within each course is a set of specific practice behaviors representing observable components of one or more competencies. Content and Assessment in this course reflect the following practice behaviors:

2.1.1.2 Advocates for client access to services of social work

2.1.3.3 Demonstrates effective communication in working with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities and colleagues.

2.1.8.1 Is skilled at analyzing, formulation, and advocating for policies that advance social well-being

2.1.8.2 Is skilled at collaborating with colleagues and clients for effective policy practice

2.1.10[b].1 collect, organize and interpret client data

2.1.10[c].2 Implement prevention interventions to enhance client capacities

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students are expected to be skilled at using and traversing D2L Brightspace, logging onto online chats software (e.g. Zoom), and have knowledge of MS Office programs (Word, Powerpoint, Excel, etc.) and other word processing software.

Instructional Methods

This class will be taught through a combination of face-to-face and virtual technology. This, however, may change depending CoVID-19 situation and University policy.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Student responsibilities are as follow:

- To understand the commitment that you have made to yourself and to this program upon admission, which is to learn the skills required to be an effective social worker
- To attend class regularly (or keep up with the material), of course, but also to be engaged, alert and committed to its purpose throughout the course and not let distractions interfere with the learning process.
- To read the textbook as required per the schedule
- To complete assignments in a timely manner and within the standard and instructions set out in the syllabus and by the professor
- To reach out for help when in need of additional guidance
- To not wait until the end of the semester or the day of the deadline to reach out for such help
- To prioritize your education for the time that you are in the program

Assessments

SWK 521 Assignments

Guidelines for all Written Work:

Written work for this class must be in APA style (unless stated otherwise) using 12- point font. Grading criteria for written work includes: thoroughness, logical development of points, clarity of written expression, application of scholarly research and appropriateness of information presented as it relates to topic chosen. This is a graduate level course and expectations are considerably higher than those at an undergraduate level. It is important to demonstrate your ability read and understand the instructions for each assignment, to do research at the library, to critically analyze various positions, comparing and contrasting strengths and weaknesses, and presenting facts in a manner persuading the reader to his/her own conclusions. In conducting scholarly research, sources included should cover legislation and/or public documents, books and journal articles. Citations from course texts, the internet (unless accessing an on-line journal or government document), popular magazines or handouts given by the instructor do not represent scholarly research and should be used sparingly or not at all. The quality of your resource selection will be evaluated.

Work is expected on the due date. Points will be deducted from work that is turned in after the due date and time. No late work will be accepted 24 hours after it is due.

1. POSITION STATEMENT AND ORAL TESTIMONY (50 PTS) How to write a position paper:

The purpose of a position statement is to generate support on an issue. It describes a position on an issue and the rationale for that position. The position paper is based on facts that provide a solid foundation for your argument. In the position paper you should:

- Use evidence to support your position, such as statistical evidence or dates and events.
- Validate your position with authoritative references
- Examine the strengths and weaknesses of your position.
- Evaluate possible solutions and suggest courses of action.

Choose an issue where there is a clear division of opinion and which is arguable with facts. You may choose an issue on which you have already formed an opinion. However, in writing about this issue you must examine your opinion of the issue critically. Prior to writing your position paper, define and limit your issue carefully. Social issues are complex with multiple solutions. Narrow the topic of your position paper to something that is manageable. Research your issue thoroughly, consulting experts and obtaining primary documents. Consider feasibility, cost- effectiveness and the political/social climate when evaluating possible solutions and courses of action.

The following structure is typical of a position paper:

An introduction-clearly identify the issue and state the author's position (should catch the reader's attention). The introduction should contain the following:

- Identification of the issue
- Statement of the position

The body: several paragraphs and should clarify the position of the author which is supported by evidence and facts (evidence can be primary source quotations, statistical data, interviews with experts, and indisputable dates or events). The body should contain the following:

- Background information
- Supporting evidence or facts
- A discussion of both sides of the issue

A conclusion should contain the following:

- Suggested courses of action
- Possible solutions

Part I: Position Statement (50 Points)

In social work practice, a position statement is a form of policy declaration. Position papers that generally provide detail and specificity arising out of an analysis and are aimed at enlightening and educating as well as influencing. You may choose from state, federal, or international policies.

You are required to hand in a 2-page position statement in letter form. You must support your position with a minimum of 3 journal articles. The letter should be written single spaced, 12-point font, and Times New Roman or Arial type.

You are required to use the following format:

1. Identification of the bill and its sponsor (selected policy).
2. Identify yourself and the organization you represent for the purposes of this issue
3. Brief summary statement of your position.
4. Summary of the issues and rationale for your position.
5. Statement of recommendation for changes.
6. Conclusion summarizing key points
7. Closing

Part II: Oral Testimony (50 Points)

You are required to give oral testimony to a “gubernatorial body” presenting the position you took in your position statement. You will record yourself in a video (up to 5 minutes) and upload to YouTube or Vimeo. You will provide the link to your professor along with your Position Statement to the appropriate folder on Brightspace. You are required to appear presentable (business casual; no hats, hoodies, etc.) in your video and behave as you would when addressing a body of government. Your presentation should follow the following format:

1. Identification of the person giving testimony.
2. Statement of appreciation to the hearing committee.
3. Brief statement of position taken.
4. Summary of issues and statement of rationale.
5. Statement of recommendations or changes.
6. Offer of assistance and thanks.

Your video will be made available for viewing to your classmates.

2. POLICY ANALYSIS PAPER (100 PTS)

The purpose of this task is to arrive at a general understanding of the present-day policies that have been established to deal with the social problem under consideration. More specifically, policy analysis attempts to determine historical antecedents to existing policy; the values and goals implicit and/or explicit in a policy; and the sources – legislative, judicial or administrative– from which the current formalized policy has emanated. Within this context the student examines the scope of coverage, the kind and level of benefits to be provided in the interest of attaining the goals set forth in the policy, and other specific features that influence the manner in which social services are made available to the problem population. Consider how policies are written to affect certain populations based on gender, sexual orientation, race and/or class.

You will select a current state or federal social welfare policy. Using the model for policy analysis in the textbook (Chapter 3), you will write a Policy Analysis paper on your chosen policy. Papers should be 12-14 pages. Quality is considered as important as quantity.

Students will submit sections of their Policy Analysis Paper by the due date for approval and review by the instructor. If students do NOT submit these initial components of the assignment by the due date, there will be a 10-point deduction from the Policy Analysis paper grade. Submission of the sections paper will reassure students that they are "on the right track" and they will receive sufficient feedback to help direct the completion of their paper.

DISCUSSION ANSWER/RESPONSES - (10 points each (week 7=20pts; 150 total):

You will have 1 discussion per week (except weeks of the midterm and final) class discussions that will be found under the "Discussion" tab in D2L Brightspace. The discussions are an integral part of this learning experience during this online course. Each week there will be a discussion topic that you will need to address and then respond to the posting of your classmates. At the Masters level, the expectation is that there will be appropriate use of grammar and conceptual theoretical frameworks. Also your responses are expected to be thoughtful, insightful and to make use of your analytical thinking skills. Short, limited, thoughtless and half-hearted responses will be graded accordingly.

Read: Put effort into your interactions in the weekly discussions. They are a vital component for a successful and meaningful academic attainment in this web-based class.

The discussion will open on Monday at 12:00 am and the student will be expected to respond to the discussion post by Wednesday at 11:59 p.m. The response to the prompt will need to be 7- 10 sentences in length, using your critical thinking skills.

Additionally, you will need to respond to TWO of your peers' post between Thursday at 12:01 am and Sunday at 11:59 pm. Responses should be 3-5 sentences, again using critical thinking skills. Do not be afraid to challenge the class with original ideas and controversial thoughts. Anything can be addressed respectfully. Students are expected to behave in these discussions as you would in person. Respectful in action and respectful in reaction.

Remember that respect and civility is tantamount to professional behavior. Inappropriate messages or interaction will be handled as a disciplinary issues and dealt with accordingly. The discussion will close on Sunday at 11:59 p.m. If these deadlines and guidelines for the discussion are not met, the student will receive a point deduction for that week's assignment.

Department or Accrediting Agency Required Content

Engagement Policy

Final Evaluation and Grade Depends on both Classroom attendance and Participation

Inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both Face-to-Face classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material.

To earn a level of competency within a specific course, students must demonstrate both mastery of content and active engagement.

Mastery of content areas is evidenced by successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, the Social Work Profession is built upon human interactions and building human relationships – which is defined as engagement. Engagement is defined as meaningful involvement in interactions with instructor, peers, outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment). Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or F2F, students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities can include participation in a live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a Face to Face course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions and collaborating in group interactive projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and meet the threshold of active engagement 80% of the time during a semester. Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet for successful completion of the course.

As we enter the Spring semester, we are all working under stresses and strains related to the COVID-19 pandemic. It is imperative we communicate consistently and frequently. If, for any reason, you are not able to complete assignments or actively engage in the course, you MUST reach out to your instructor and let him or her know.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the University Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct and National Association of Social Workers' (NASW) Code of Ethics.

University Code of Conduct located in the Student Guide Book at <http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf> (pp 34- 66). On the University Website under Campus Life Documents

To become aware of University policies related to student academic and behavioral expectations for students refer to the Guidebook.

Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or to the Department Head. More serious offenses may be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p 35)

Social Work students conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. Closely linked with professional recognition is the social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards. It is imperative for professional social workers to be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain the public trust. It is essential that each social work student gain a thorough understanding of the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate in behavior, both in and out of the classroom. Student conduct is to reflect the tenets of NASW Code of Ethics (located at <https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp>) on the NASW website: <https://www.socialworkers.org>
